In the trophy case...

In Interscholastic League...

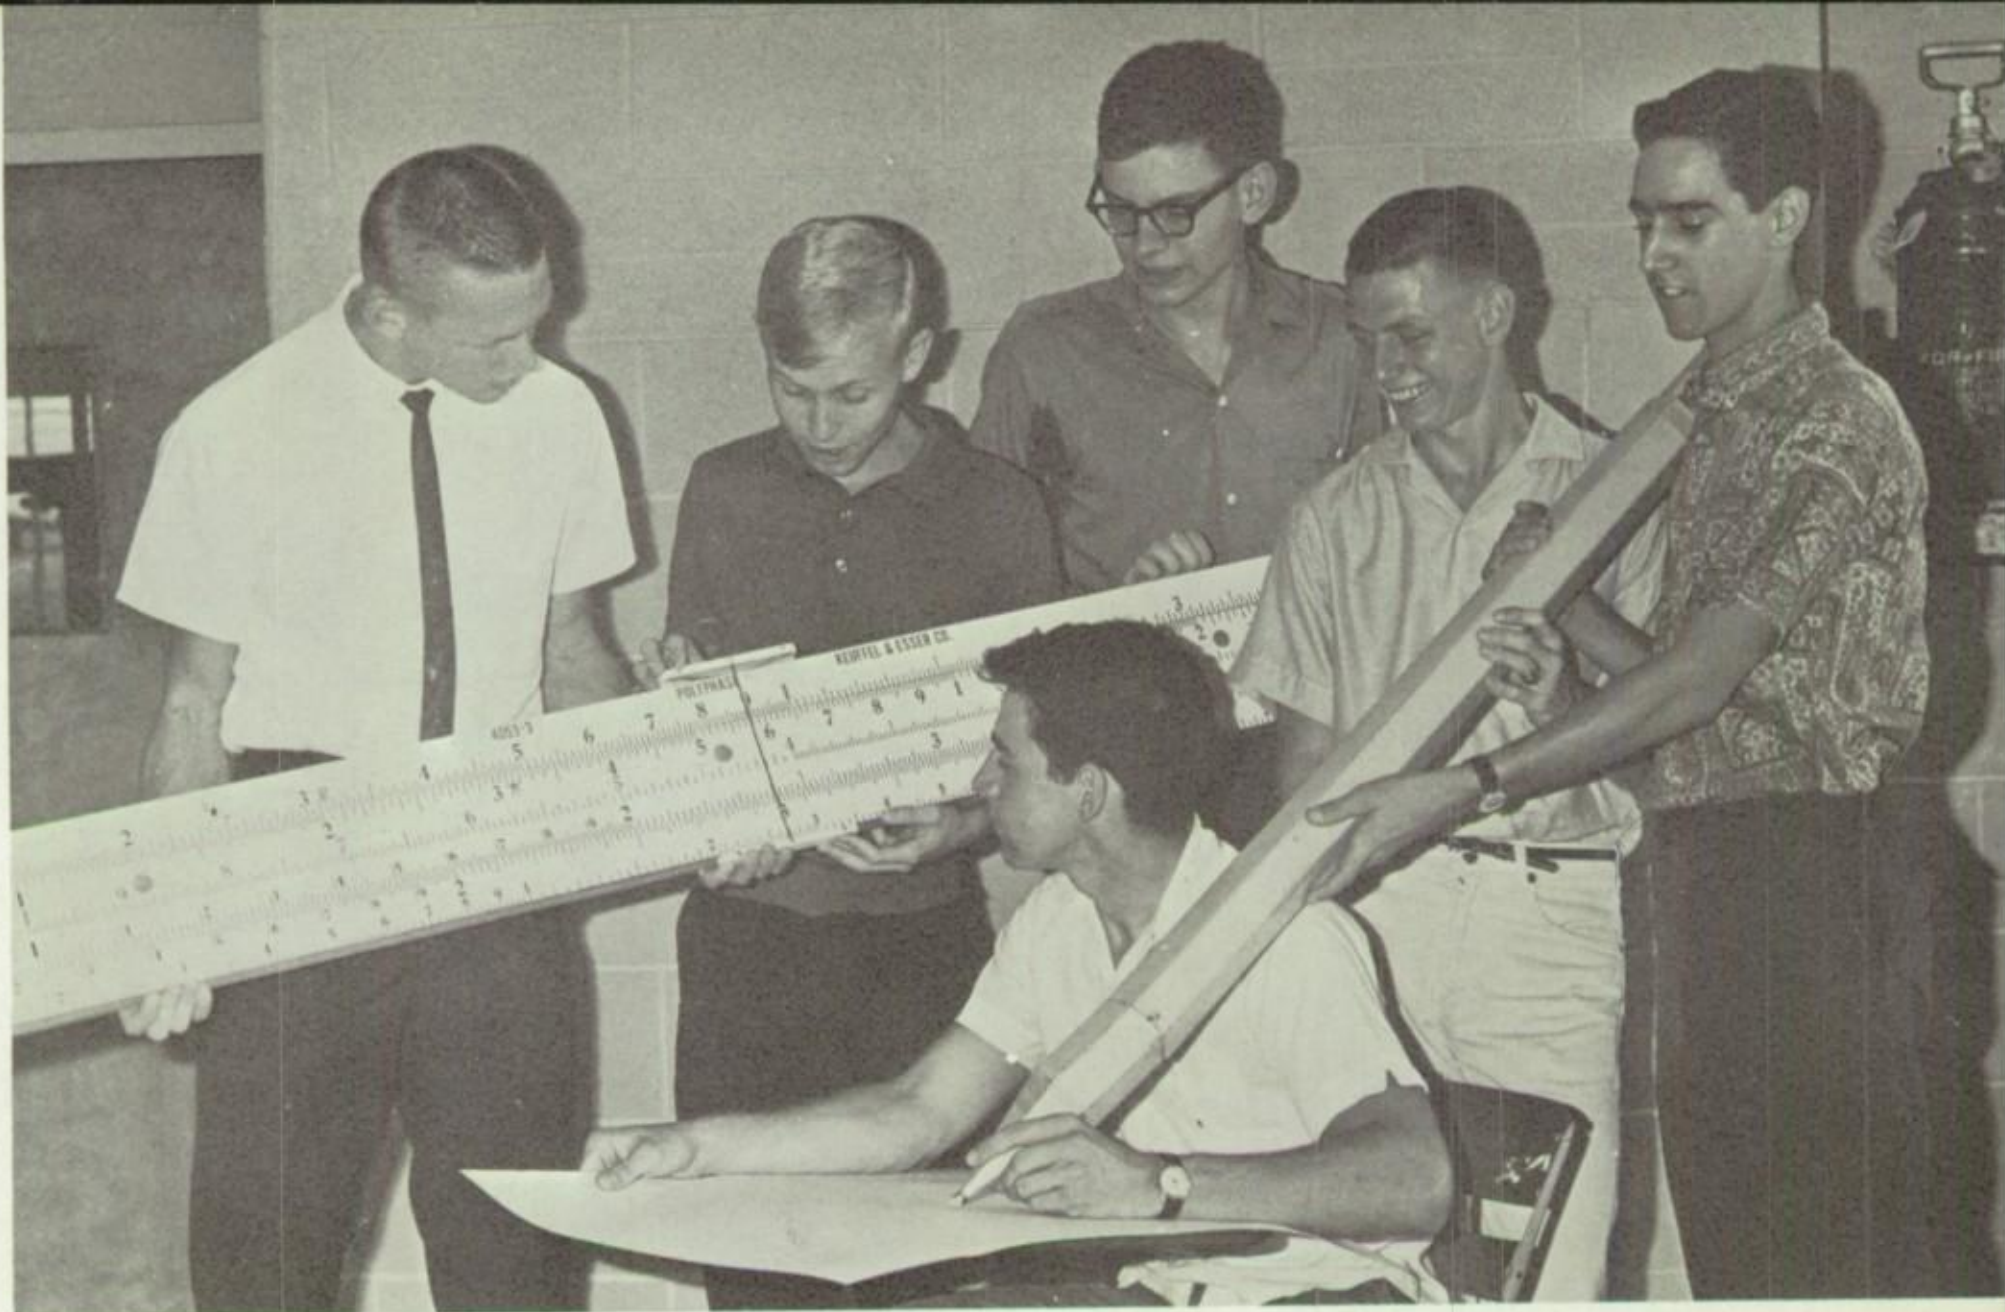

In state baseball tournaments...

Lee's Honors display the talent and ability of the youth of today that is needed to fulfill the tasks and obligations of the world of tomorrow.

It is only in the World of the Young that teamwork throughout four high school years brings those precious moments of triumph and glory.

Lee's honors include six national merit finalists, all city sports awards, A+ Bugle Call trophies, state UIL speech contestants and an all-state baseball berth.

Lee-ites' Leaders . . .

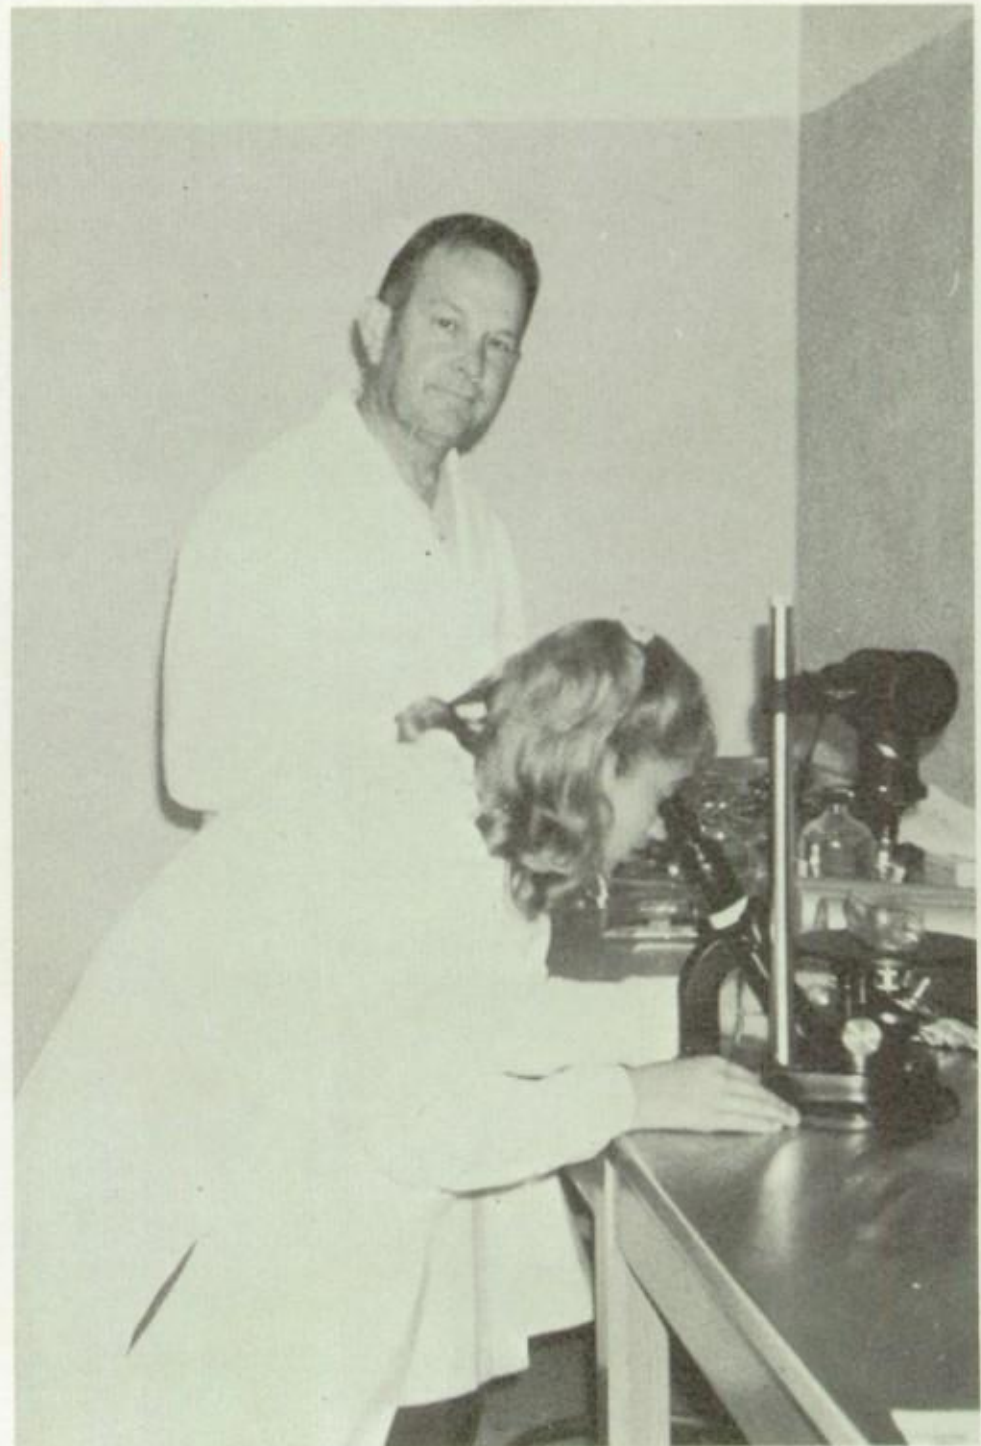

At club meeting. . .

Lee-ites's Leaders represent the future of the world. A 1965 graduate could be the President of the United States in the near future.

Student leadership is symbolic of youthful drive, enthusiasm, ambition and accomplishment.

At Lee, teens are always on the go--at club meeting, conventions, workshops and summer seminars.

At summer seminars. . .

Lee-ites' Traditions . . .

Lee-ites's Traditions set a pattern of life for Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores to follow.

Underclassmen are taught by the Seniors to sing the alma mater with pride, to roar out a rebel yell, to support all school activities and to respect the traditionally honored position occupied by the Seniors.

Traditions bring memories of spirit posters, rebel flags, cheerleaders and pep talks.

FACULTY

Teachers play a vital role in the World of the Young--especially at Lee. The faculty represents that important spark which can lift students toward a pride of accomplishment and success.

Demonstrating skill and devotion inside and out of the classroom, the instructors spend countless hours helping Lee-ites gain an education for the world of tomorrow.

All the world is a stage for Lee instructors so the 1965 TRAVELER proudly presents "Teachers in the Classroom."

A Tribute . . .

Dr. Virgil T. Blossom
Superintendent, North East Independent School District, 1959-1965

TIME MAGAZINE and THE NATIONAL OBSERVER noted his passing. North East residents mourned and regretted it. To the rest of the United States, Dr. Virgil T. Blossom was the Little Rock, Ark., school superintendent who made national headlines by integrating the city schools in 1957. But to San Antonians and to Lee-ites, he was the man who made the North East District an outstanding one.

During his short five and one-half years here, Dr. Blossom worked hard for the district and saw much progress. There were new schools, broadened curriculums and acceptance of North East by the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges. Success of the $6 million bond issue was his last triumph; it will provide facilities and schools vital to the maintenance of a quality educational program.

He was a big man and size was the first impression one had when meeting him. Then it was his friendliness and outgoing personality that was noticed, or rather, felt. He was interested in people as individuals.

He had a way with people. It is said that some would go into his office fuming with anger and walk out in such a cheerful mood that one wondered what kind of magic this magnetic man used. It was a simple quality--human relations, an art that could have him wealthy in business. He chose, instead, to be an educator, and education was his life.

He was an educator and a leader with a dignity and humility possessed only by truly great men. But that's only natural, for Dr. Virgil T. Blossom was indeed a great man.

Editor, Bugle Call

Lee Administrators

Plan Top-notch Year

Operating a school with an enrollment of 2100 is no easy job, but Robert E. Lee's administrative staff keeps pace with the growing problems by keeping Lee on top in all academic and extra-curricular fields.

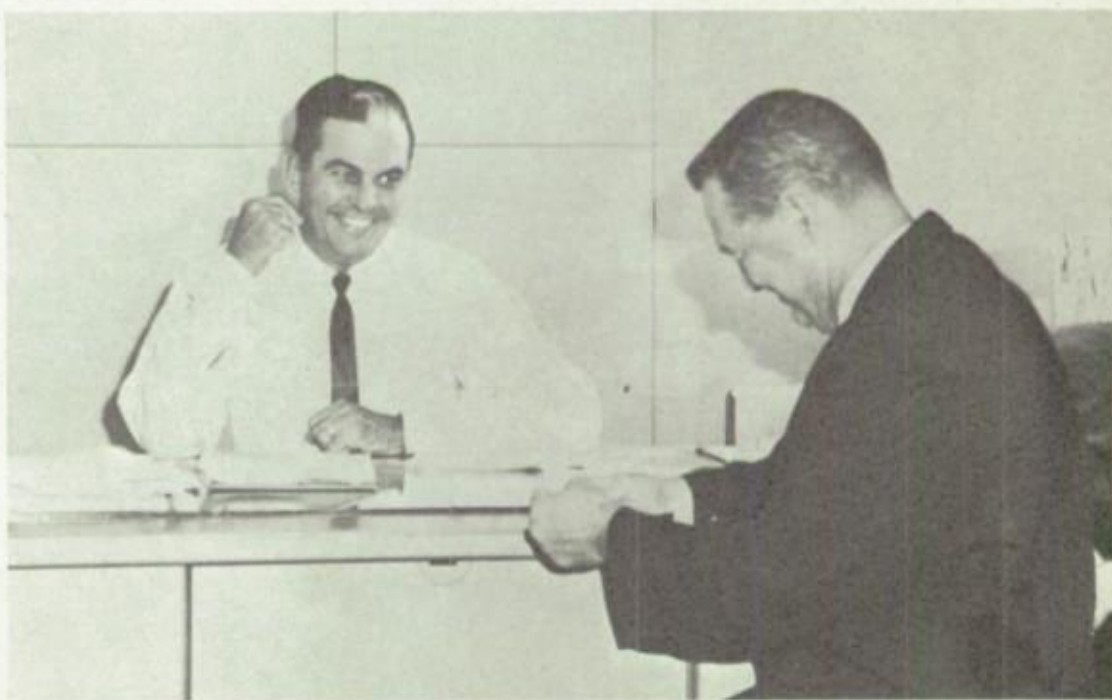

Mr. A. Kenneth Flory, principal; Mr. Luther Hartman, vice principal; and Mr. Mike Morrow, assistant vice principal occupy Lee's top executive positions.

Working hand in hand with the North East Independent School District Central Office and Superintendent Joe P. Wood, Lee administrators were instrumental in the passing of the $6 million bond issue which will finance a new district athletic field house, the building of two new high schools and additions to elementary schools.

During advisory, Principal A. Kenneth Flory informs the student body on special assembly procedure.

Vice principal Luther Hartman confers with Mr. Virgil Baer.

Holding a Lee Summit Meeting are Mr. Hartman, Mr. Flory and Assistant Vice principal Mike Morrow.

Student's moans and groans do not faze Mrs. Betty Chandler, Senior English teacher, as she passes out pop quizzes.

English Comes Alive In Lee Classrooms

William Shakespeare... Ralph Waldo Emerson... John Steinbeck... These are but a few of the personalities English teachers must introduce to Lee students.

Each year the Department must acquaint students with American and English writers and their works. Book reviews and detailed critical analyses are also a vital part of the curriculum.

The Department, under the direction of Mrs. Melvov Blount, has introduced a course in speed reading this fall for Senior English classes.

Miss Jeanette Day, Sophomore English teacher, listens to a pupil's comment on the day's reading assignment.

"Hamlet" comes alive as Mrs. Melvov Blount, Senior English teacher and department head, shows illustrations from the stage production.

Conference period finds Mrs. Catherine Prater, Junior English teacher, gathering notes for her class lecture on Edgar Allan Poe.

Lee offers a wide range of subjects from Algebra I to Analytical Geometry and Probability and Statistics to all students wishing to advance in the field of mathematics.

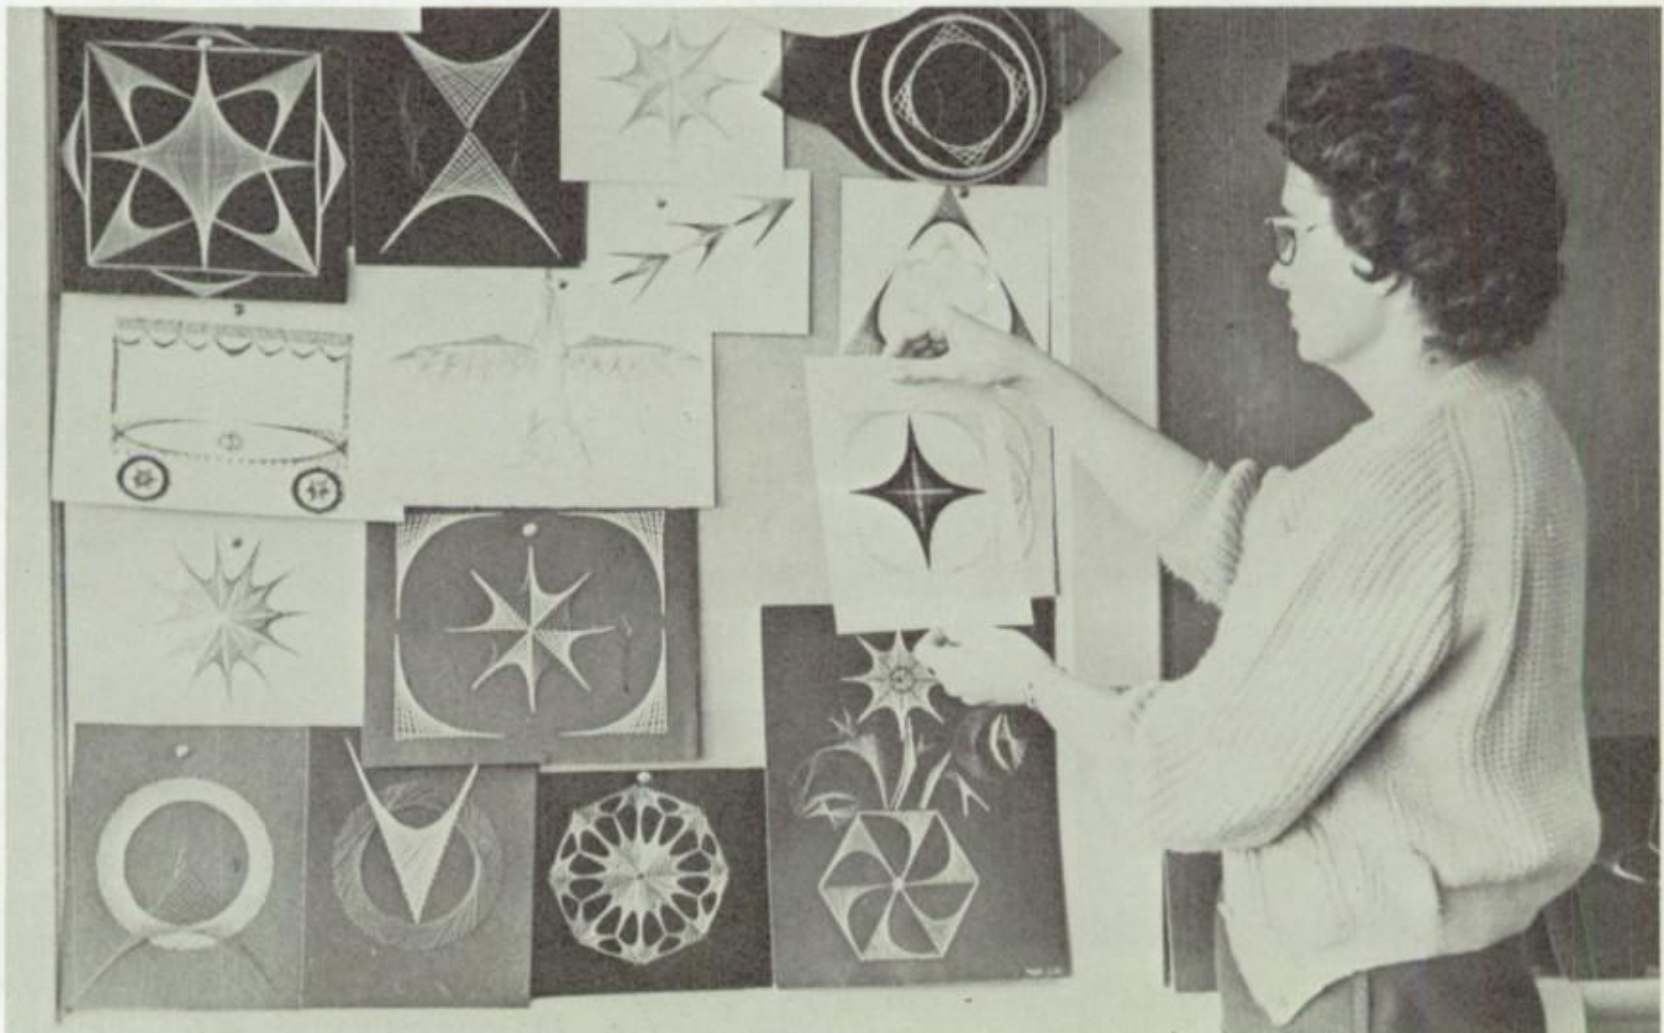

Geometry is used by imaginative students in showing the mathematical side of art, just as algebra and trigonometry are used to develop logic and reasoning.

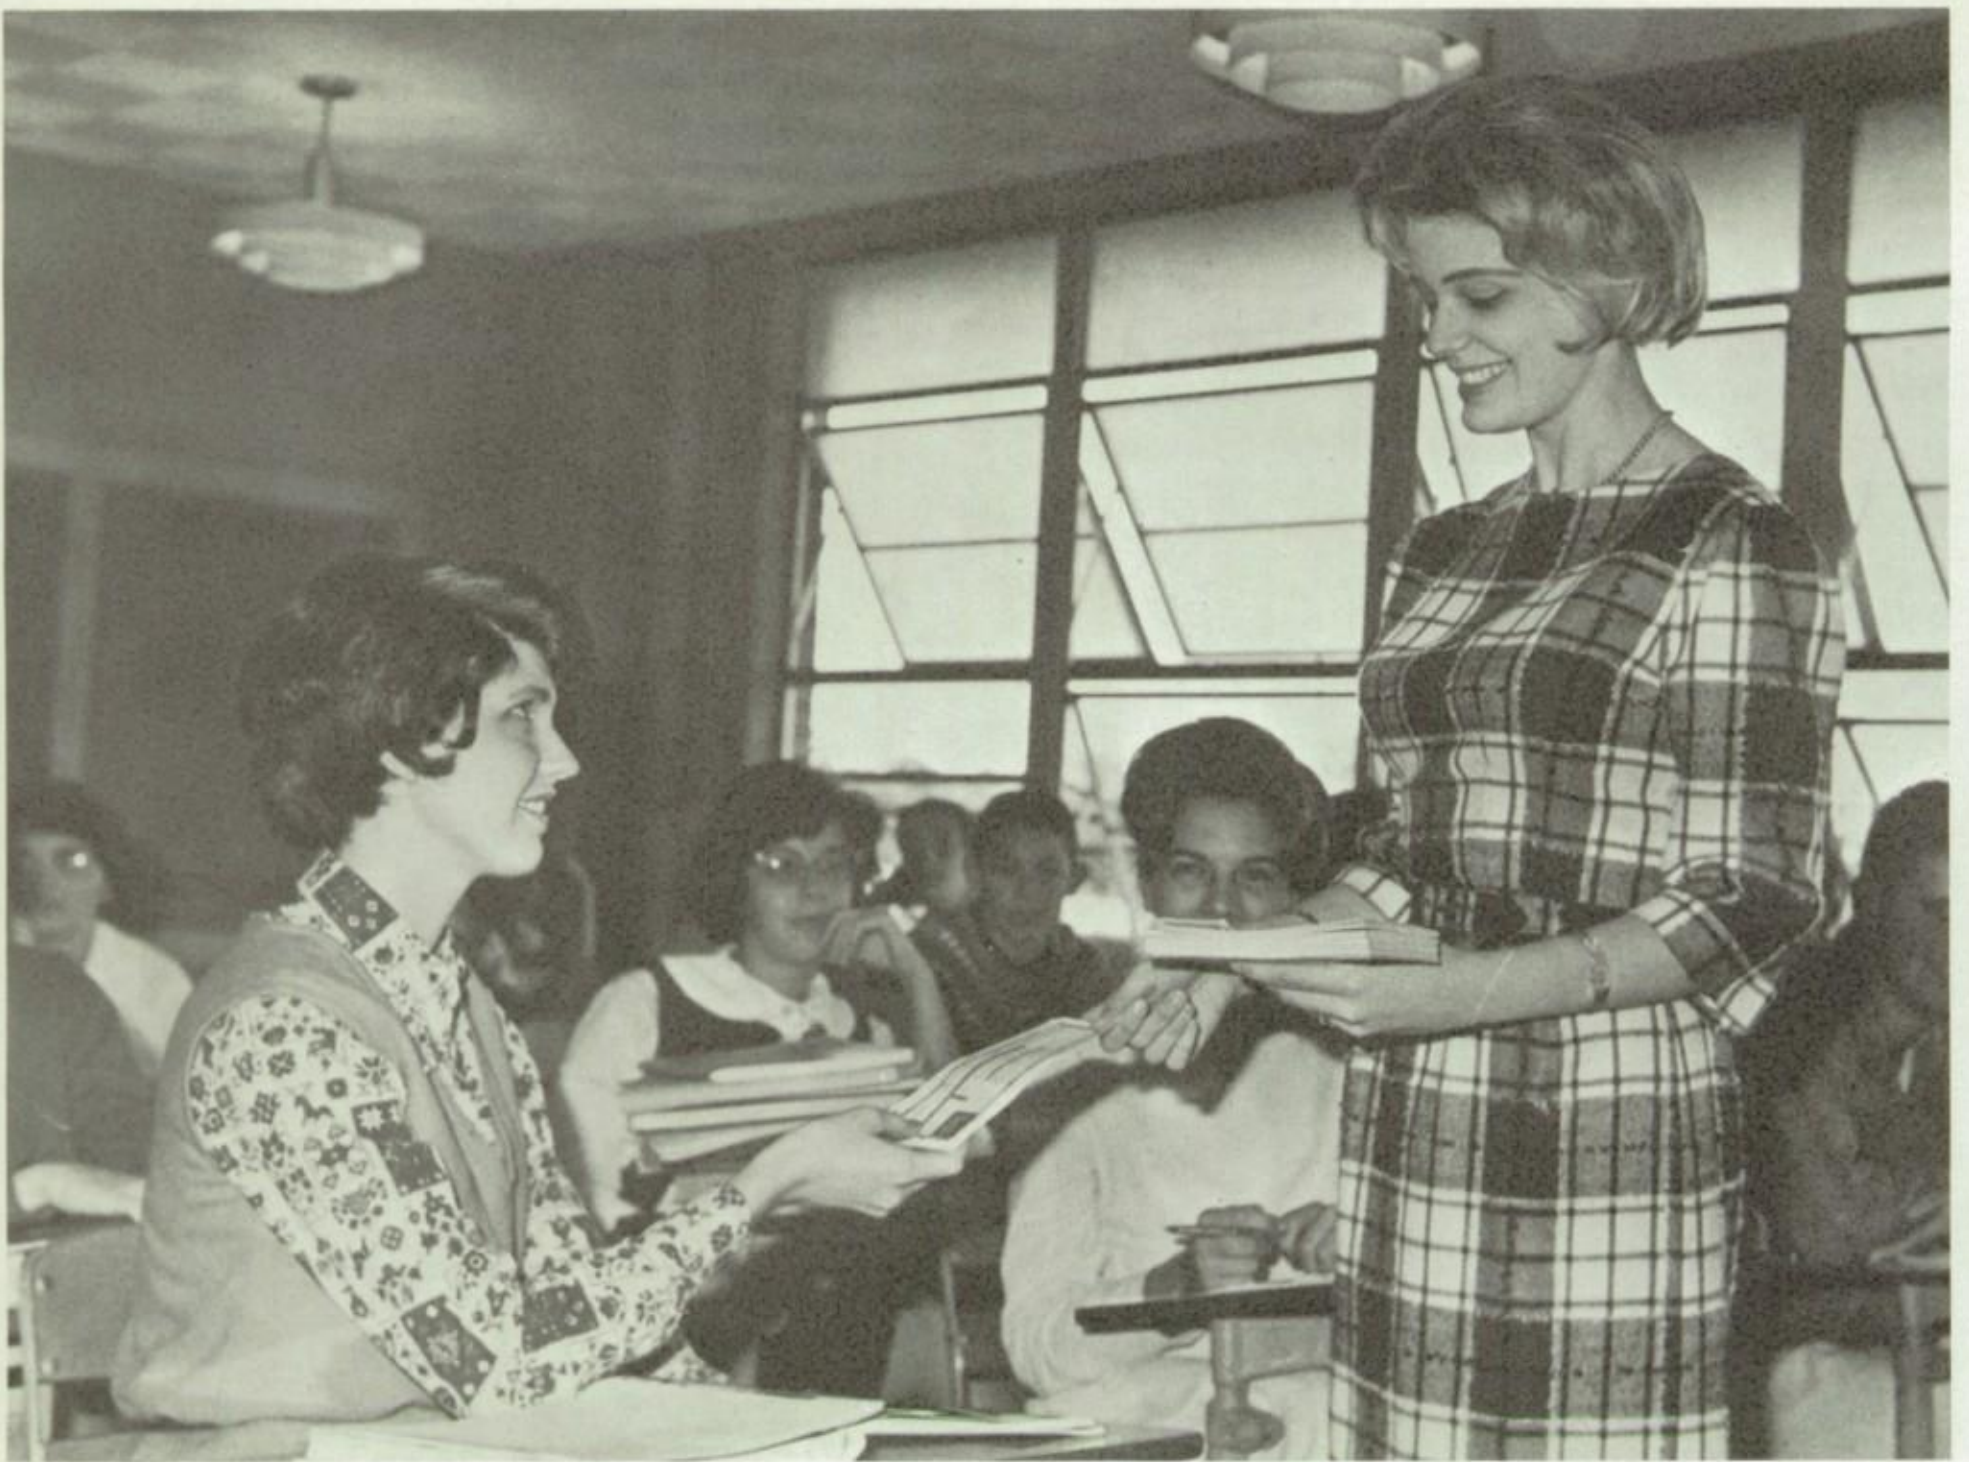

Much importance is placed on these subjects as the modern world of educated people requires a good knowledge of fundamental math.

Mrs. Frances Everett brightens her room with geometrical designs created by students with thread and cardboard.

A fine point of Algebra II is explained by Mrs. Nell Bueker as she plays the role of the "relaxed" teacher.

Election Campaigns

Make History Live

The Lee History Department, under the direction of Mr. Mike Morrow, includes courses in Texas, American and world history, civics and economics.

World history gives students a chance to learn about the nations of the world which helps them to better understand the complexities and problems of the troubled places such as Viet Nam, Laos and South America.

Students are able to study present and past American and Texas governments so that they will be able to participate in future politics as well-informed citizens.

American history is taught in the hopes that the students will be able to recognize the errors and successes of past ideas so that the students will be able to intelligently help decide the future of our country.

Mr. M. Bence lectures on conservatism versus liberalism.

Commercial Department

Trains Future Bosses

Lee students will have no qualms when they confront the world of big business. Typing, bookkeeping, stenography, office practice, business law, business math and English--all prepare them for future success.

This year, under the leadership of Mrs. Ruth Hicks, the Department has acquired more new typewriters, adding machines and classroom facilities.

Through the Fine Arts Department, students are given a chance to become well-rounded Lee-ites. The drama and speech departments, under Mr. Charlie Walker and Mrs. Mary Ann Hill, successfully hold the Lee Speech Contest, enter Interscholastic competition and give two dramatic productions a year.

The Lee Band, under Mr. Marion Rodman, and the A Cappella Choir, under Mr. Reid Sellers, give students a chance to display their talents in musical activities.

Mr. Doyle Brown, Art department head, directs students' talents toward artistic fields.

Mr. Charlie Walker, Lee drama coach, directs actors in the spring production, Begger on Horseback.

Science Department Advances Curriculum

Miss Joyce Dupre pauses for a moment of thought while preparing a lab exercise for her biology classes.

The gas laws formula is introduced to chemistry students by Mrs. Janice Biggerstaff.

The Science Department, under Miss Ruth Tatum, can be proud of the advances that have been made this year in the curriculum and science-related activities.

This year the department has added a course in Biology II which affords students the opportunity for individual research and greater study in such areas as biochemistry, genetics and ecology. Other courses offered are Biology, Chemistry I and II and Physics.

Department members also hosted the Alamo District Science Fair at Lee this year and encouraged the participation of nine students in summer science institutes this past summer.

Good health is vital in today's quick-paced world. The physical education department, under Mr. Bill Evans, helps develop firm muscles, coordination and skill in many sports as well as knowledge of good health habits.

Square dancing, tennis, volleyball and swimming are a small part of Lee's physical educational curriculum. The athletic department offers such competitive sports as football, basketball, baseball and track.

There is no doubt that physical fitness plays an important part in giving Lee-ites a well-rounded education.

Inspecting the cheerleaders' new basketball uniforms is Mrs. Doreen Forren, Lee-Ette sponsor.

Coach George Smith emphasizes the value of exercise, exercise and more exercise for the swimming team. The team is the newest member of Lee's sports family.

The cultures of foreign nations as well as those of an ancient age are stressed in the foreign language department as much as the languages themselves.

This year the department, under Miss Jo Hestand, boasts the addition of German to the curriculum.

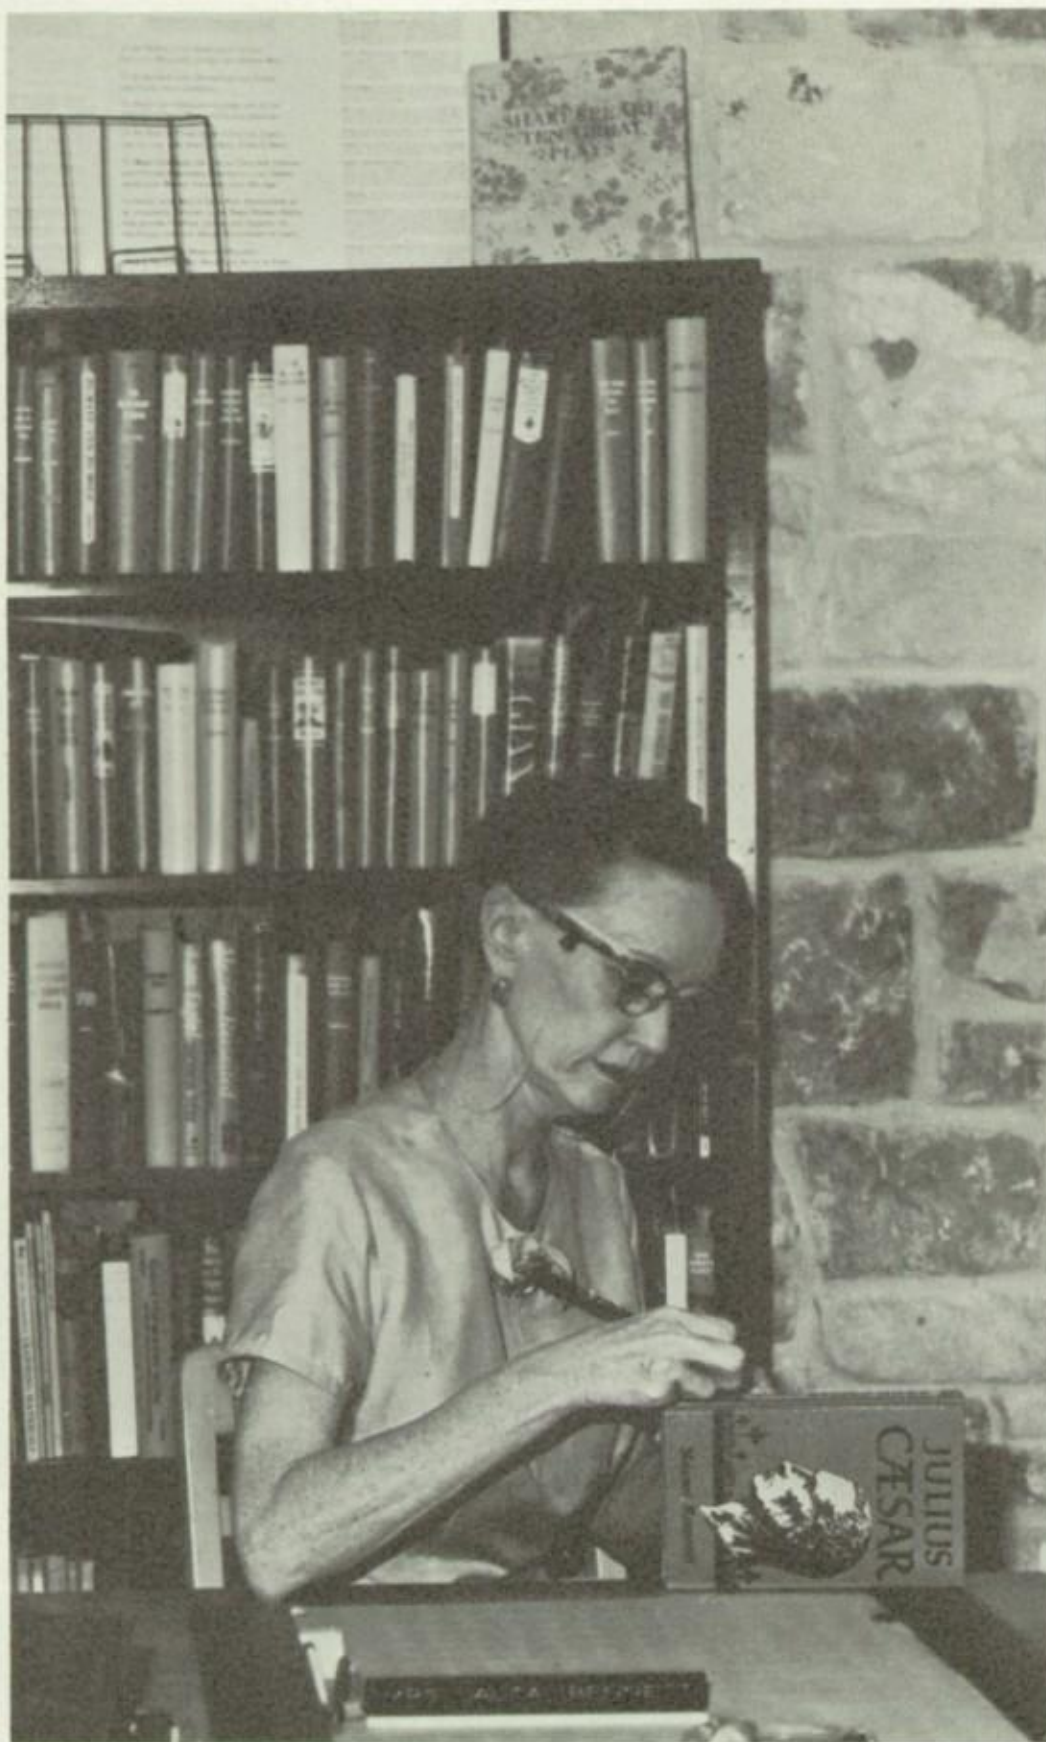

Knowledge of a foreign language is important in today's ever-changing world where vital communication between countries depends on the understanding of other nations and peoples.

Miss Sue Worden adds culture to class routine as she plays German Christmas carols.

The language lab is used by Miss Martha Taylor to help students improve vocabulary and pronunciation.

Mrs. Alta Bennett marks the back of a book before putting it into circulation.

New Books Keep Librarians Busy

Many hours are spent by Mrs. Alta Bennett, librarian, and Mrs. Nell Crain, secretary, mending old books as well as marking new ones.

Another duty of the two is to aid students in the selection of books for school work and research papers.

This year, Lee instituted closed book shelves in an effort to prevent book losses.

A new book is readied for the shelves as Mrs. Nell Crain completes another book card.

Mrs. Jean Pearson demonstrates the correct technique in sewing procedures.

Helping students like Dorothy Schramek learn to cook is one of the jobs of Miss LaNelle Uselton.

Homemaking Classes Feature Everyday Living

Giving the key to the art of home management is job of the Home Economics Department under Miss Barbara Wofford.

Application of principles in cooking, sewing and hospitality are stressed with students preparing and serving complete meals, sewing the latest in the world of fashion and planning such activities as Mother-Daughter teas and open houses.

Home and Family gives boys as well as girls experience in the domestic arts.

Miss Barbara Wofford helps Joy Garrett plan a well-balanced meal.

Phones, Typewriters Fill Secretaries' Days

Mrs. Helen Butler calls home for an ill student, while Mrs. Velma Stappenbeck checks over the day's absentees.

One of the duties of the school treasurer, Mrs. Gladys Lorillard, is issuing receipts for football ticket sales.

Mrs. Thelma Hall, school secretary, searches her files for an inner-office memo.

Mrs. Mary Lou Hackett and Mrs. Mildred Francis, secretaries to the counselors, prepare forms for student testing.

Need Money? Better Grades? Counselors Have Answers

Need Scholarship information? Desire advice on college? Having trouble with algebra? These are only a fraction of the problems that can be solved by the Counselors office.

The Counselors' office serves Lee students by handling the paper work of class schedules, testing materials, transcripts, graduation requirements and scholarships.

Keeping tab on 2100 students' schedule cards is only a small part of Mr. Francis Burgess' duties.

Mrs. Frances Peveto finds a rare moment of peace and quiet in her busy schedule.

Trustees Plan Help Pass $6

Mr. Albert Brown, President

The North East Independent School District, under the leadership of the 1964-65 Board of Trustees, helped to pass a $6 million bond issue vital to the maintenance of the present district educational standards.

The bond provides funds for the construction of two new high schools, fifty-two elementary classroom additions, a district field house and for library and teaching facilities improvements.

A new distribution plan will include six-year elementary schools, two-year junior high schools and four-year high schools, which will allow for college and career-planning in high schools and concentrated education and counseling in the junior highs.

Mr. Martin D. Stroble, business manager, tallies daily receipts of the district.

P-TA Tells School Story for 1964-65

"We the P-TA cooperate in the school story. Together we help youth by improving our working partnership," is the theme with which the Robert E. Lee High School P-TA opened the 1964-1965 school year.

The P-TA is headed by Mrs. E. J. Swerk, president; Mrs. Sam Neely, vice-president; Mrs. J. T. Griffin, recording secretary; Mrs. Dick G. Thiesen, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. L. D. Stark, treasurer.

Monthly meetings, Open House, and a Mexican supper are sponsored by the P-TA to promote parent interest in students' work and teachers, a vital area of interest in the North East Independent School District.

Mrs. W. H. Humble, Mrs. J. A. Kenagy, and Mrs. G. Tull are acting as the cooks in preparation of the P-TA sponsored Mexican supper.

Mrs. E. J. Swerk, Mrs. Sam Neely, Mrs. J. T. Griffin, Mrs. Dick Thiesen and Mrs. L. D. Stark look over the program for the P-TA year.

"Profit from the Mexican Supper will be used to purchase more Library books," according to Mrs. Wallace Powers, Budget and Finance committee chairman.

Trying to boost the P-TA membership drive, Mr. A. R. Rowe mans the ticket counter during the Mexican Supper.

Principal A. K. Flory and family join the festivities at the annual P-TA Mexican Supper.

Mrs. L. D. Stark, treasurer, collects P-TA membership envelopes from Junior Glenda Rubin.

Lee Veteran Teacher Prepares for Retirement

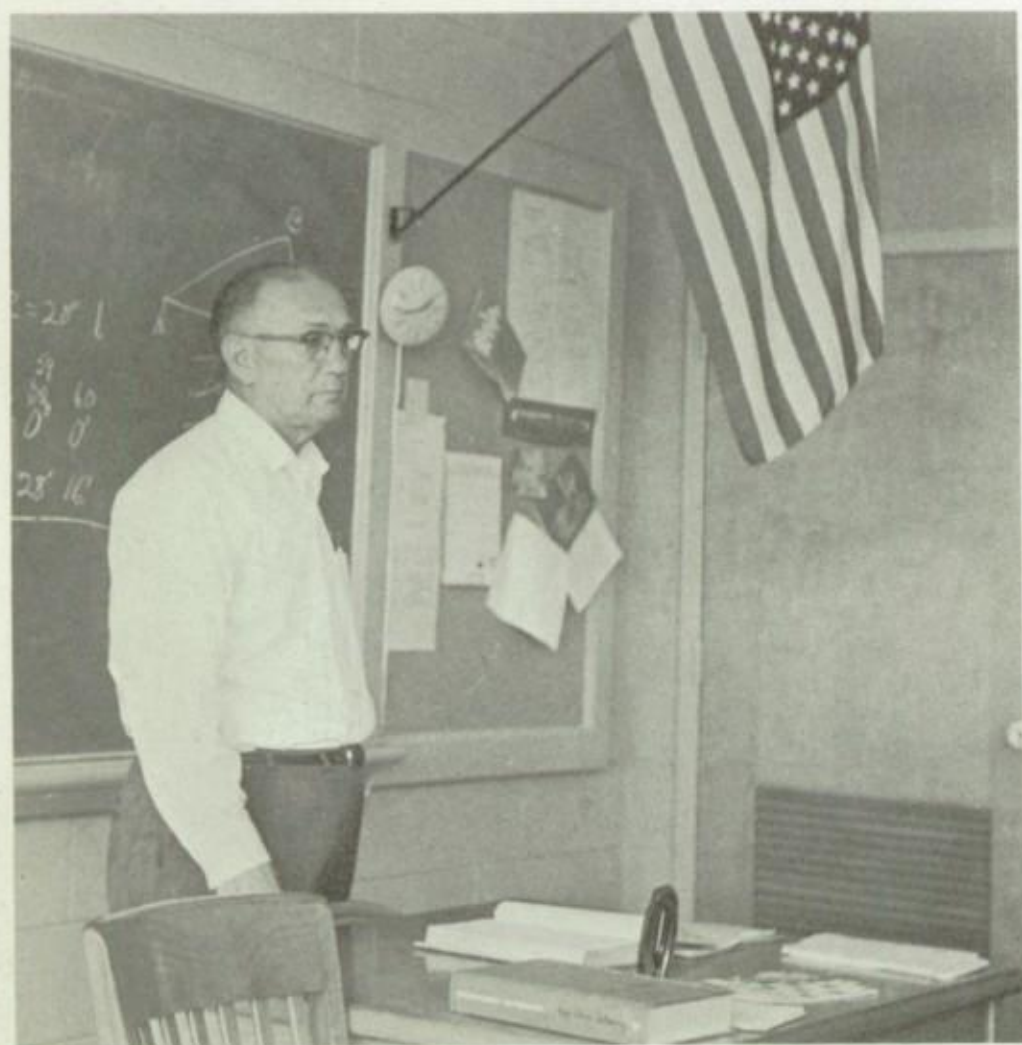

Planning to use their camper as a means of transportation, Mr. and Mrs. Corder hope to tour the United States and Canada after their retirement.

Forty-two years is a long time! But equipped with his philosophy that "the happiest people are those who serve in the community," Mr. R. Y. Corder, Lee geometry teacher, prepares to review his 42 teaching years as just yesterday.

To Mr. Corder, it seems only the other day when he began his teaching career after graduation from high school in 1922. In the smaller schools of the 1920's, it wasn't unusual for Mr. Corder to serve as teacher, principal, and janitor. Seven years ago he arrived at Lee to teach his favorite subject, mathematics.

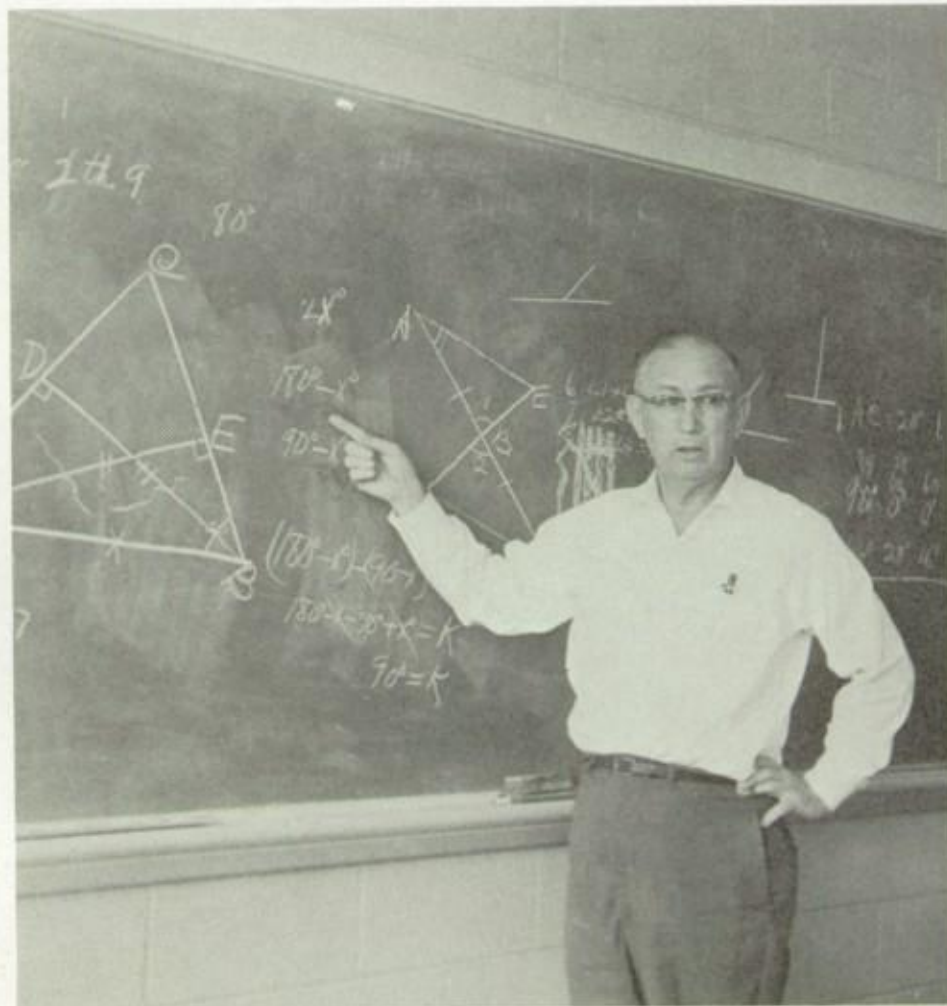

After retirement Mr. Corder and his wife, also a teacher, plan to tour the United States and Canada in their truck-camper.

Lee salutes Mr. Corder.

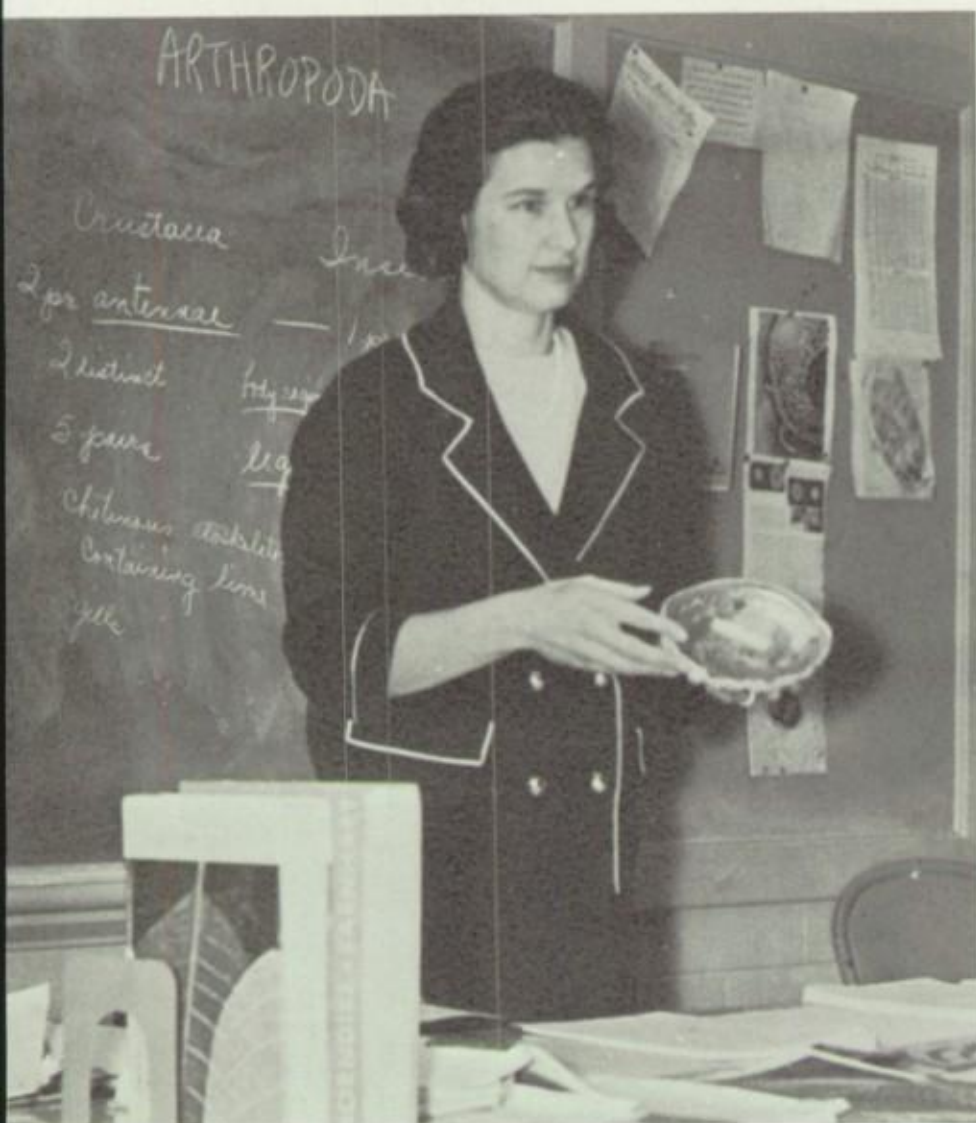

Lecturing to the class, Mr. Corder goes over the days assignment.

Teaching his favorite subject, mathematics, Mr. Corder explains a construction problem to the students.

Semester Brings Three New Profs

Explaining the habits of the Arthropoda, Mrs. Willard lectures to her class.

Adjusting to the daily routine, Mrs. Grossman checks for attendance cards.

Lee welcomed three new teachers to its staff at semester. Replacing Mrs. N. Loyd, Miss P. McDaniel and Mr. C. Fox are Mr. Donald Jones, Mrs. Lu Ellen Grossman and Mrs. Jean Willard.

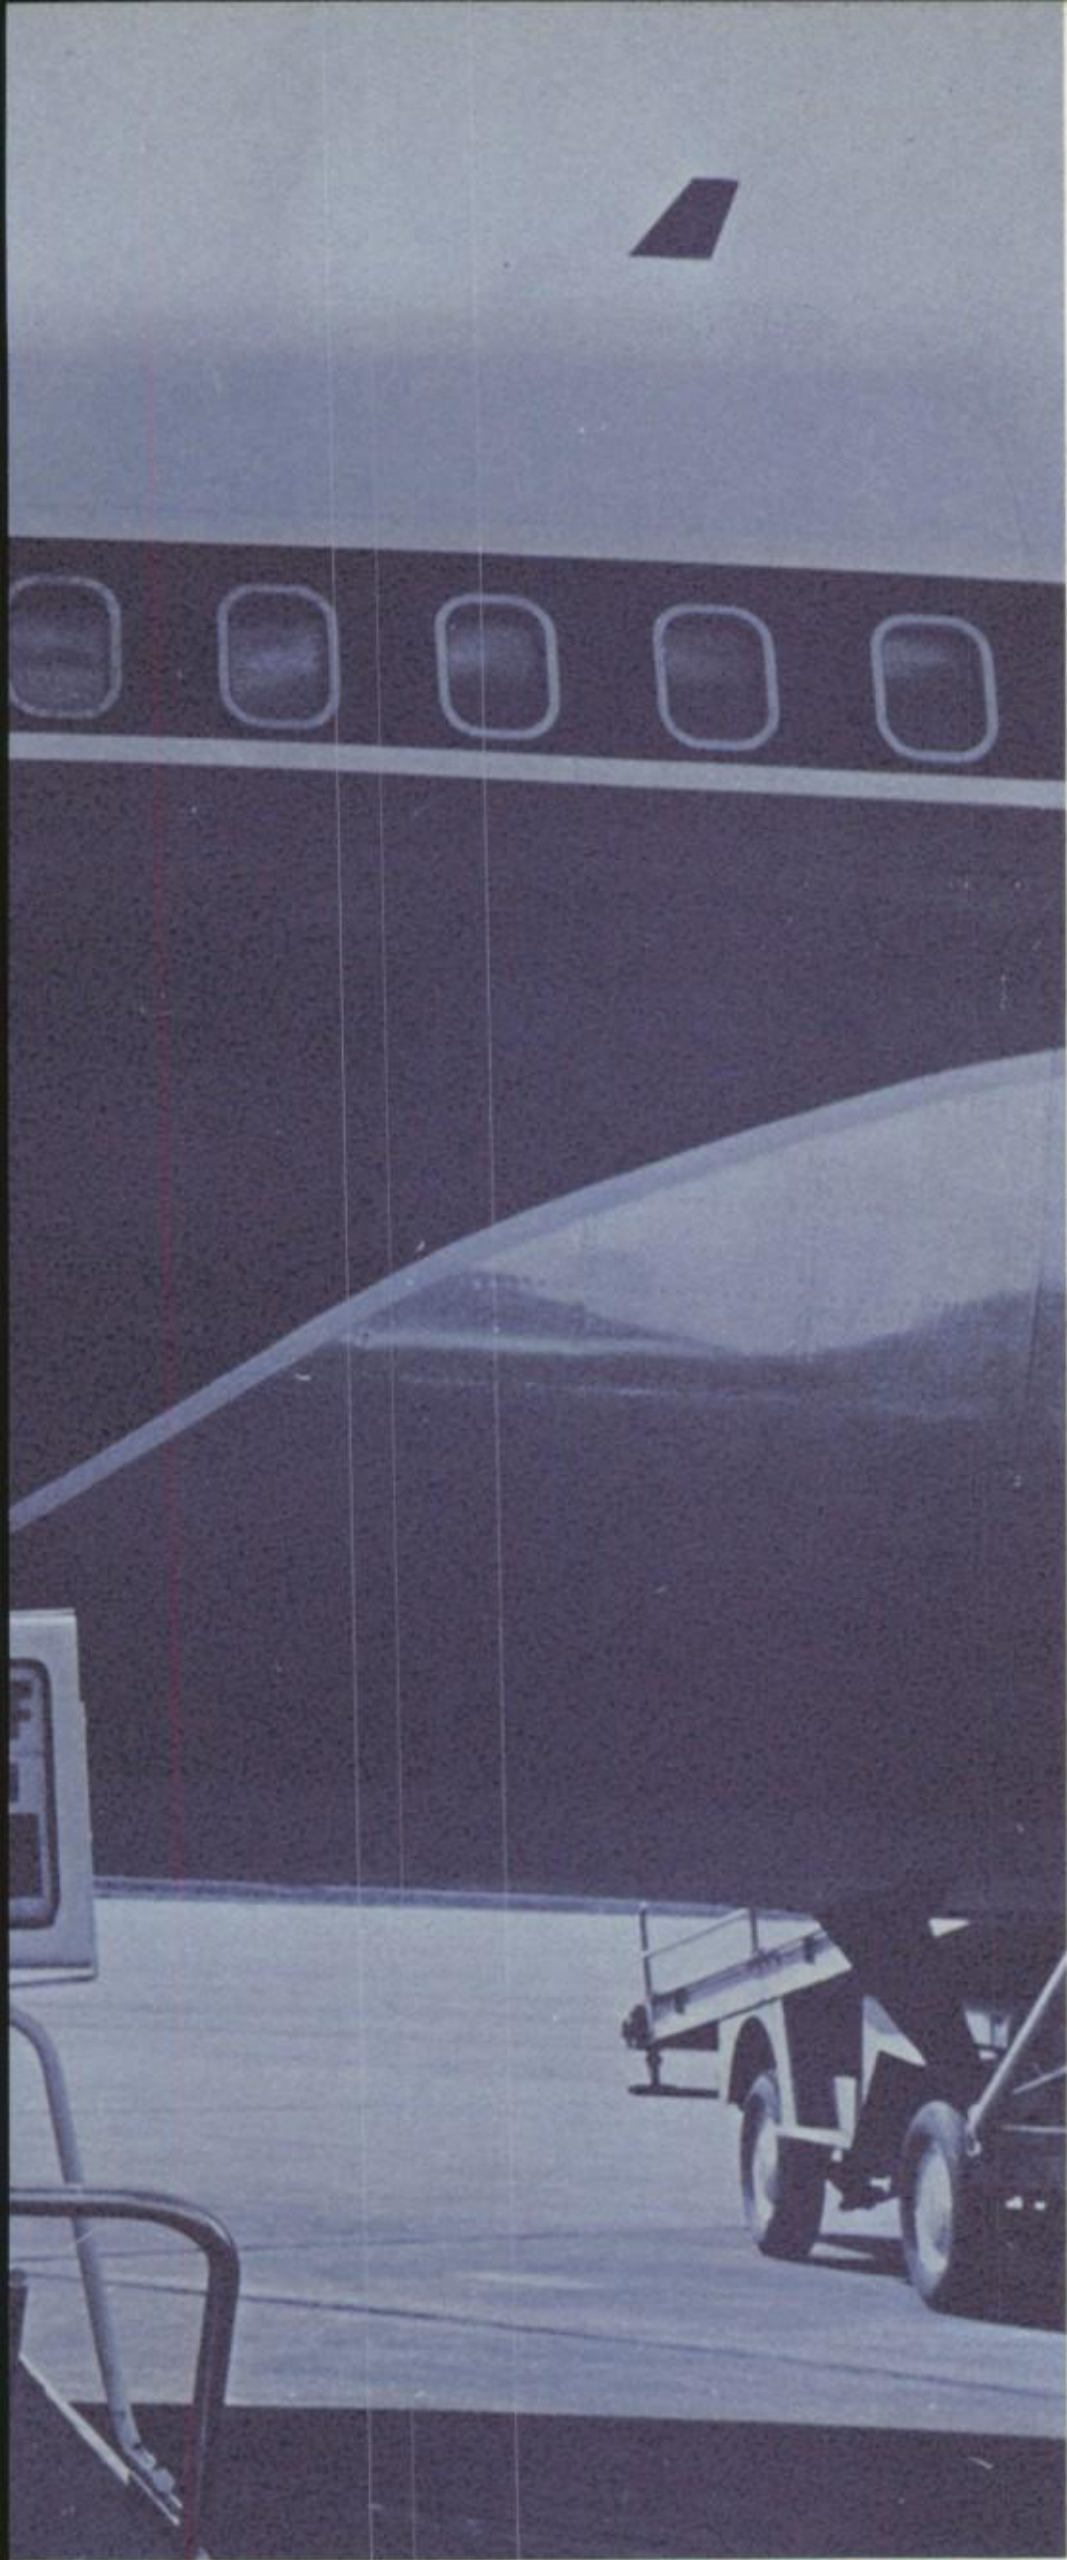

Yankees Mr. Jones and Mrs. Willard taught in Ohio and Maryland respectively before joining the Lee staff. Mrs. Grossman recently moved from Austin and this is her first teaching job in San Antonio.

Mr. Jones runs off a test for his Latin classes.

WHO'S WHO

The world will soon belong to the young and it is in high school that these future leaders are molded. The Who's Who section features Lee's personalities of today--its leaders and honor students.

Representing both extra-curricular activities and scholarship, the students are chosen on the basis of leadership, senior class scholastic rank and ability.

Here are the leaders of Lee, who are gaining experience and knowledge useful in the tasks of the adult world.

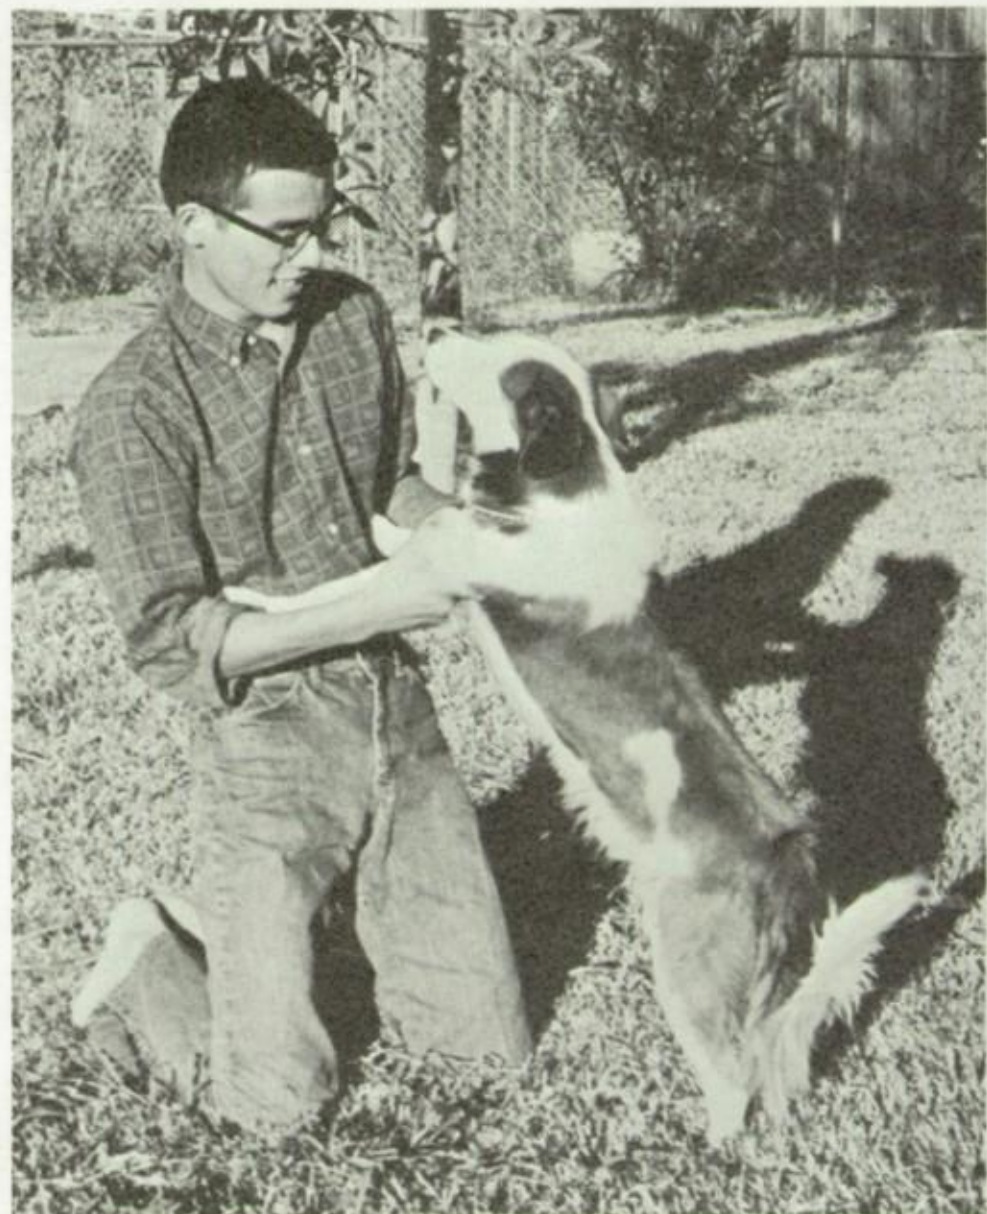

Kazuchan Mihara

From chop sticks and chop suey to hamburgers and french fries are some of the many changes that Kazuchan Kazuichi Mihara, foreign student from Naruto, Japan, encountered.

Kazuchan, Lee's third American Field Service exchange student, has proven to be one of the most energetic and active personalities at Lee. His ever famous saying, "Ahhh," has left his mark on Lee's social functions and activities.

Through all of his experiences, Kazuchan has left memories that will be kept always in the "Heart of Lee."

Peg Barry

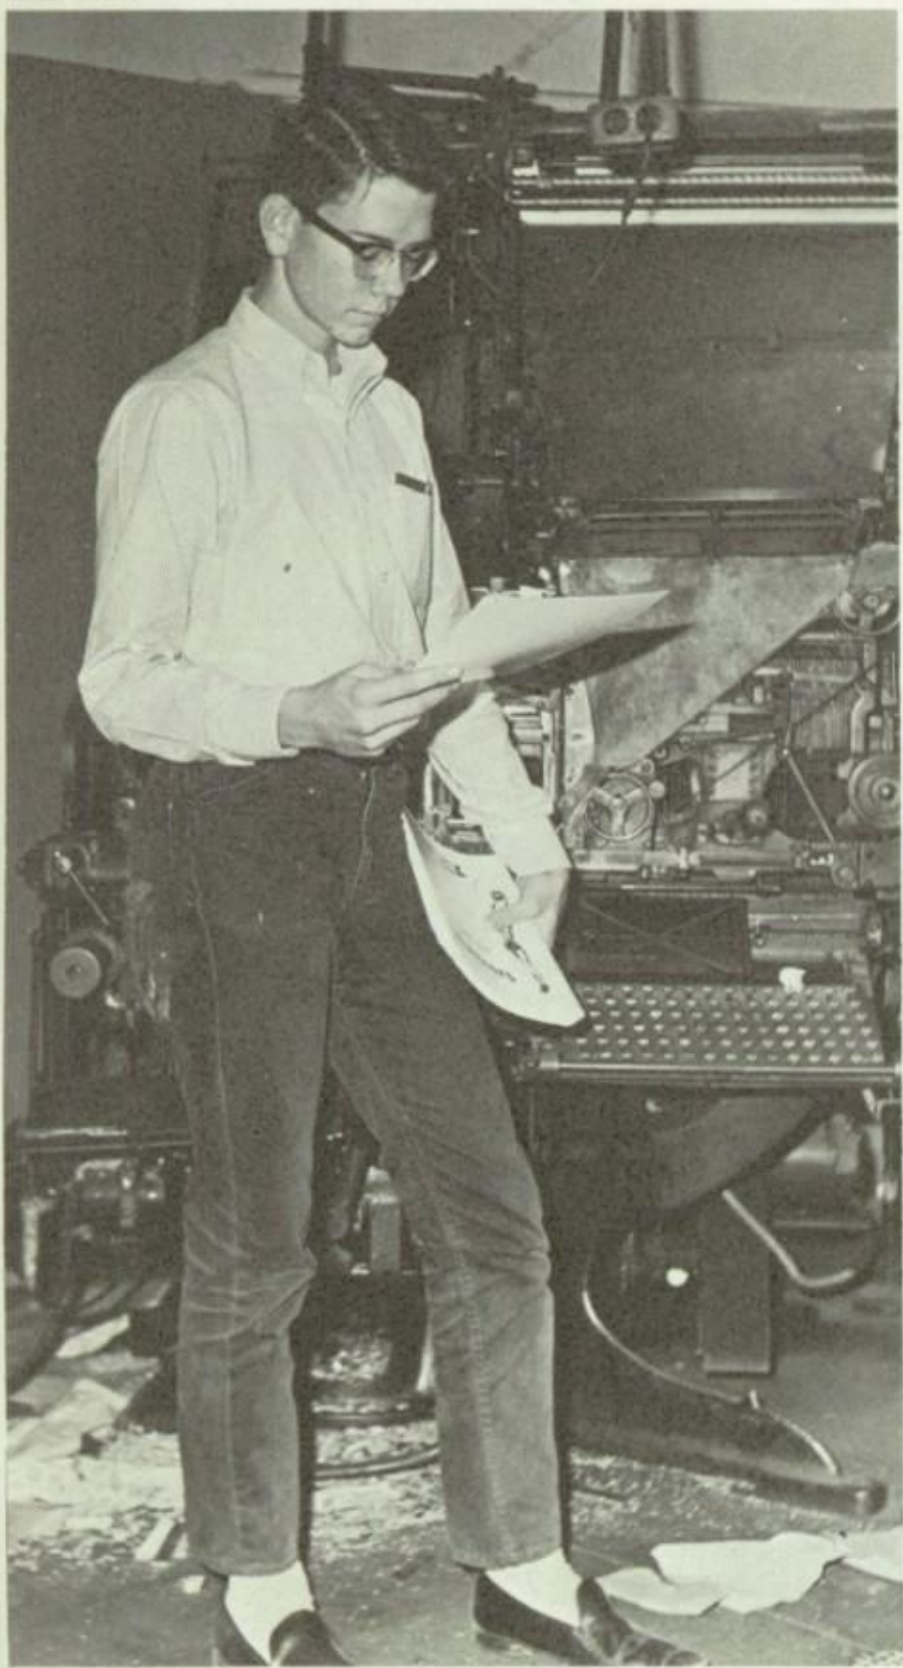

The world of Peg Barry, editor-in-chief of the 1965 TRAVELER has been one filled with pictures, headlines, deadlines and headaches!

With a flair of sophistication, this year's annual was designed for a group of high-minded and upwards-climbing individuals known as Lee-ites.

Peg's hard working, never tiring initiative has brought her a flash bulb world one day and a dark room world the next. Under Peg's able guidance the world of Lee has been brought to all Lee-ites through the 1965 edition of the TRAVELER.

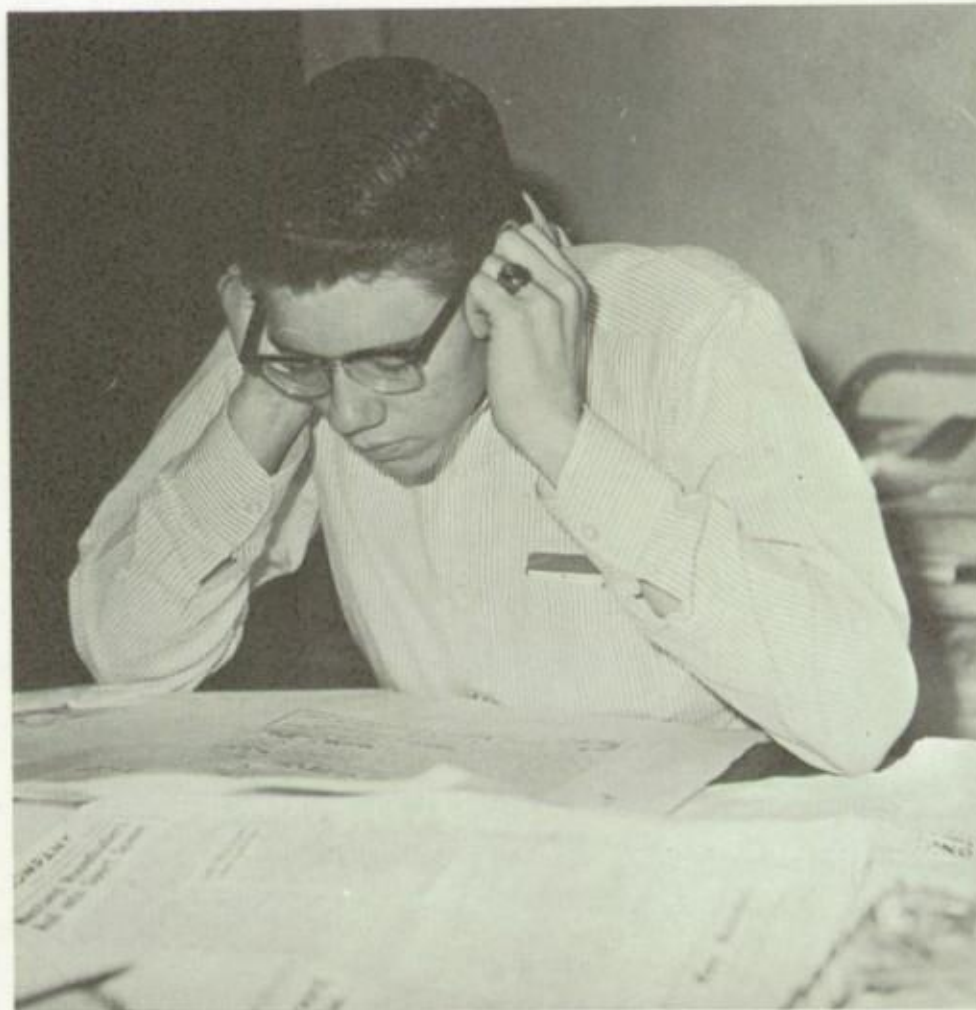

Terry Collier

From taking basketball pictures to covering track and field events to proof-reading copy at the printer, Terry Collier, outstanding Bugle Call staffer, takes each task in stride as part of his job as Sports Editor for Lee's prize-winning newspaper.

With a flare that aroused interest of Lee students, Terry captures for sports fans the excitement of competition in his coverage of athletic activities at Lee. His job this year included the preparation of football and basketball brochures containing information about Lee's team members, coaches, band and pep squad.

Terry's never-ending initiative has brought him the honor of being the 1965 outstanding Bugle Call staffer.

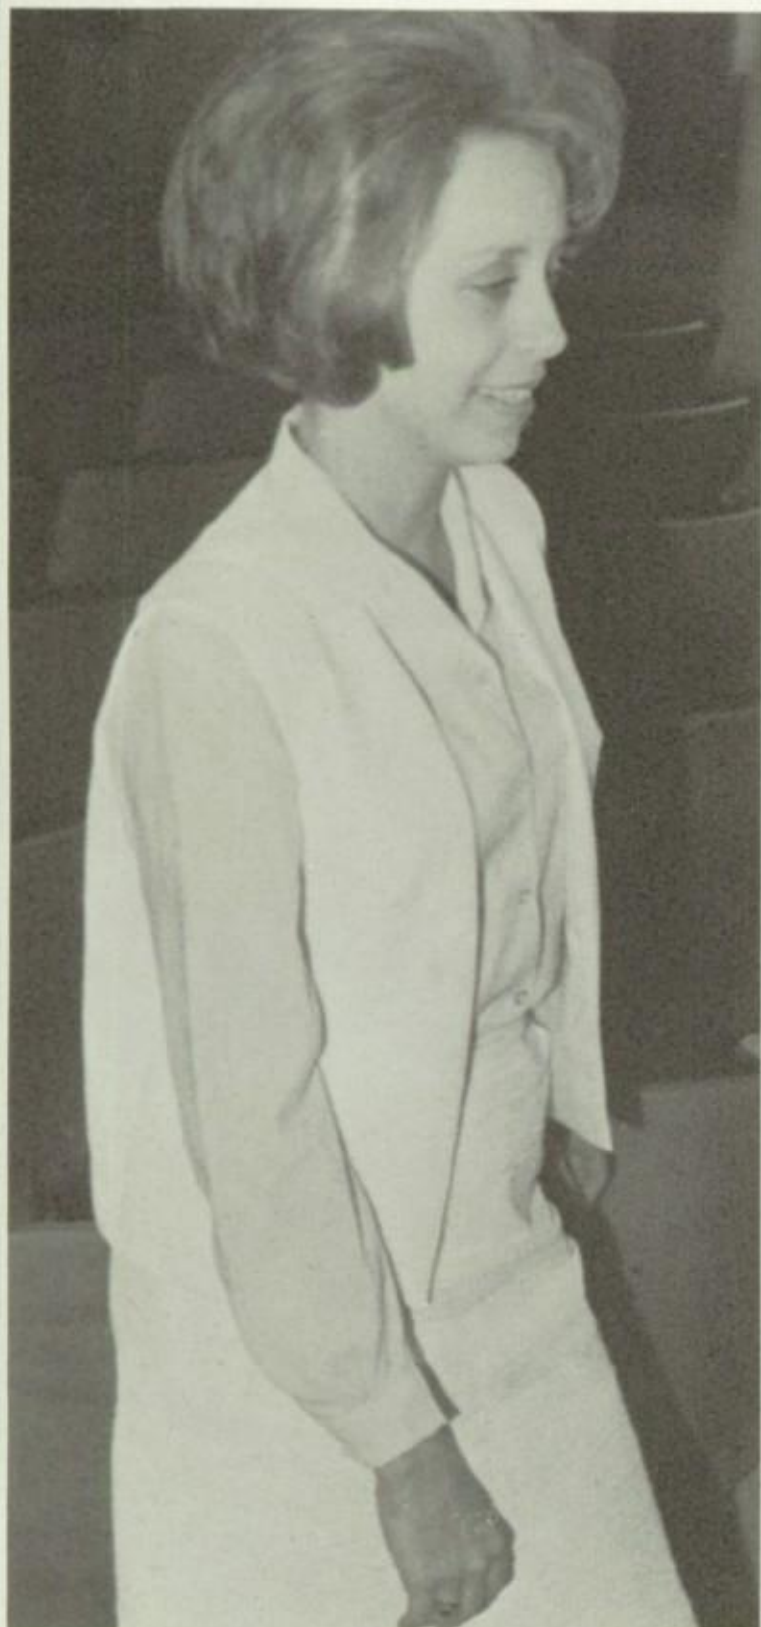

Robert Bowles

Drum Major Robert Bowles represents the Volunteer Band as outstanding band member for the 1964-65 school year.

He was selected on the basis of leadership, musicianship, attitude and effort. This award was presented to him at the annual Christmas concert by Band Director Marion Rodman.

Robert is a three year band member and an accomplished French horn player.

Sherry Blakley

Sherry Blakley, outstanding Student Council member, was chosen on the basis of willingness, eagerness and dependability.

Although this was her first year on the council, she proved that she had the ability to fulfill her job as chairman of the social committee. Her enterprize brought about such activities as the Howdy Dance, spirit days for football games and plans for other Lee social events.

Her fellow council members chose her for this title in recognition of her tireless efforts.

Richard Jones

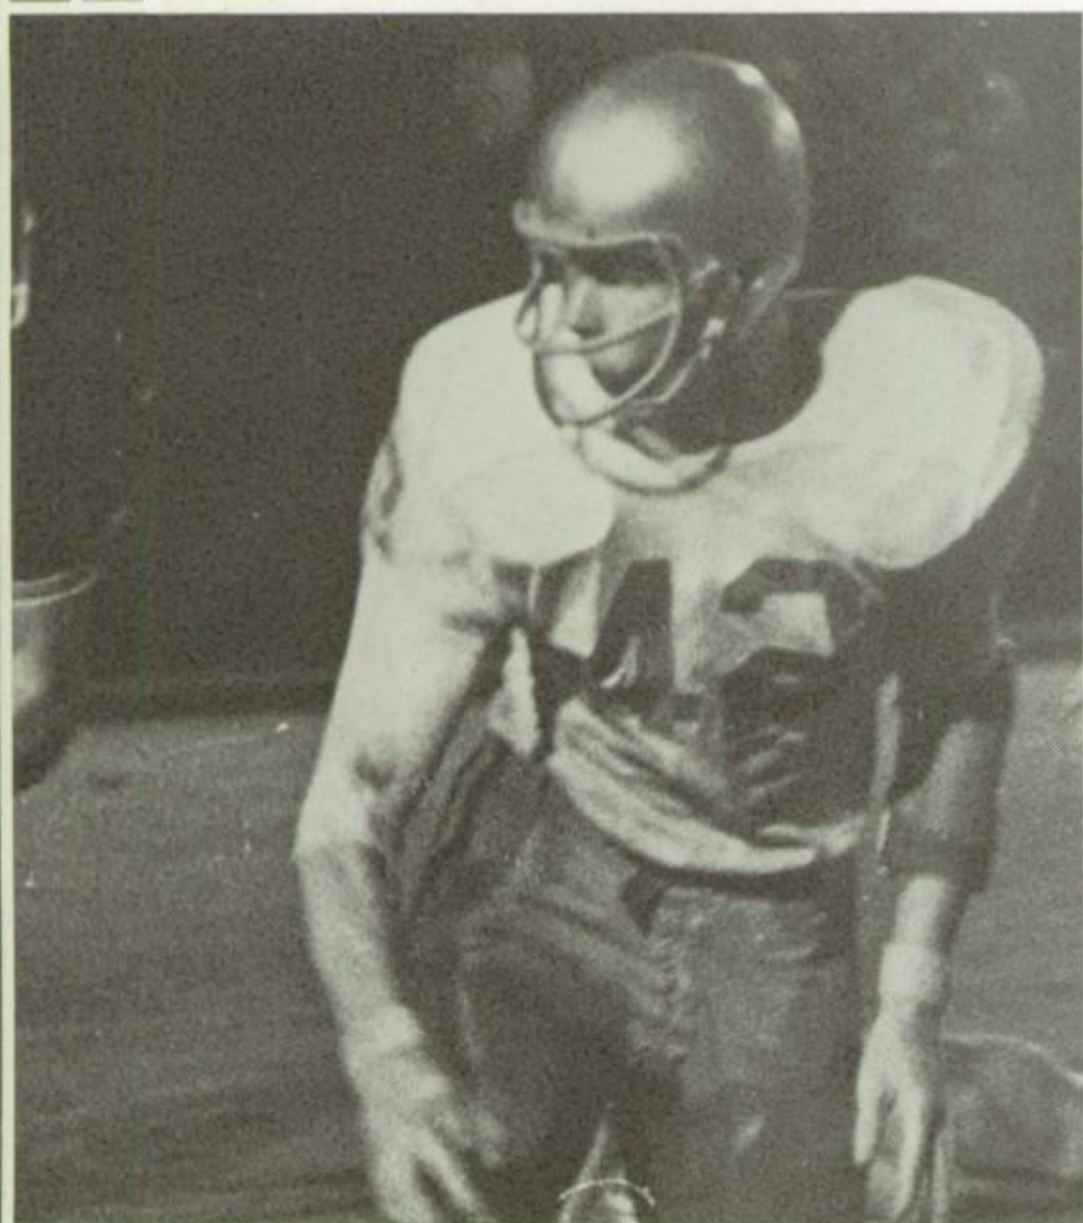

Richard Jones, outstanding drama student of the year, is a veteran of the Lee stage and excels in all fields of drama.

In 1963, he placed second in a dramatic reading at the Highlands Speech Tournament. He has participated in such roles as Emory McDougal in "Auntie Mame" and received the Charlie Award title of Best Comedy Role for his performance.

In 1964, Richard portrayed Mr. Nickles, the devil, in the play "J.B." and for his work received the title of Best Actor in the U.I.L. District One-Act Play Contest. He was then named to the All-Star cast in the Regional One-Act play competition.

For his duet acting in "Androcles and the Lion," he received a first place award, last year, at the Highlands Speech Tournament and the Trinity Speech Festival. At the Charlie Awards, he was named Best Actor for his part in "J.B."

Larry Townsend

The outstanding athlete for the 1964-65 school year, Larry Townsend, has participated in sports activities for three years.

In his sophomore year, he played sophomore football, Junior Varsity basketball and took part in track events. His junior and senior years on varsity teams have brought him all-city and all-district honors.

With the help of his sports ability, the Volunteer football and basketball teams have copped district titles in '64 and in '65.

Sandy Palma

Senior Sandy Palma was chosen outstanding Lee-Ette for the 1964-65 school year by her fellow Lee-Ettes.

Sandy, who has been a member of Lee-Ettes for four years, served this year as chairman of the social committee for the Dixie Hoedown. Her outstanding participation and enthusiasm in supporting all athletic activities and her many long hours spent designing football goal posters makes her the outstanding Lee-Ette.

Jimmy Martin

Outstanding choir student, Jimmy Martin, has been a member of A Capella Choir for four years. He has placed first in solo singing the past three years and earned a position on the Regional Choir this year.

Jimmy, who prefers group singing, participates in his church choir and was a member of the San Antonio's Boys Choir for two and a half years.

He now serves as sergeant at arms of the Lee Choir, and he plans to attend Texas A&I in September on a voice scholarship.

Carol Tyson

Carol Tyson received the title of top honor student for her 99 average in her four years of high school work.

Besides ranking first scholastically, she is active in extra-curricula activities at Lee. She is a member of the Beta Club, the National Honor Society and Quill & Scroll.

She also finds time to work on the Bugle Call and was Faculty Editor of the TRAVELER in 1963-64 and is Sports Editor this year.

Counselors Tap 32

Top students, Carol Tyson and Mike Douglas dispute over a world definition.

Thirty-two seniors ranked as honor students on the basis of their scholastic average for four years of high school work. Their honors do not stop here, however, for many of them have attained merit in clubs and extra-curricular activities at Lee. This schedule gives them a well-rounded school environment and earns for them the title of top students.

These students include Carol Tyson, Mike Douglas, Pat Hutto, Bill Knippa, Sally Delavan, Charlene Willms, Sandy Killey, Steve Davis, Pam Hall, Janet Oestreich, Cindy Haner, Brett Williams, Gary Glass, Connie Tadlock, Anne-Marie Verstegen and Donald Currie.

Others are Karen Stonaker, Pam Gorham, Brazos Guido, Barbara Evans, Dan Bell, Kay Keel, Jeff Hoover, Jill Thrift, David Karback, Cathy Warren, Judy French, Kathleen Meerscheidt, Marie Larsen, Nancy Gimmeson, Paula Schmidt and Danny Harmon.

Sandy Killey attempts to pour knowledge into Steve Davis' head, as Charlene Willms pleads water for the flower.

Honor Students

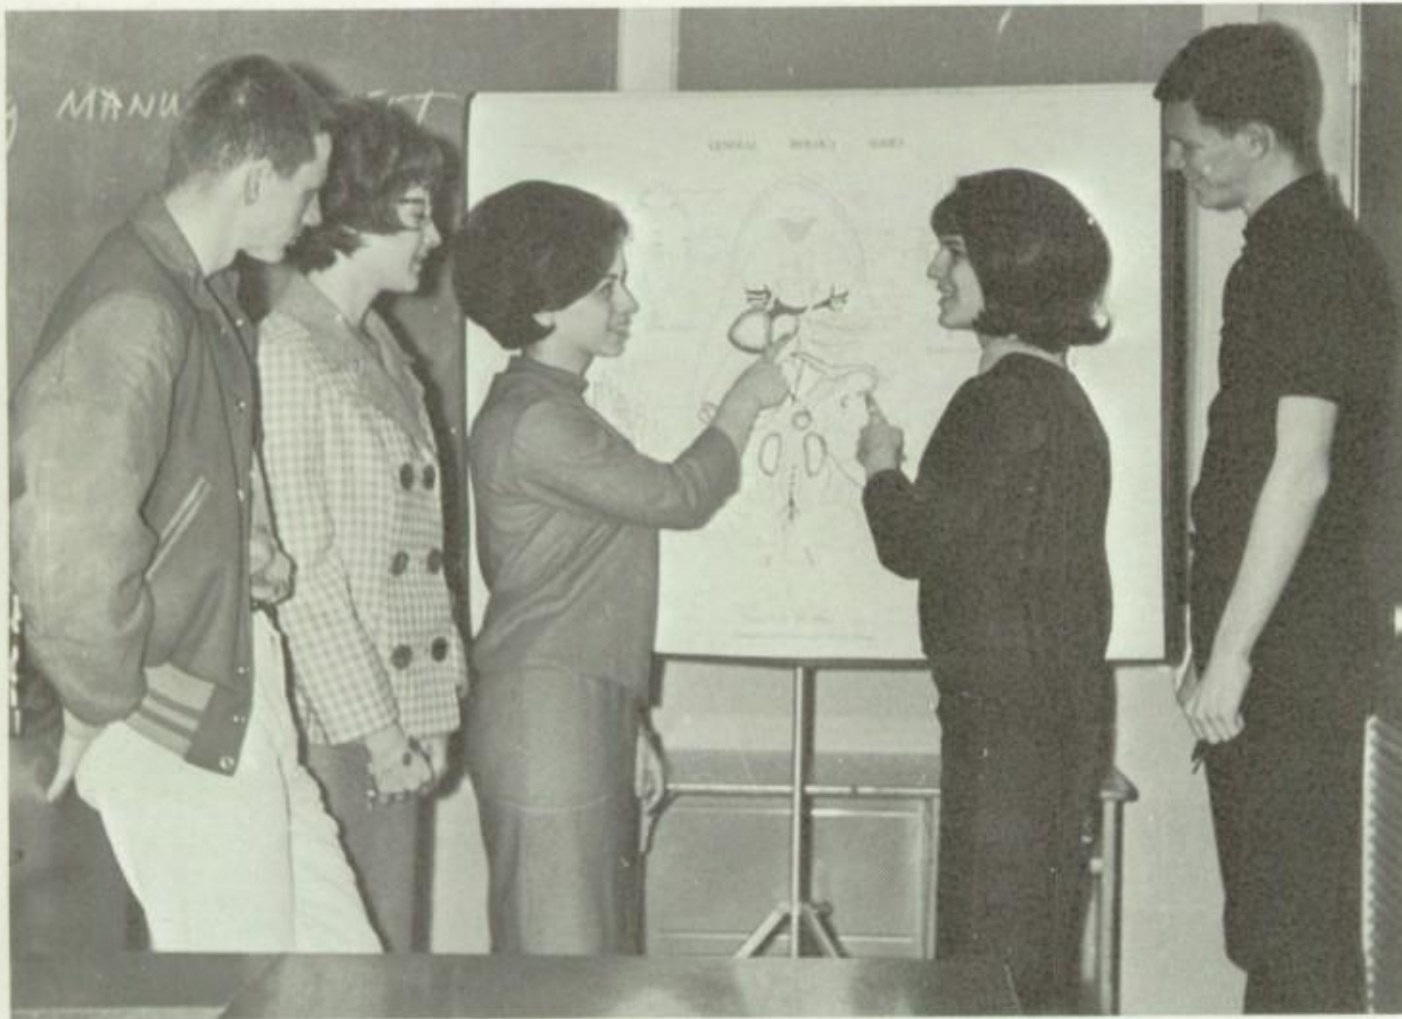

Mrs. Jean Johnson, Senior English Teacher, scolds Brazos Guido, Danny Bell, Jeff Hoover and Barbara Evans for making only a 99 on their English quizzes.

Sally Delevan and Pat Hutto pile their heavy loads on Bill Knippa.

Top Seniors Symbolize Success

Pam Hall explains the cardio vascular system of the frog to Gary Glass, Karen Stonaker, Kathleen Meerscheidt and Don Curry.

Tired out from mid-term exams, Janet Oestreich, Brett Williams, Anne-Marie Verstegan and Cindy Haner display their "five more days till Friday" cards.

Awaiting the arrival of scholarships are Pam Gorham, Judy French, Danny Harmon, Kay Keel and Constance Tadlock.

Looking up information for term themes are Nancy Gimmeson, Cathy Warren, Jill Thrift, David Karback, Marie Larsen and Paula Schmidt.

The world of knowledge belongs to the young through academic and social endeavors at Lee. Classes may be referred to as the most active forces on campus where students discuss dues, projects, homework and quizzes.

Pep rallies bring Senior and Junior yell competition as Sophomores become aware of the world of Lee and its traditions.

It is in the classes that lasting friendships are formed--ones that bring tears and memories in the world of the young and old alike.

Seniors Mark Ballots, Choose Superlatives

Seniors selected Judy French to accompany Steve Davis as Most Likely to Succeed and teamed her with Bill Knippa as Most Representative in Senior Superlative class election. Seniors judged Carole Short and Mike Douglas as Best All-Around. The Most Beautiful selection was Jill Thrift; Scott McGehee copped the Most Handsome title. Sally Delavan and Bernie Sanders won in the Best Dressed category, and Marcia Guthridge and Peter Williams were selected Wittiest.

Class of 1965

"Seniors, Seniors, '65, we're the best there are alive."

Amid the eager chanting at pep rallies, wistful thoughts at the last football game or speech tournament, anticipation for the opportunities ahead and longing for the high school days left behind, 657 Seniors come to the end of their years at Lee.

The class of 1965 boasts six national merit finalists, two presidents of state organizations and promising young scientists. This year saw members of the Senior Class organizing the Youth Jury system in San Antonio.

Seniors also brought home numerous speech and drama awards and have been named to the All-State band and choir. Seniors have strived to show strong leadership in all aspects of school life and to make the most of their last year in the Home of Champions.

Class of 1966

"Seniors, Seniors, '66. We're the class that really clicks!"

The Junior year is that inbetween year--a year of competing with the Seniors and belittling the Sophomores.

Outstanding Juniors include a world champion skeet shooter, a Teena Texas beauty finalist and an expert tennis player. Talented performers, enthusiastic politicians and all-district athletes--all these are a part of the class.

Juniors scored a first this year by initiating the sale of spirit pins, charms and tie tacs to Lee-ites.

As the year comes to a close, Juniors look on it with many memories as the promise of the future year to come--their Senior year.

"Seniors '67 here; Lee will have a winning year."

As their first year at Lee comes to a close, the Sophomores will remember their fears of the first school day and of final exams.

Sophs will hash over the problems of getting from class to class on time and the pep rallies when everyone experienced daily exercises from getting up and down during the cheers and ovations.

The thrills of the first game of the new season and of official victory of their new life at the "Home of Champions" will usher in plans for the two more years to come.

But most of all, the Sophs will always remember the excitement of their first real year of high school and the joy of simply being the newest members of the Lee family.

1964 State Baseball Tournament

SPORTS

Rousing spirit and excitement can be truly found in the final moments of a grudge football game, during the last lap of a swimming meet or as the winning run crosses home plate.

Sports give Lee-ites a chance to participate in the world of the young, to really be a vital part of Lee by defending the name of the Home of Champions.

Win or lose--students can still look back on the great and exciting times in the 1965 sports annals.

Rebel Coaching Staff Numbers Eight

"It takes a real good team just to break even" bellows Head Football Coach Kirk Drew as he instructs the Vols during an afternoon practice session.

Planning strategy for the State Baseball tournament, Coach Tom Jungman returns to the dug-out. The Lee team copped fourth place in state competition for 1963-64.

During the North East Invitational Tournament, Lee players Stephen Niles and Zane Shullanberger and Coaches Bobby Roberts and Tom Moseley scout potential opponents.

'Home of Volunteers' Boasts Talented Coaching Staff

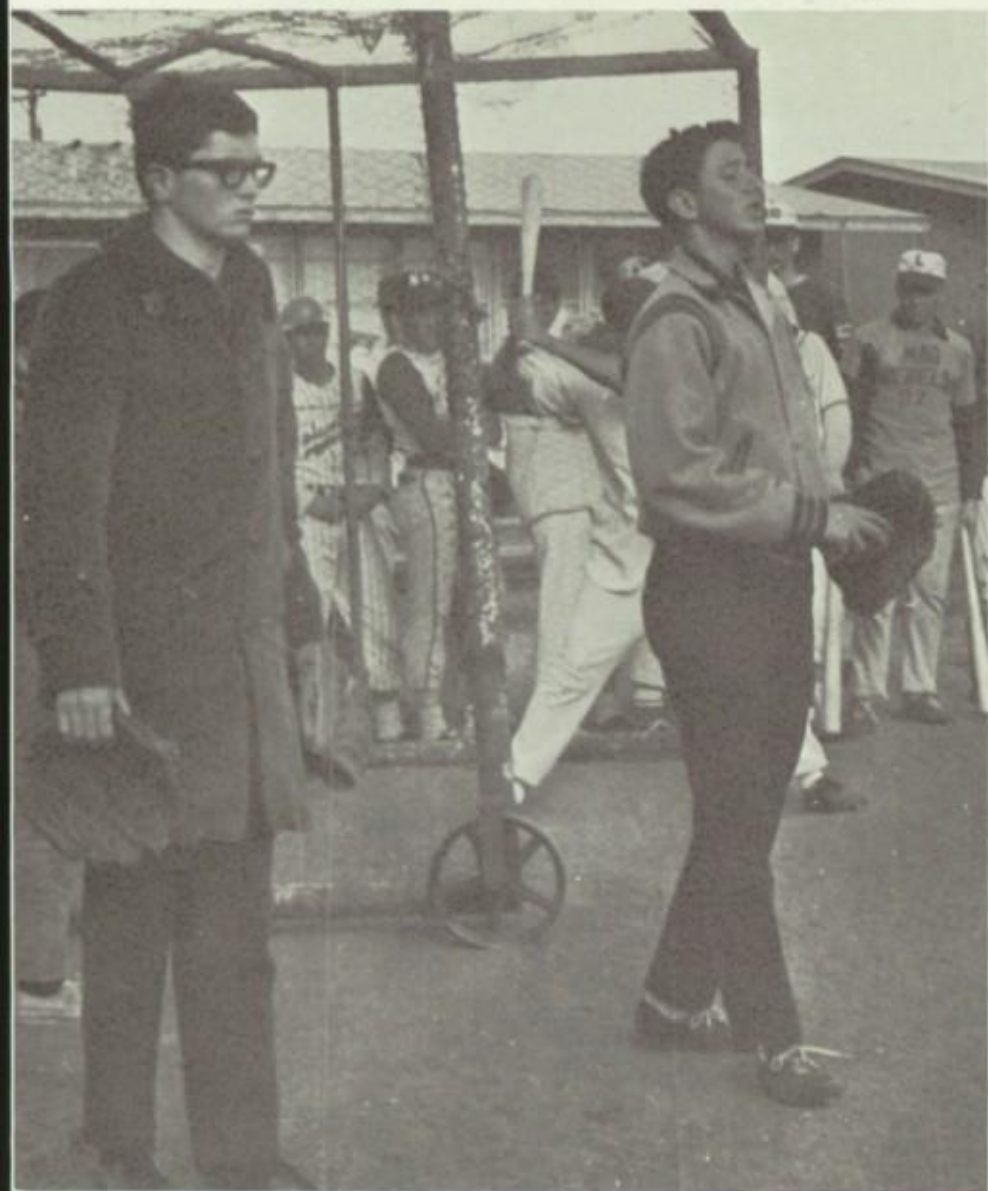

A graduate of the University of Texas, George Smith coaches Lee's Swimming Team.

Besides his job as coach of the Golf Team, Tom Moseley does a bit of "moonlighting" to referee at local and area basketball games.

Lee's football coaching staff includes Kirk Drew, Bill Evans, Roy Sawyer and Tom Jungman.

Warming up the sandlotters is one of the duties of the baseball managers John James and Bruce Samulin.

Track manager Ricky Pecan adjusts the starting block at a practice meet.

Rearranging the players roster are basketball managers John Nevelow and Howard Baldwin.

Managers Vital to Teamwork

Watching the field action, football managers Ronnie Pauley, Rusty Stipp, Gill Mills, Ricky Pecan and James Draheim prepare for a time out.

Football

"It takes a real good team to just break even." These words by Head Football Coach Kirk Drew summarized the Lee Volunteer football team year as they finished up the 1964-65 season with a 5-5 record.

Injuries early in pre-season and district tilts took their toll as three all-district candidates were sidelined. '64 all-district end Bill Knippa suffered leg injuries in the Carroll game while Bruce Kempf and Scott McGehee were sidelined in the Ray game. Lee's Quarterback Tom Morgan received injuries in the Edison game which all but destroyed the Vol's hopes for the district title.

The season tilt shows Lee victories over New Braunfels, Seguin, Corpus Christi Ray, Edison and Alamo Heights. Losses were to Corpus Christi Carroll, Austin of Austin, Jefferson, Highlands and MacArthur.

Three Volunteers merited all-district berths while two rated all-city honors. Seniors Larry Townsend and Tommy Wirth and Junior Glenn Graef were named to the district team while Townsend and Graef placed on the San Antonio grid Roster.

Plowing through five Unicorn tacklers, Quarterback Tom Morgan rushes for a gain.

Lee Skunks Unicorns 25-6

Exhibiting a promising and explosive backfield, the Volunteers overpowered the New Braunfels Unicorns, 25-6, in the season opener and first home game.

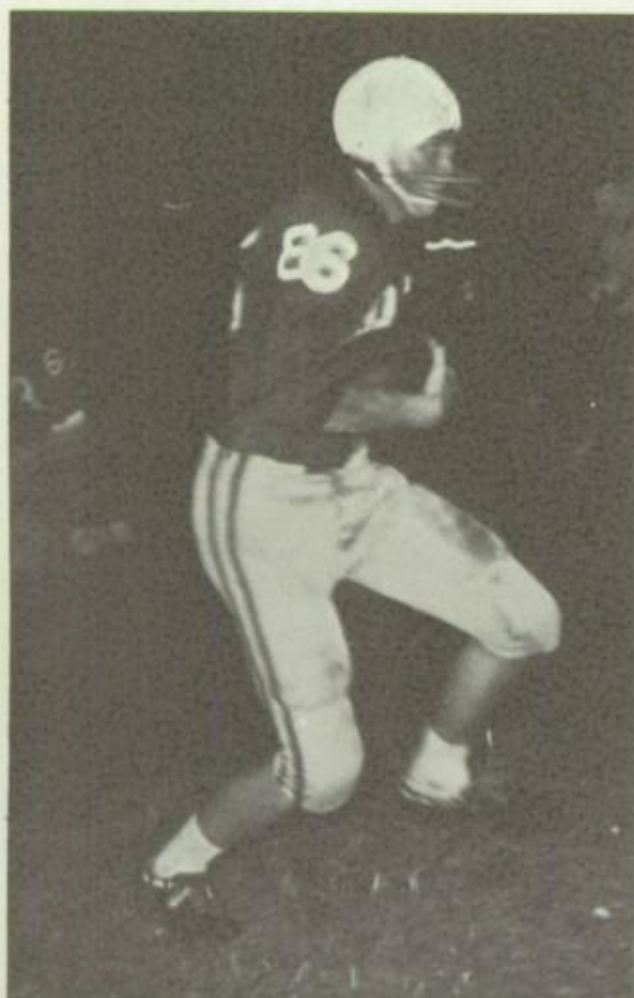

With an estimated 7,000 fans watching, Lee backs scampered the length of the field almost at will chalking up 25 points and acquiring 328 yards rushing. The first long scoring run by Tailback Pat Sheehan went 51 yards for the TD. Quarterback Tom Morgan tallied 12 points on runs of 3 and 20 yards.

The final scoring for the Vols came when Fullback Larry Townsend ran 36 yards and kicked the extra point. In a last minute effort, the Rebs traveled 91 yards to the Unicorn 1 only to have the clock run out.

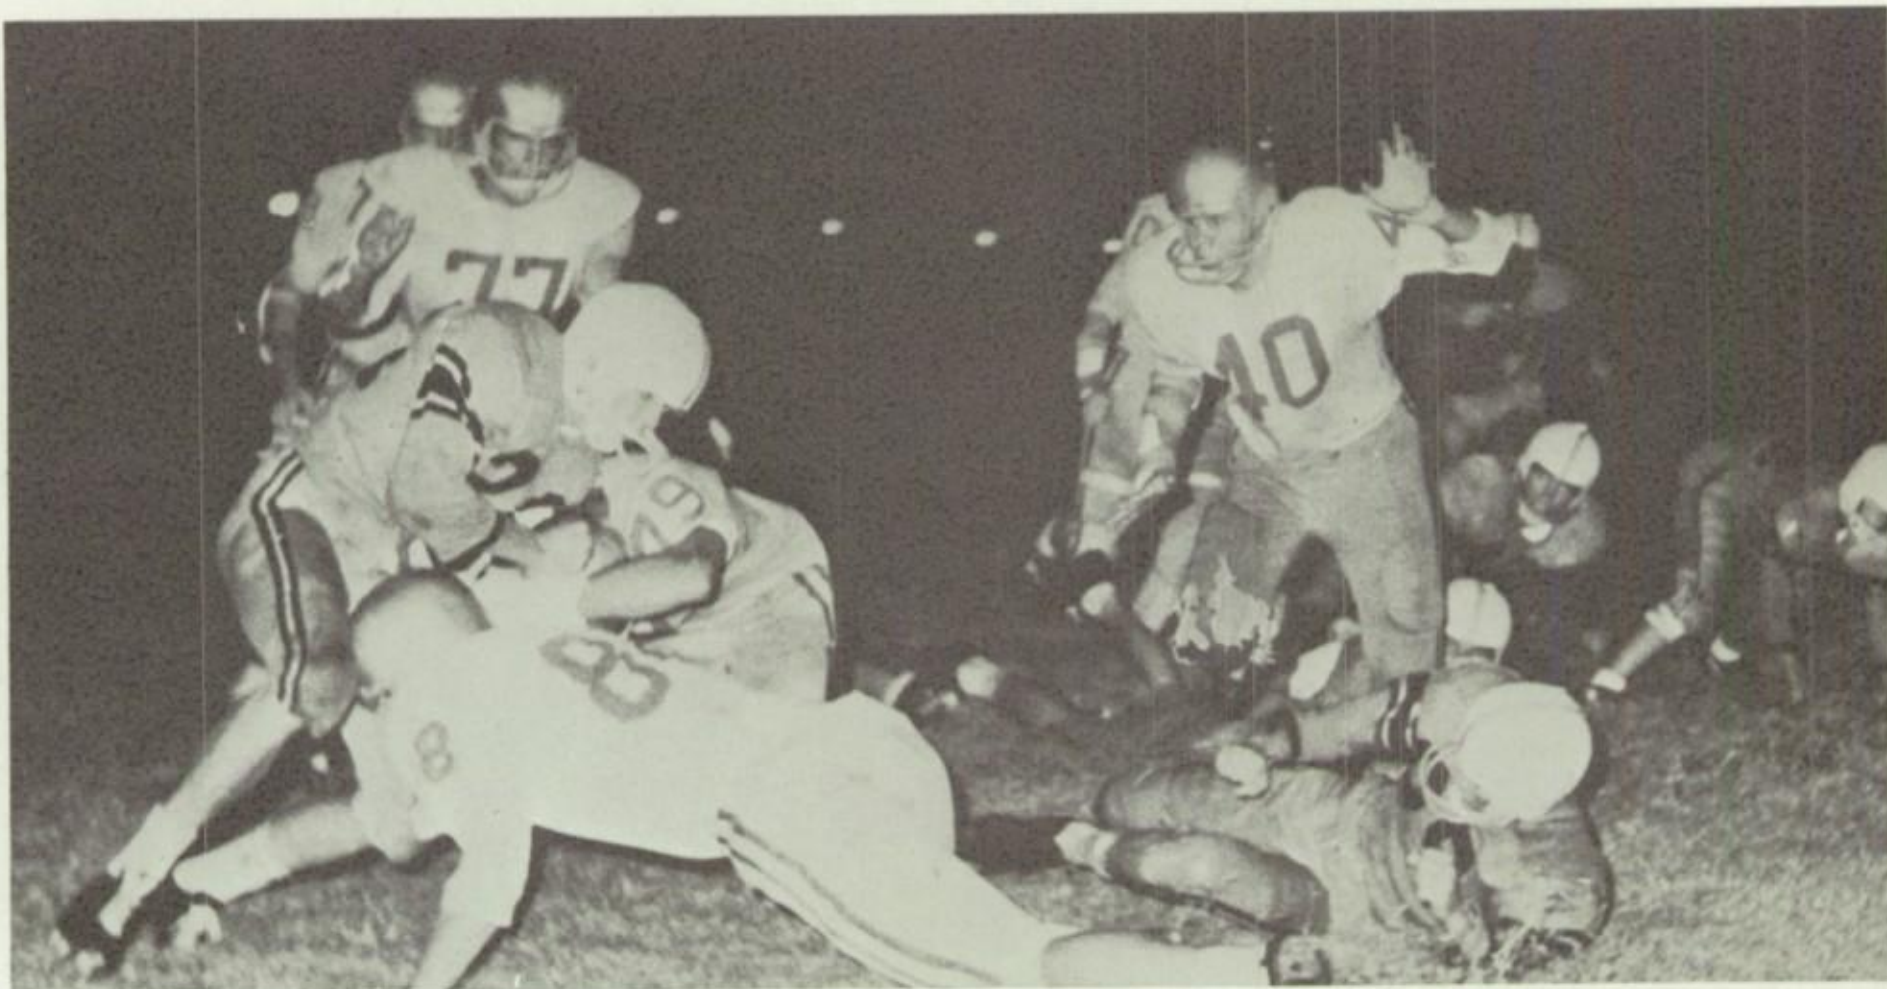

Over-all increase in team depth with Bill Viner at guard, Jerry Townsend and Scott McGeehee at tackle, and Bobby Bohrer at center kept the highly talented Unicorn quarterback at bay. The lone Unicorn score came on a Lee fumble.

	Lee	N. B.
First Downs	16	11
Rushing	329	119
Passing	104	109

End Mike Douglas takes a pass for long yardage against New Braunfels.

Protection for a pass attempt is supplied by Bruce Kempf (35), Bill Knippa (85) and Scott McGeehee (71).

Volunteers Bob Burnside (88), Ray Gentle (79), Bobby Bohrer (77), John Rascoe (78) and Tommy Wirth (40) join forces to haul down a Seguin Matador.

Volunteers Gore Matadors, 30-6

Long runs, fancy footwork and superior speed earned a second victory for the Volunteers with a 30-6 win over long-time rival Seguin on the Matador's home field.

Veteran Quarterback Tom Morgan led the running and scoring attack by going 185 yards on 7 carries and hitting paydirt twice. Help in the scoring department came when Wingback Bruce Kempf intercepted a Matador pass and ran 98 yards for the TD. Adding 8 more points, Tailback Pat Sheehan ran 15 yards for a touchdown and caught a Morgan pass for 2 extra points. Wingback Tommy Wirth ran off tackle for 2 points after a Morgan TD.

Seguin's lone score came as the result of a Volunteer fumble.

The Volunteer defensive unit led by Wirth, Center Bobby Bohrer, End Bill Knippa and Tackle John Rascoe stalled the Matador's offensive machinery throughout the game.

Lee Defense Shines As Vols Conquer Ray

Defense was the key as Lee topped the Corpus Christi Ray Texans, 13-6, at North East Stadium.

The Volunteer offense took the opening kick-off and sped 65 yards in 7 plays. The touchdown effort came on a flip to Tailback Tommy Wirth who went over for the tally. Larry Townsend kicked the PAT, making the score 7-0.

Scoring by Ray was halted until the third quarter due to the Reb's defensive maneuvers. The PAT attempt failed. With two minutes left in the game, the Texans moved within field goal range. As the kick fell short, Quarterback Tom Morgan scooped up the ball and ran 95 yards for six more as the fourth quarter ended.

Holding the Corpus team who had a substantial weight advantage became a major problem; however Lee's defense was up to the task as it dug in time after time.

Powerhouse Larry Townsend moves for another gain against Carroll before being hauled down by three Tigers.

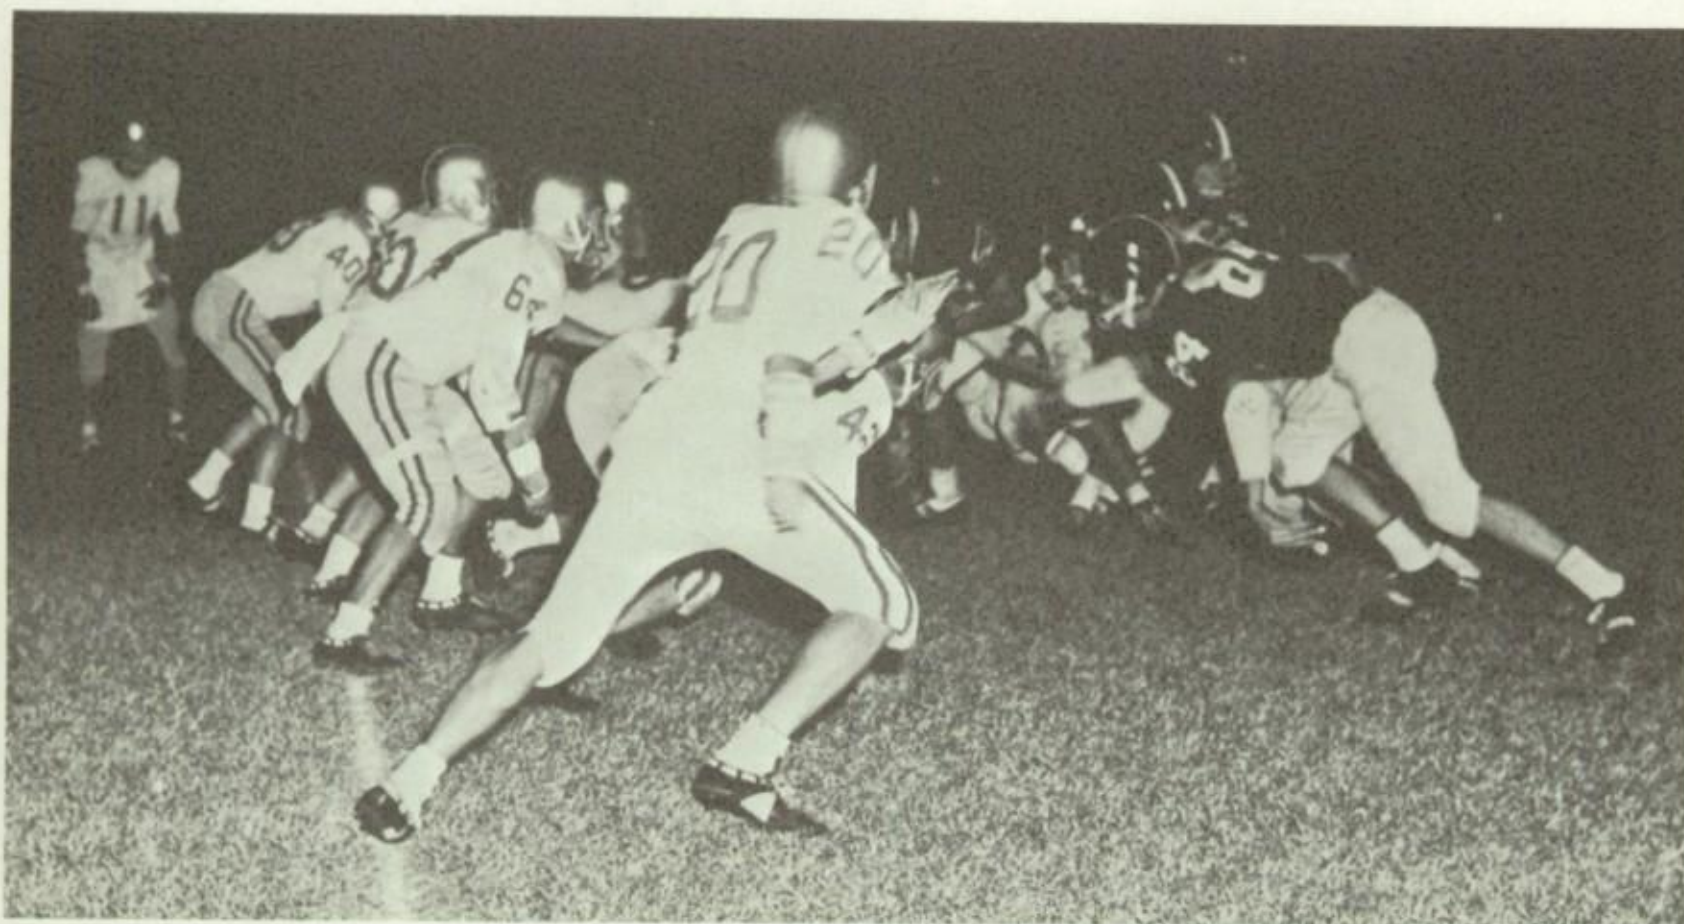

Volunteer fumbles and intercepted passes marked the first loss of the football year as the Lee Eleven dropped a 12-6 decision to Corpus Christi Carroll on a rain-drenched Tiger field.

Previously undefeated, the Vols took nearly complete control of the ball as they led statistically throughout the game. The only problem for the Volunteers was getting the pigskin over the goal line.

Tailback Pat Sheehan took the opening kick-off and sped 81 yards for the only Reb score. From then on, the Volunteers could not move over the stripe as fumbles and intercepted passes halted penetrations of Carroll territory.

The scoring was completed at the end of the first quarter for both squads, making the rest of the game a defensive battle with long Vol drives that ended too soon--the last stopped on the Tiger 17 by a lost fumble.

Fumbles Fatal as Lee Falls, 12-7

A blitizing Lee defense holds the Maroon offense as the ball is snapped.

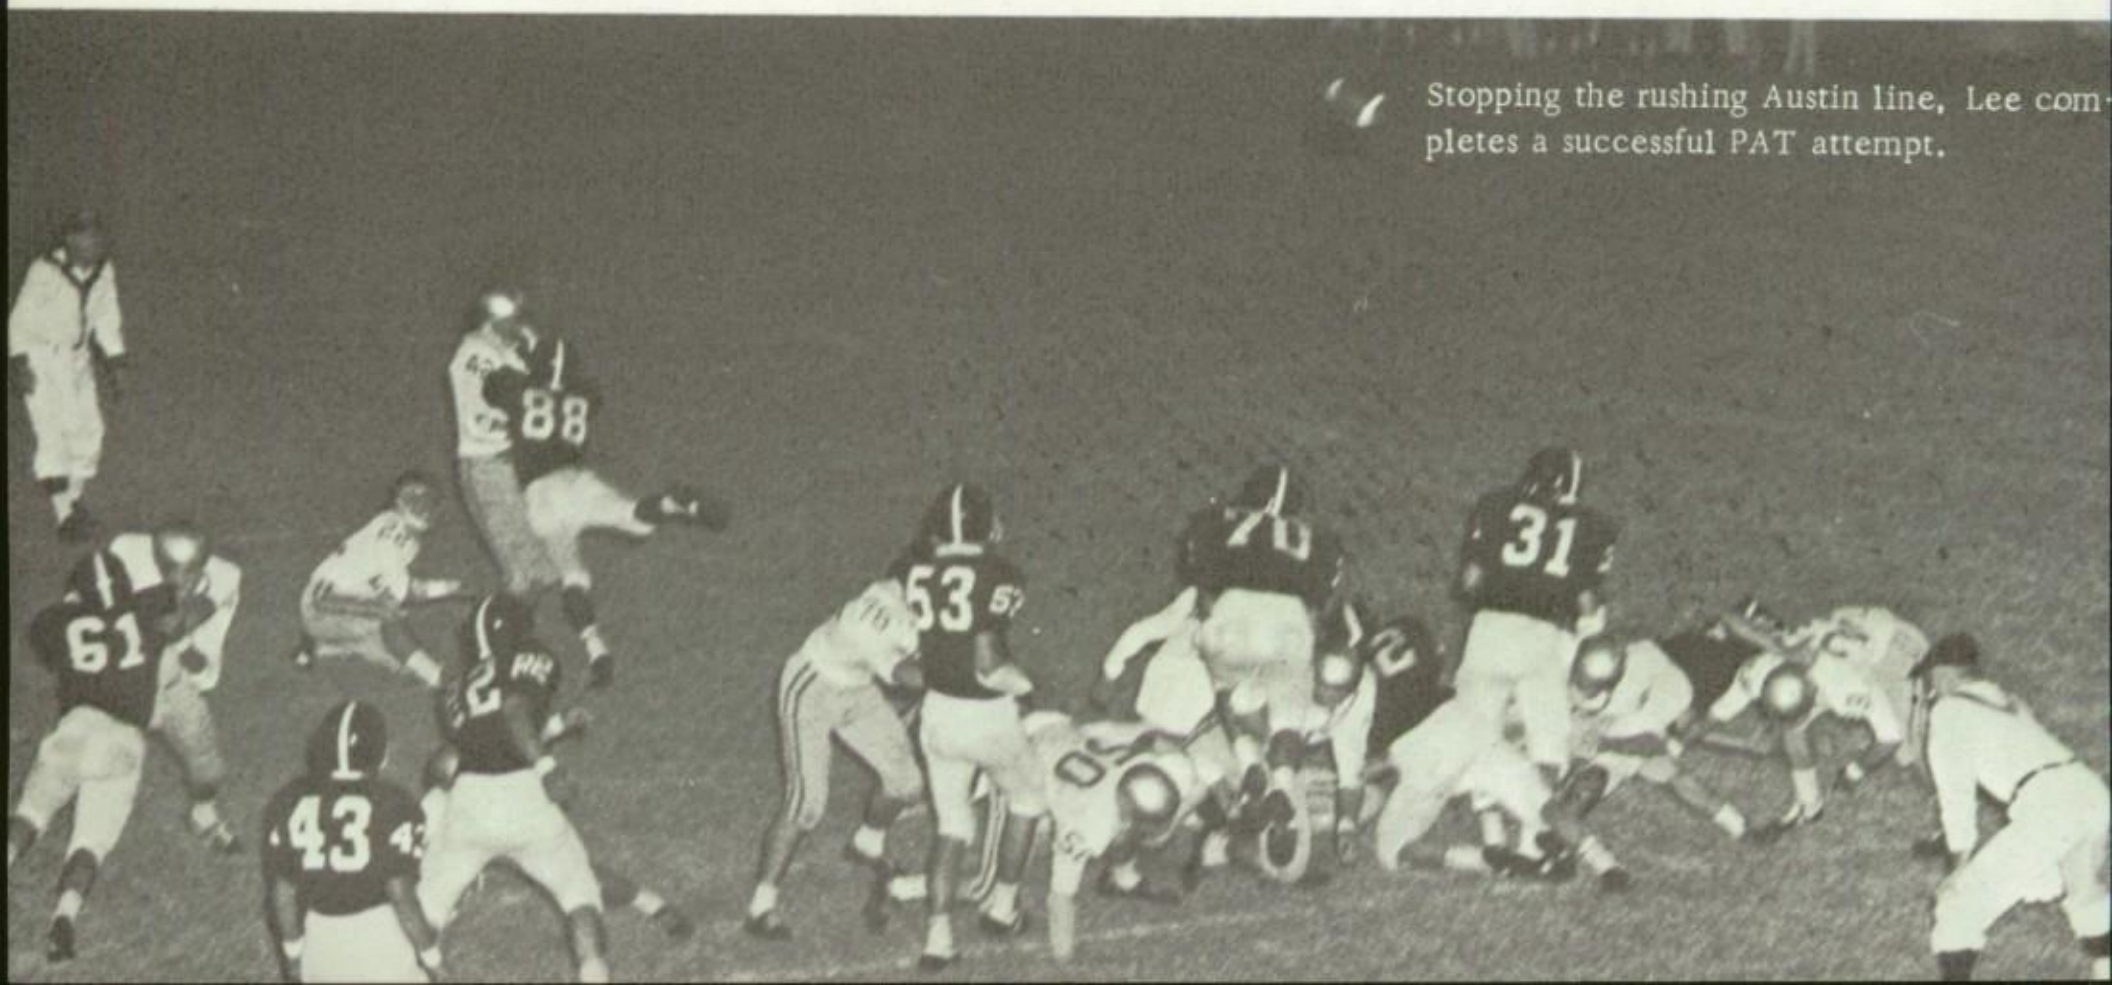

Unable to break the Maroon undefeated and untied season record, the Lee eleven dropped the fifth game of the season to S. F. Austin by a close 12-7 score.

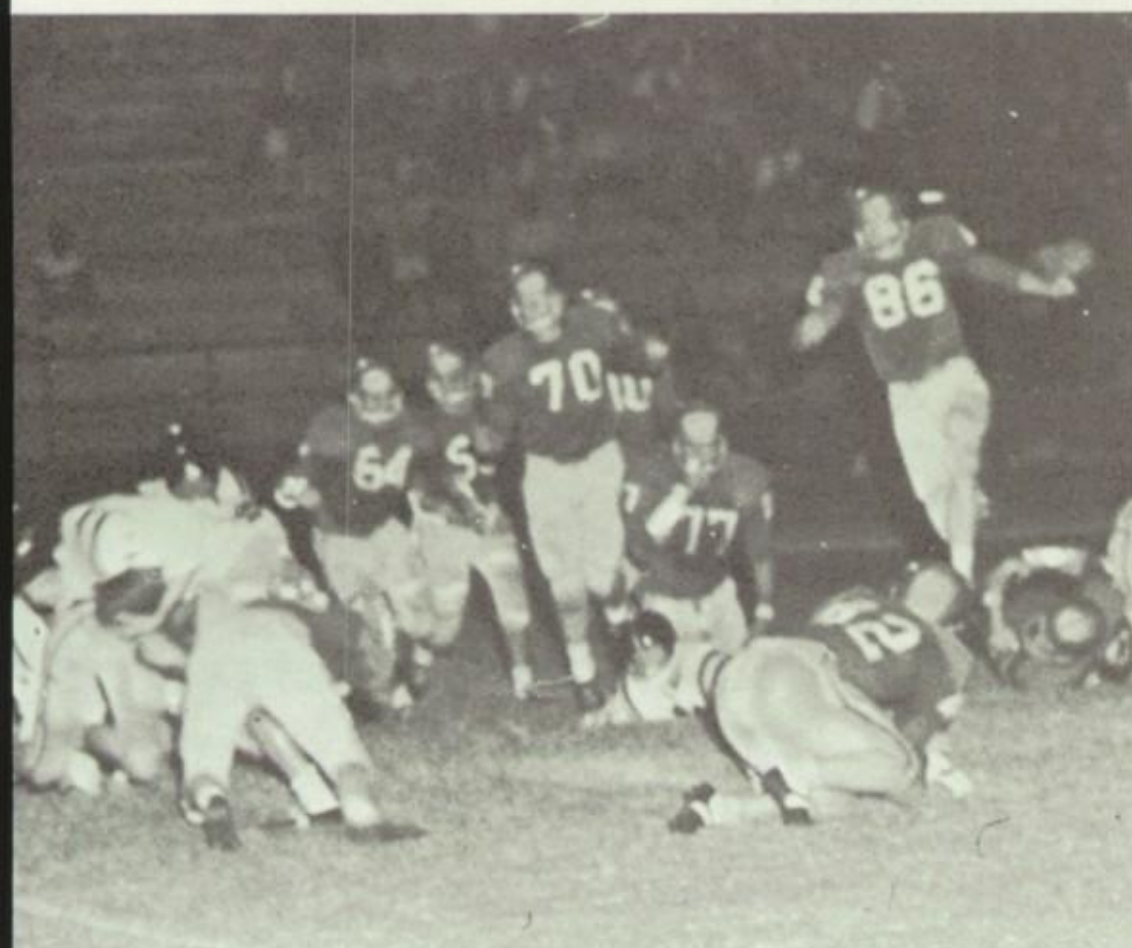

The Vols broke on to the scoreboard first with a 3 yard run by Quarterback Tom Morgan to top off a 38 yard drive. Fullback Larry Townsend added the PAT. Austin then grabbed a Lee fumble and drove in for the score. The PAT failed leaving the Vols with a hard-earned 7-6 halftime score.

The score remained as such until the fourth quarter when Austin recovered another Lee fumble for 6 more points after moving in from the Vol 6 yard line. The PAT failed as the scoring ended at 12-7.

Fullback Larry Townsend broke loose for 60 yards to score the first Reb TD. On the next Lee possession, Tailback Pat Sheehan quick-stepped 87 yards for 6 points.

Second half play found Vol Quarterback Tom Morgan tallying on a five yard roll-out. Topping another Lee drive, Townsend smashed a yard to pay-dirt and received a D. R. Nelson pass for two more.

The Bears were held scoreless until the final 19 seconds when they moved across the goal for a score and converted for 2.

Outstanding on defense for the Vols were Guards Glenn Graef and Bill Viner, Tackle Bobby Bohrer and End Jim LaGrone.

End Mike Douglas snares a D. R. Nelson pass for long yardage.

Seeking revenge for last year's 34-0 shut-out, the Highlands Owls edged past the Lee Eleven, 20-16, as the Vols recorded their first district loss.

Two touchdowns and a PAT shoved the Owls into a 13-0 lead before Lee began its drives. An alert Reb Defense trapped an Owl behind the goal for a safety, and Tailback Pat Sheehan plowed for 4 yards and 6 points, leaving the halftime score at 13-8.

Wingback Tom Wirth added a 2 point conversion after a TD by Sheehan on a dive from the 1. Coming to life, the Owls would not be stopped on their final drive, setting the score at 20-16.

Guards Glenn Graef and Bill Viner, Tackle Bobby Bohrer, End Jim LaGrone and Fullback Larry Townsend provided a staunch defense for the Vols.

Jeff Takes to Air To Drop Lee Vols, 42-7

Plagued by injuries, the Lee Volunteers were nearly at the mercy of the roused Jefferson Mustangs who passed themselves to a 42-7 victory over the Rebs in the third loop tilt.

Lee's defense could not stop the Jeff deluge of long aerials as the Ponies gained 209 yards in the air. The only Vol offensive drive saw Tailback Pat Sheehan scamper for a tally on a 68 yard punt return. Fullback Larry Townsend kicked the PAT.

End Jim LaGrone and Townsend were defensive standouts for the Vols.

Evasive action and a fast side step enables End Jim LaGrone to bypass a Mule for a first down.

Three scores in the closing minutes of the game climaxed a 31-20 Rebel victory over Alamo Heights at Mule Stadium.

A loose ball covered by Guard Glenn Graef was converted into the initial 7 points for the Vols as Tailback Pat Sheehan scored and Fullback Larry Townsend added the kick.

Jaunts of 48 and 88 yards added 12 points as Wingback Tom Wirth and Sheehan crossed into the Mule end-zone.

Another Heights miscue set up a Lee tally with Wirth scooting 18 yards. With 7 seconds remaining, Townsend bulled in from 2 yards out to cinch the second district win for the Volunteers.

Rebel scores came in the first half as Fullback Larry Townsend powered in from the 2, and Tailback Pat Sheehan raced 47 yards to paydirt. Townsend's tally climaxed a drive which saw him scamper 64 yards.

Earning laurels on defense for the Vols were Guard Glenn Graef and Wingback Tom Wirth.

Zane Shullanberger dives for yardage in a game against Alamo Heights.

Closing the 1964 season with a 26-6 victory over the MacArthur Brahmas, the combined Volunteer Junior Varsity and Sophomores teams copped the Alamo Zone Championship.

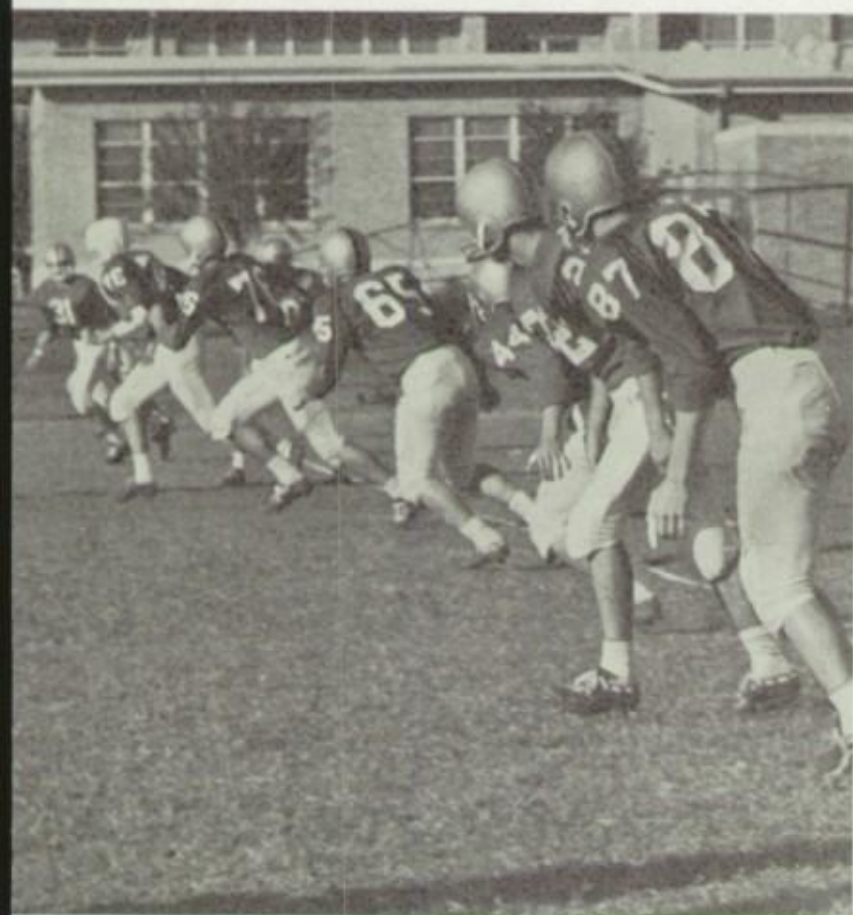

The combined teams boast a season record of seven wins, one loss and a tie. Edgewood, Marshall, Central Catholic, Jefferson, Alamo Heights and MacArthur were victims of the Rebel grid squad while Highlands upset the Vols. The tie game came between Edison and Lee.

Coached by Mr. Bill Moseley and Mr. Bobby Roberts, team standouts were Wing-back Tim Cumisky, Backs Jimmy Howard, Tony Jones and Scott Carnal and Guards Terry Keener and Doug Conrey.

Basketball

"A firm defense is the key to a winning team." With this philosophy tucked under his hat, Coach Bobby Roberts spurred his 1964-65 Volunteer Basketball team to their third consecutive 15-AAAA District crown with a 9-1 record.

Despite the loss of three starters, Coach Roberts built his team around the sharp-shooting ability of Senior John Coles and an "aggressive switching man-for-man." Repairing his starting line-up during pre-season games, Roberts posted a 13-4 record, losing to San Marcos, Seguin and Central Catholic twice.

District tilts saw Vol double victories over Jefferson, Edison, Heights and MacArthur while splitting the series with Highlands. Co-district champs, Lee and Highlands battled out the right to represent the district in a close match with Lee edging Highlands 47-44.

Bi-district contest saw Brackenridge nip Lee in the final two seconds of the game to set the score at 48-47.

Cagers Post For Combined

Beginning the 1964-65 season with a running start, the Lee Vols paced a 8-1 record.

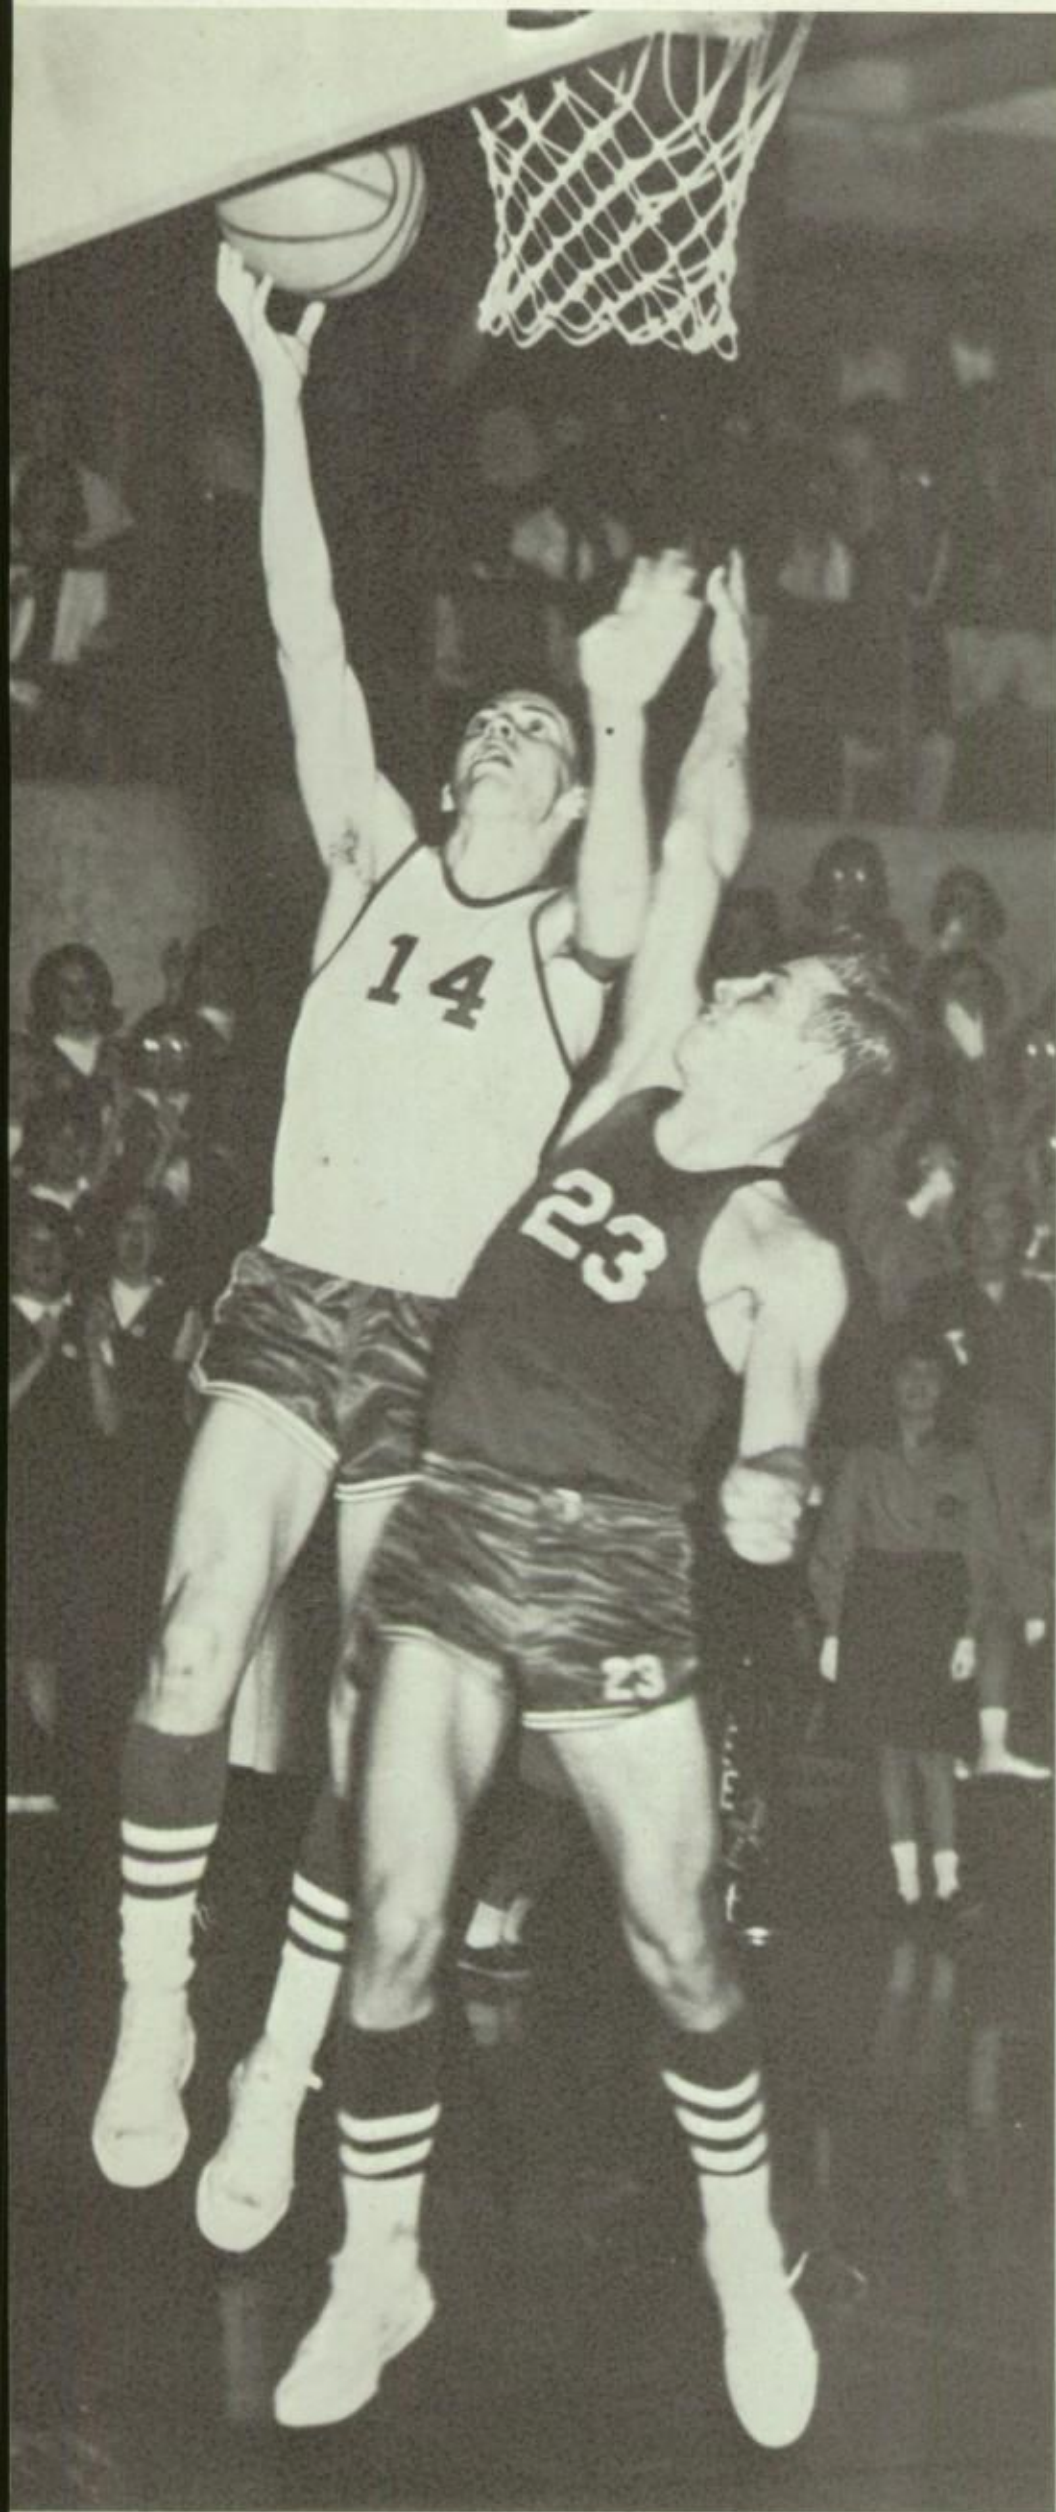

Journeying south to take on the Carroll Tigers and Ray Texans the Reb cagers trekked home with 65-61 and 68-64 victories over the coastal sisters.

Sending in each squad member, Coach Roberts saw his team pull a 47-43 win from the Marshall Rams. Meeting for a second contest, the Vols topped the Rams--this time in a 56-53 tilt.

Adding another to their win column, the Rebs neatly waxed Burbank's Bulldogs, 78-44, in a game that was all Lee, while Brackenridge suffered a 57-40 whitewashing.

The Stephen F. Austin Maroons fell victim to the Lee cagers twice as the Rebs stomped them, 72-40, and then collected a 42-39 verdict over the Austin team.

The final tilt of the pre-district games proved to be the only blemish as Seguin's Matadors upended the Volunteers, 49-39.

Bob Gass goes in for a lay-up in the pre-district contest.

Pre-District Play

VICTORIA TOURNAMENT

Emerging a victor, the Lee cagers brought home the consolation trophy from the Victoria Tournament.

Lady Luck bypassed the Vols to smile on the San Marcos Rattlers as they dropped the Rebs, 43-47.

Knocked into the consolation bracket, Lee bounced back to batter Deer Park, 67-46, and then tested Highlands for the loser's championship. A close 61-60 victory over the Owls earns the title and trophy for the Volunteer Roundballers.

Johnny Coles was named to the All-Tourney team.

NORTH EAST TOURNAMENT

With a 9-2 season record tucked under their belts, the Volunteers walked off with the North East Tournament's third place prize.

Strong defensive maneuvers stopped Temple's offensive thrust in the first pairing of teams as the Wildcats fell 53-33.

In semi-final play, Central Catholic pinned a 63-59 loss on the Vols to snap a three-year winning streak on the home court. Requiring an extra three minutes, the Lee cagers spanked Marshall's Rams, 55-53 to gain the third place rating.

Johnny Coles was named to the All-Tourney team by coaches.

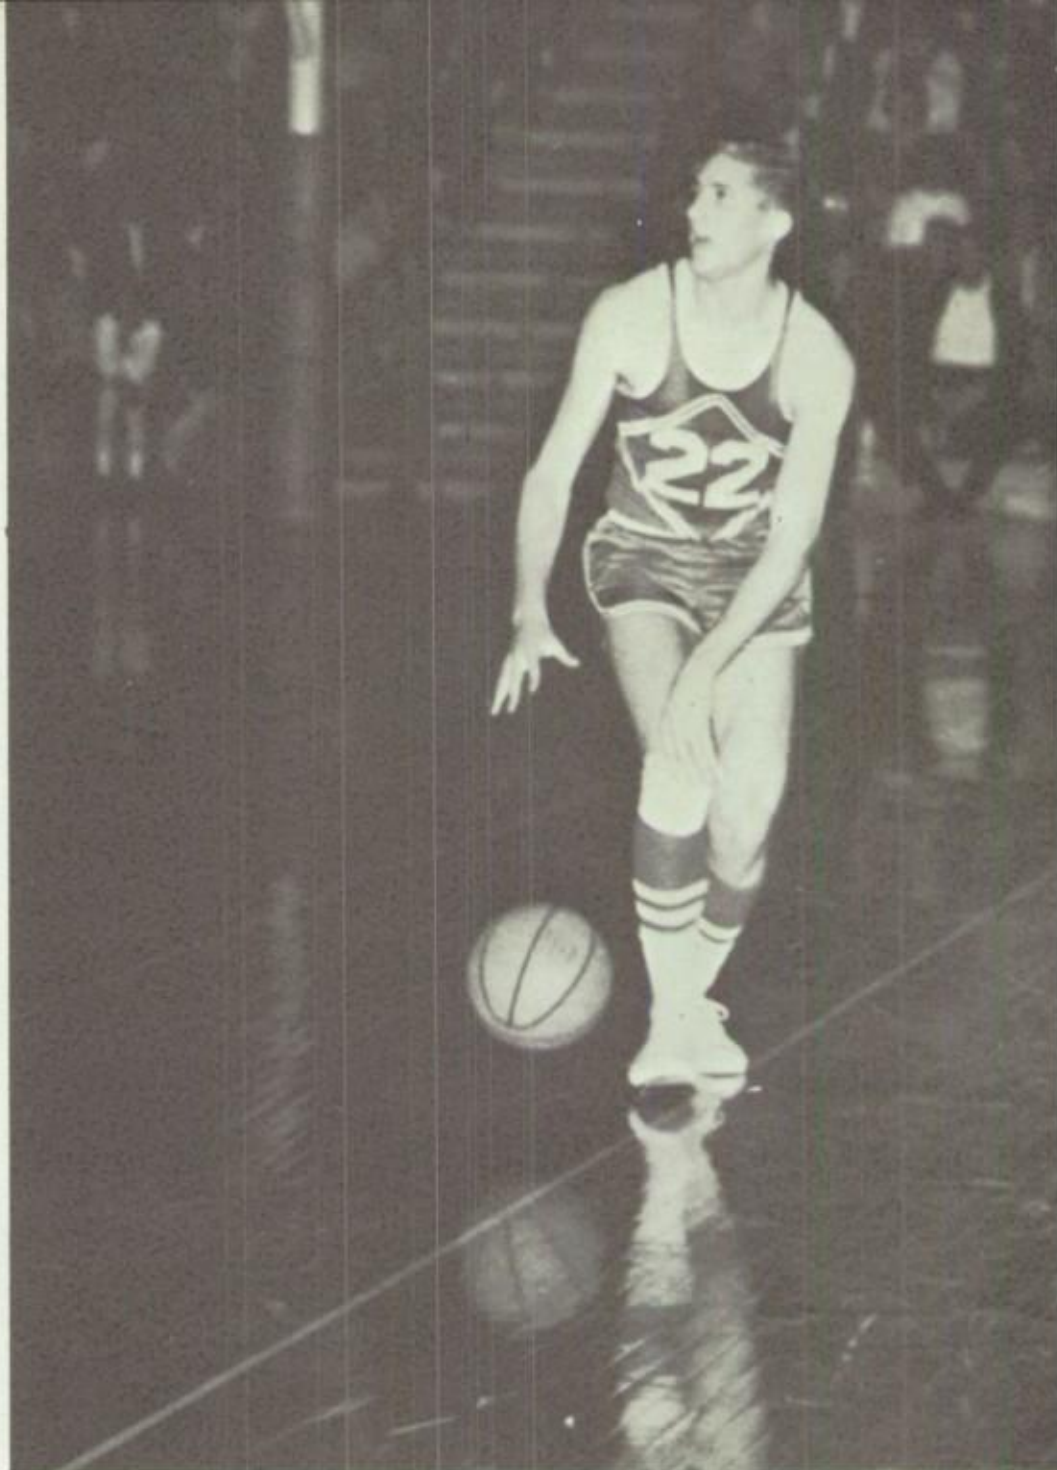

SAN ANTONIO HOLIDAY TOURNAMENT

For the second year, one point was the margin between victory and defeat as the Vols were eliminated before they had time to build up any kind of steam.

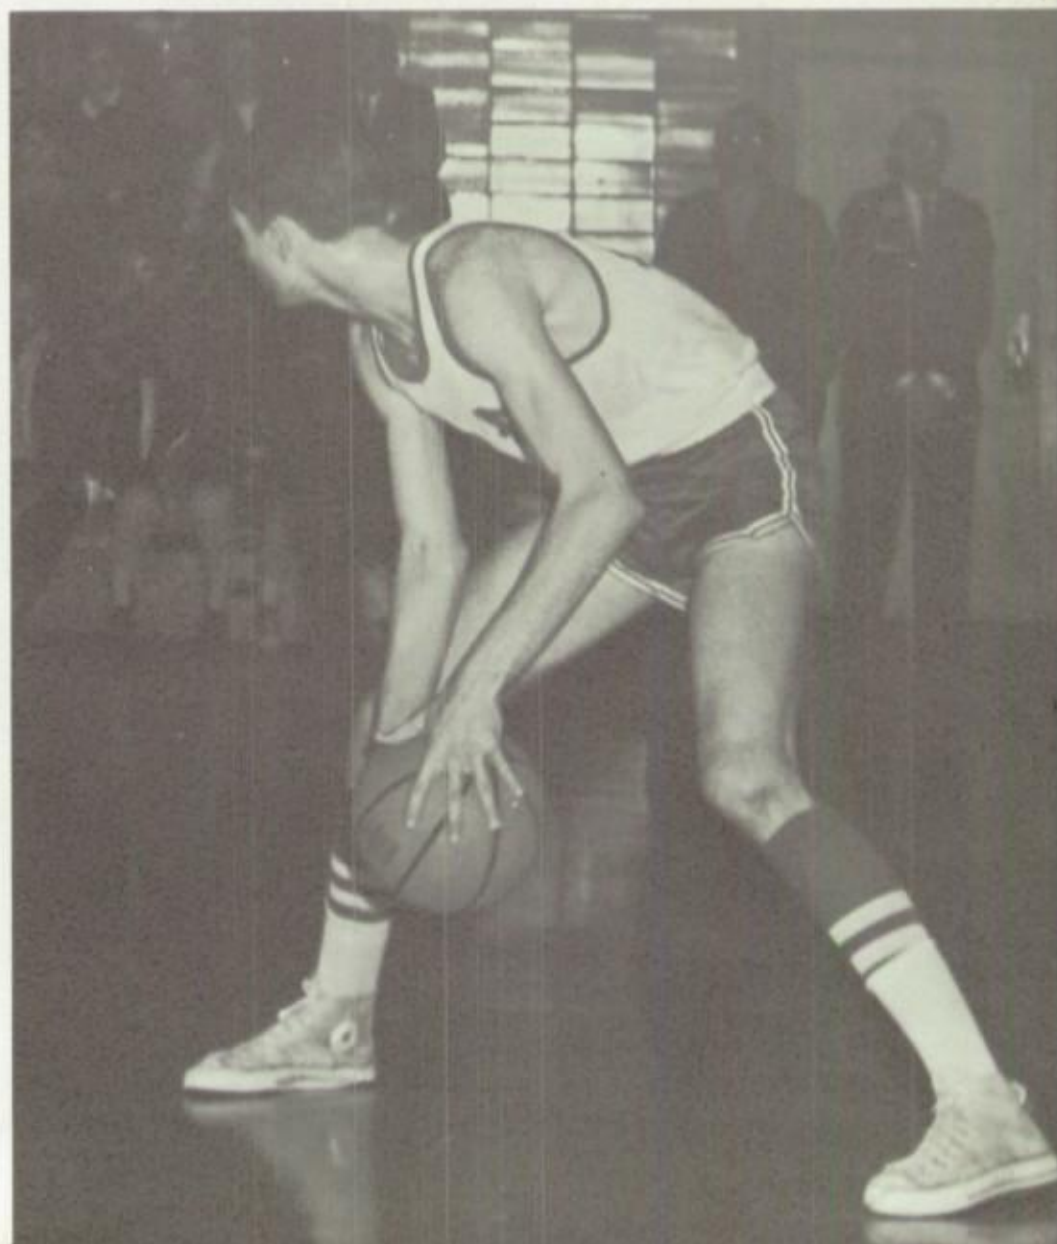

First round competition saw the Vols swamp the Harlandale Indians 60-42 with little trouble.

Looking for revenge, the Volunteers were again upset, 44-43, by Central Catholic, knocking the Reb cagers from further play.

Edison misses as Pat Power and Larry Townsend set to control the back board.

Sparked by pre-district wins, the Volunteer cagers swept past Edison to take two district victories from the Honey Bears.

The Vols squeaked by with a 49-47 win in the teams' first meeting. Carrying into overtime, the game was deadlocked 42-42 as regulation time ran out.

Sporting as much as a 13 point lead in the second hardwood tilt, the Rebs routed the Bears, 63-52.

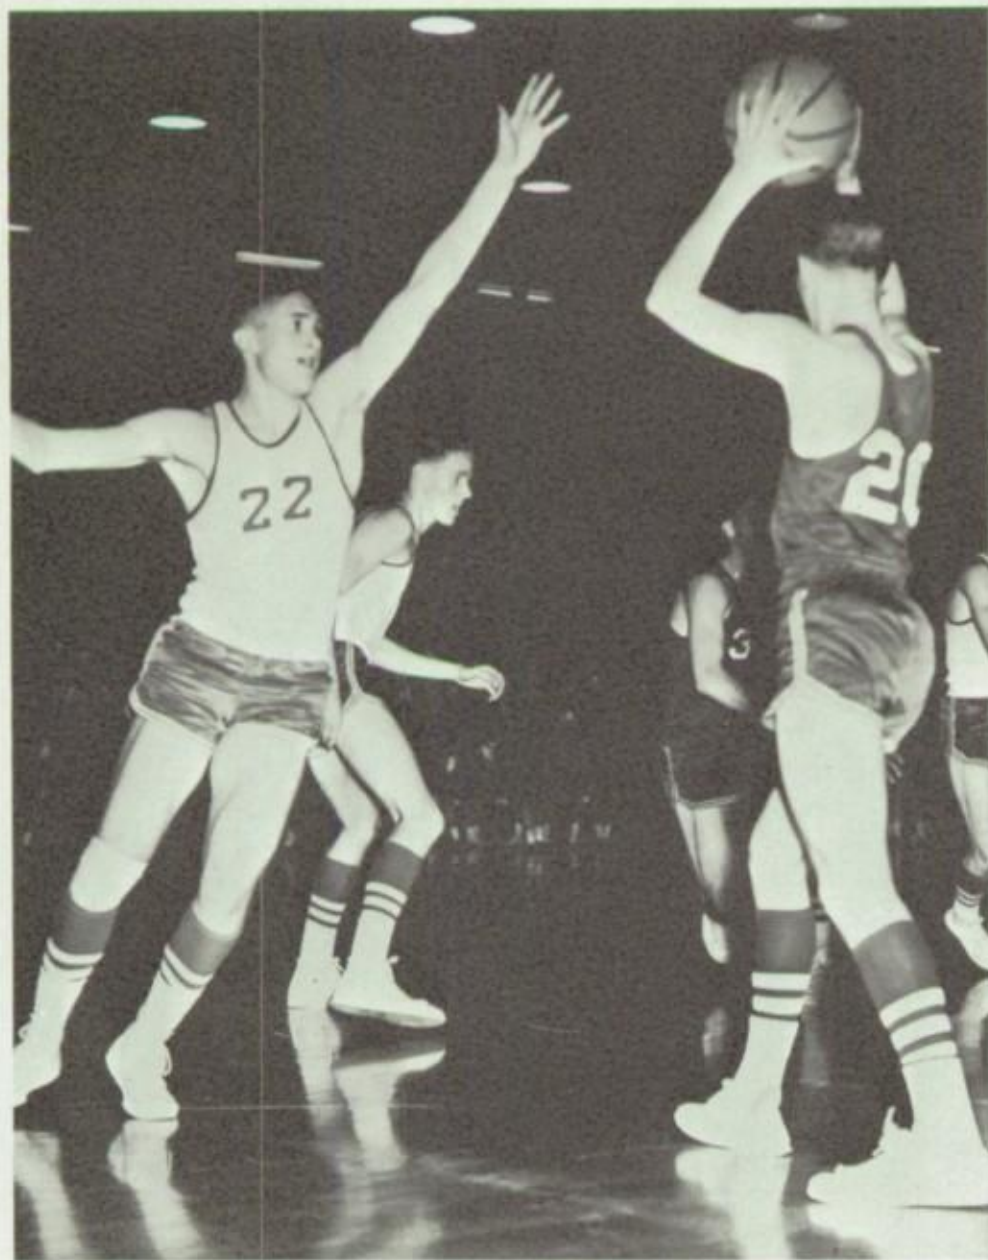

Johnny Coles and Bob Gass were high scorers of the games.

Rebs Jolt Ponies for Two Wins

A stout defense was the key as the Mustangs fell to the Reb onslaught in two loop contests.

Coming alive late in the first game, Lee dunked Jeff, 55-48, although the lead changed hands with the bounce of the ball during the first half of play.

The second Red and Gray victory came as the result of high scores by Johnny Coles and Pat Power.

An expert on defense, Brian Schiffer keeps the Mustangs in back court.

Splitting the series with Highlands, the Vols plunged into a deadlock with the Owls for the 15-AAAA district title.

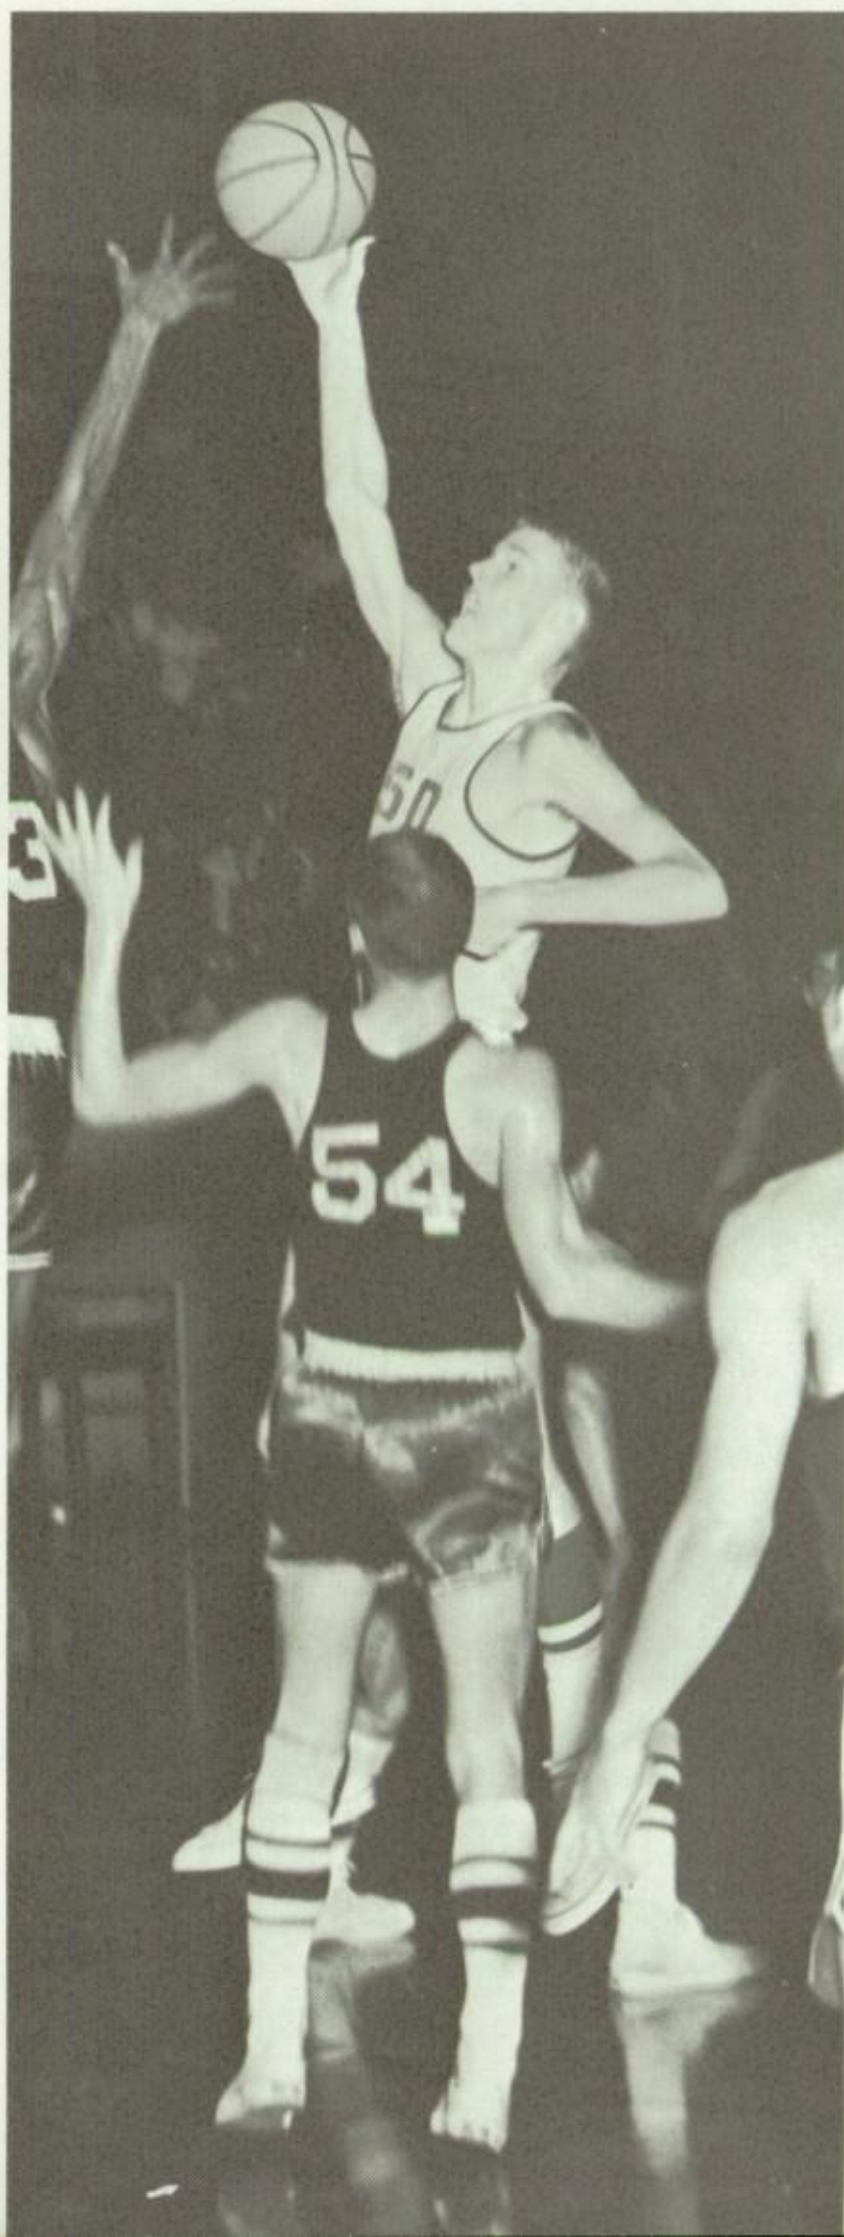

Winning the first contest by a 51-46 margin, the Vols lead varied from 13 to one points.

The second encounter found the Owls on top of the score as the Rebs were upset, 51-43 in jinx--Alamo Stadium Gym.

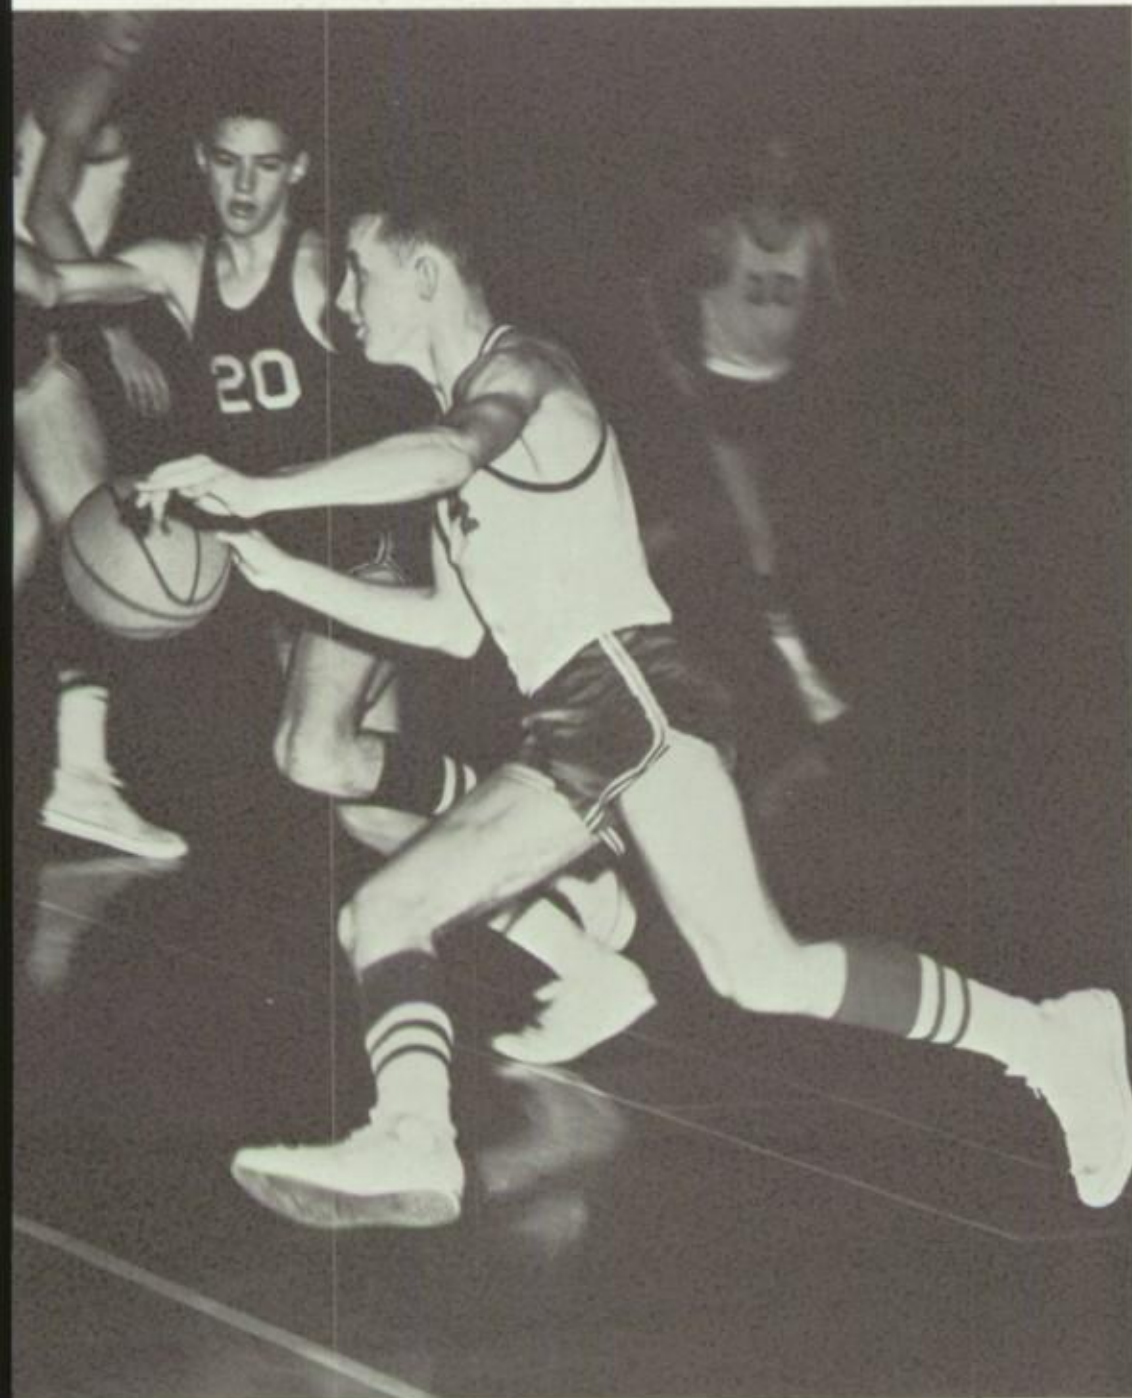

Johnny Coles posted 31 points for his best game record while Pat Power added 13 to Lee's score.

Lee Thumps Mules Twice

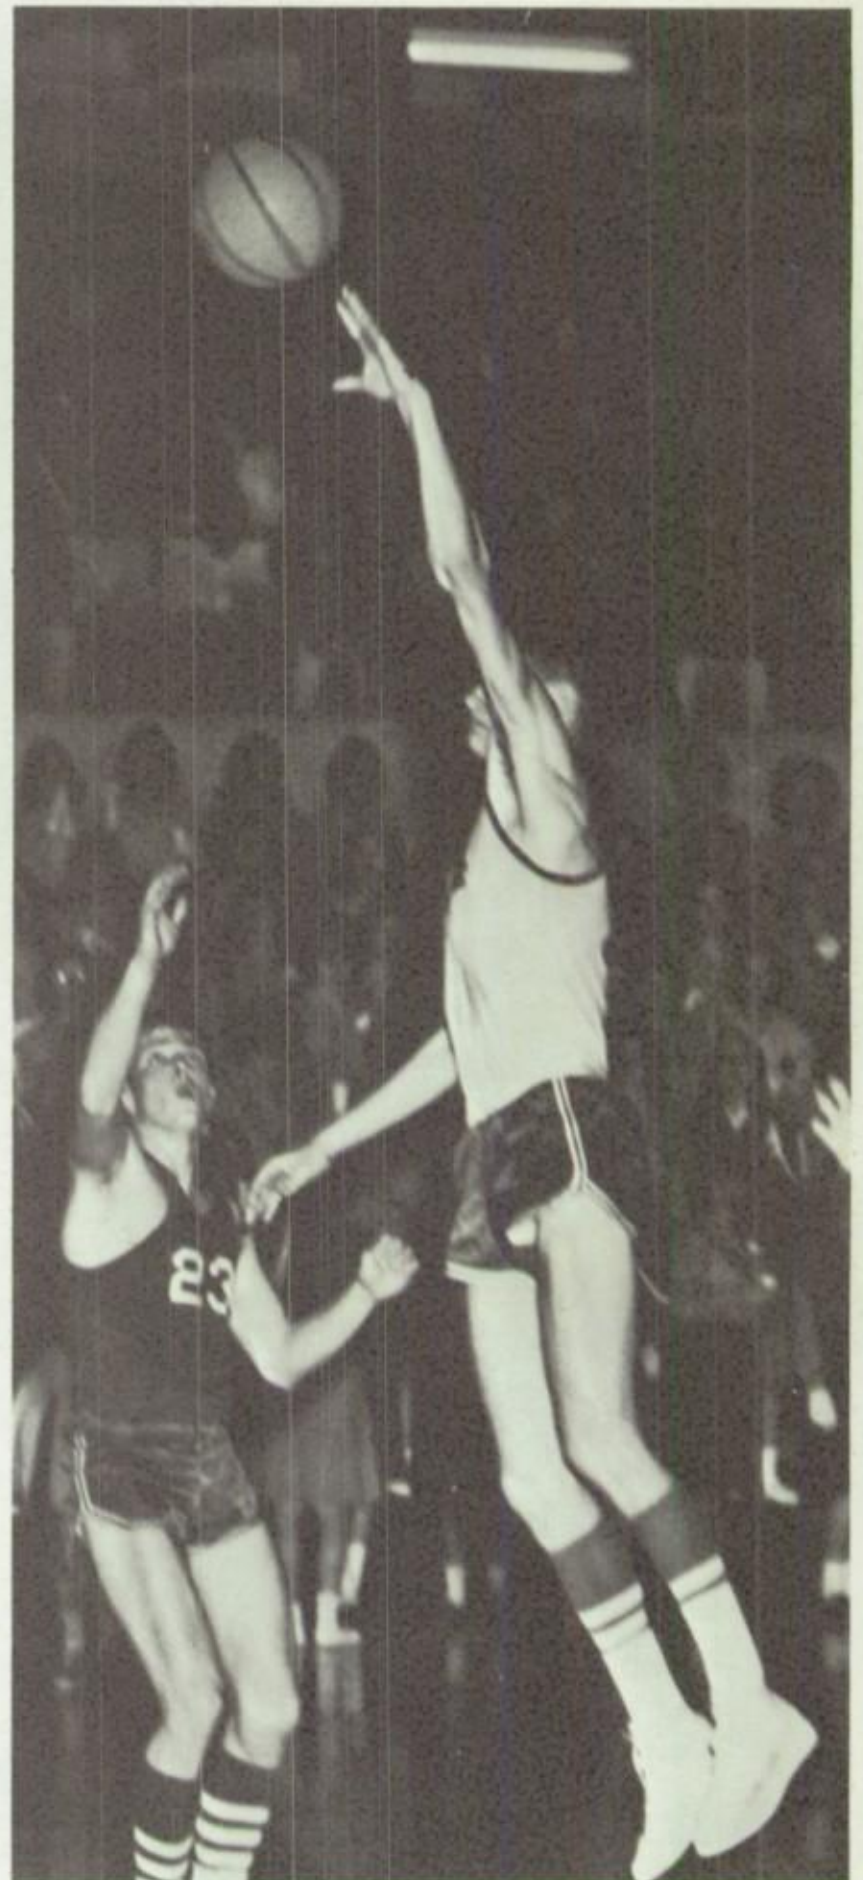

Displaying his skill at ball handling, Bob Gass cuts inside for a lay-up.

Failing to meet the task, the Alamo Heights Mules suffered two defeats at the hands of the Volunteer Roundballers.

The first tilt a defensive battle, the Rebs maintained a ten point lead throughout the last quarter to upend the Mules, 49-39.

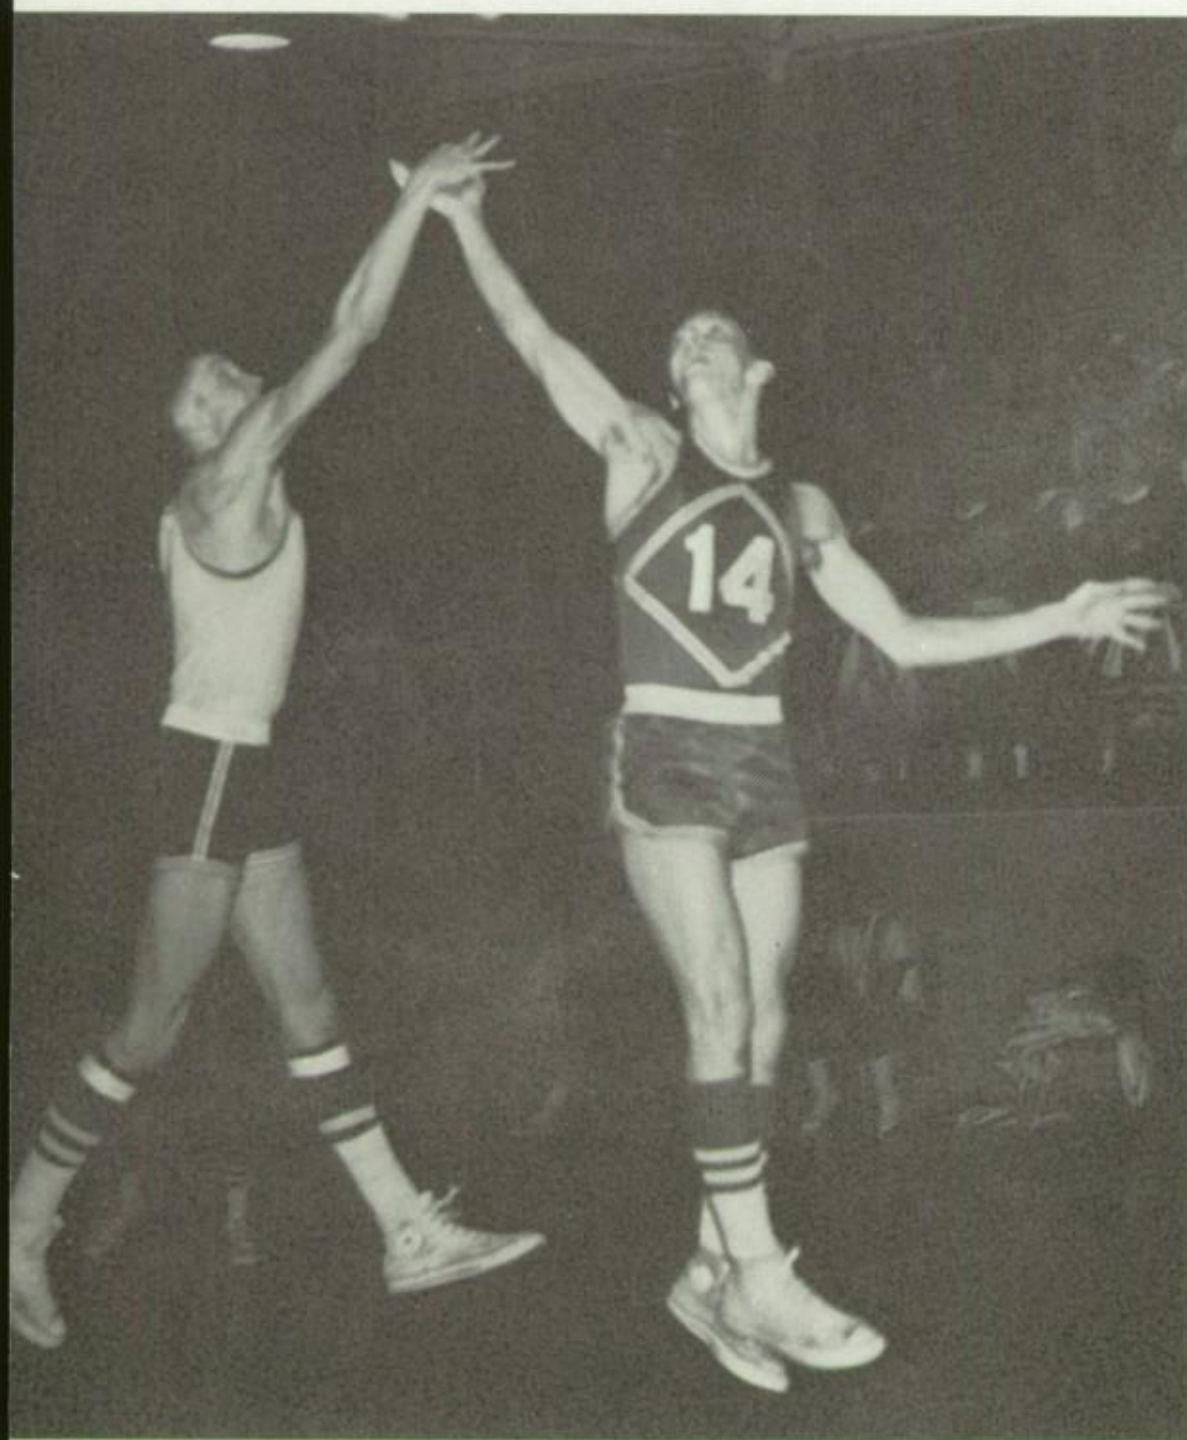

Hard defensive maneuvers took their toll in the second game as the Vols walked off with a 54-48 verdict although the lead seesawed during much of the encounter.

Johnny Davis sends another point on the way as Lee thwarts the Cows.

Ending the regular season with a second victory over the Mac Brahmas, the Volunteers captured the co-championship of District 15-AAAA.

Whipping the Cows, 69-56, the Rebs were never in any serious trouble and controlled the ball most of the two games.

Once more corralling the Brahmas, Lee cagers were triumphant, 64-47, to gain a play-off with co-champ Highlands.

Johnny Coles led Lee scorers at both games with a 28 and 23 record.

Brian Schiffer carries the ball down court for a pass to Inselmann and another 2 points.

Lee Survives Battle, Gains Bi-District Berth

Earning the right to carry the district banner into bi-district playoffs, the Lee cagers trimmed Highlands, 47-44, in the loop representative contest.

Defense was the key as the Vols took an early lead which the Owls could not best although they did tie the score at 40-40.

A strong Lee defense thwarted Owl attempts at moving the ball in under the basket forcing them to shoot from the outside.

The fourth quarter saw Larry Townsend join Jeff Inselmann on the sidelines in time to watch the Southside squad pull in a deadlock.

Johnny Coles and Brian Schiffer sank free throws and Coles a goal to set the game up for the Rebs, 47-44.

Coles and Schiffer were high-point men with 21 and 9 points respectively.

Triumphant fans surge onto the court to congratulate players after Lee's victory.

Last 2 Seconds Fatal as Lee Falls

Volunteers Pat Power, Bob Gass and Brian Schiffer stall Brack offensive efforts.

In the final seconds of play, Brackenridge rallied the length of the court to defeat Lee, 49-48, for the right to compete in regional competition.

The first quarter found both teams playing a sluggish offensive game with Brack leading 8-3 at the end of the period. The Brack defense clicked to keep Lee trying for long outside shots while Lee's inability to hit the rim on free throws hurt the Reb game.

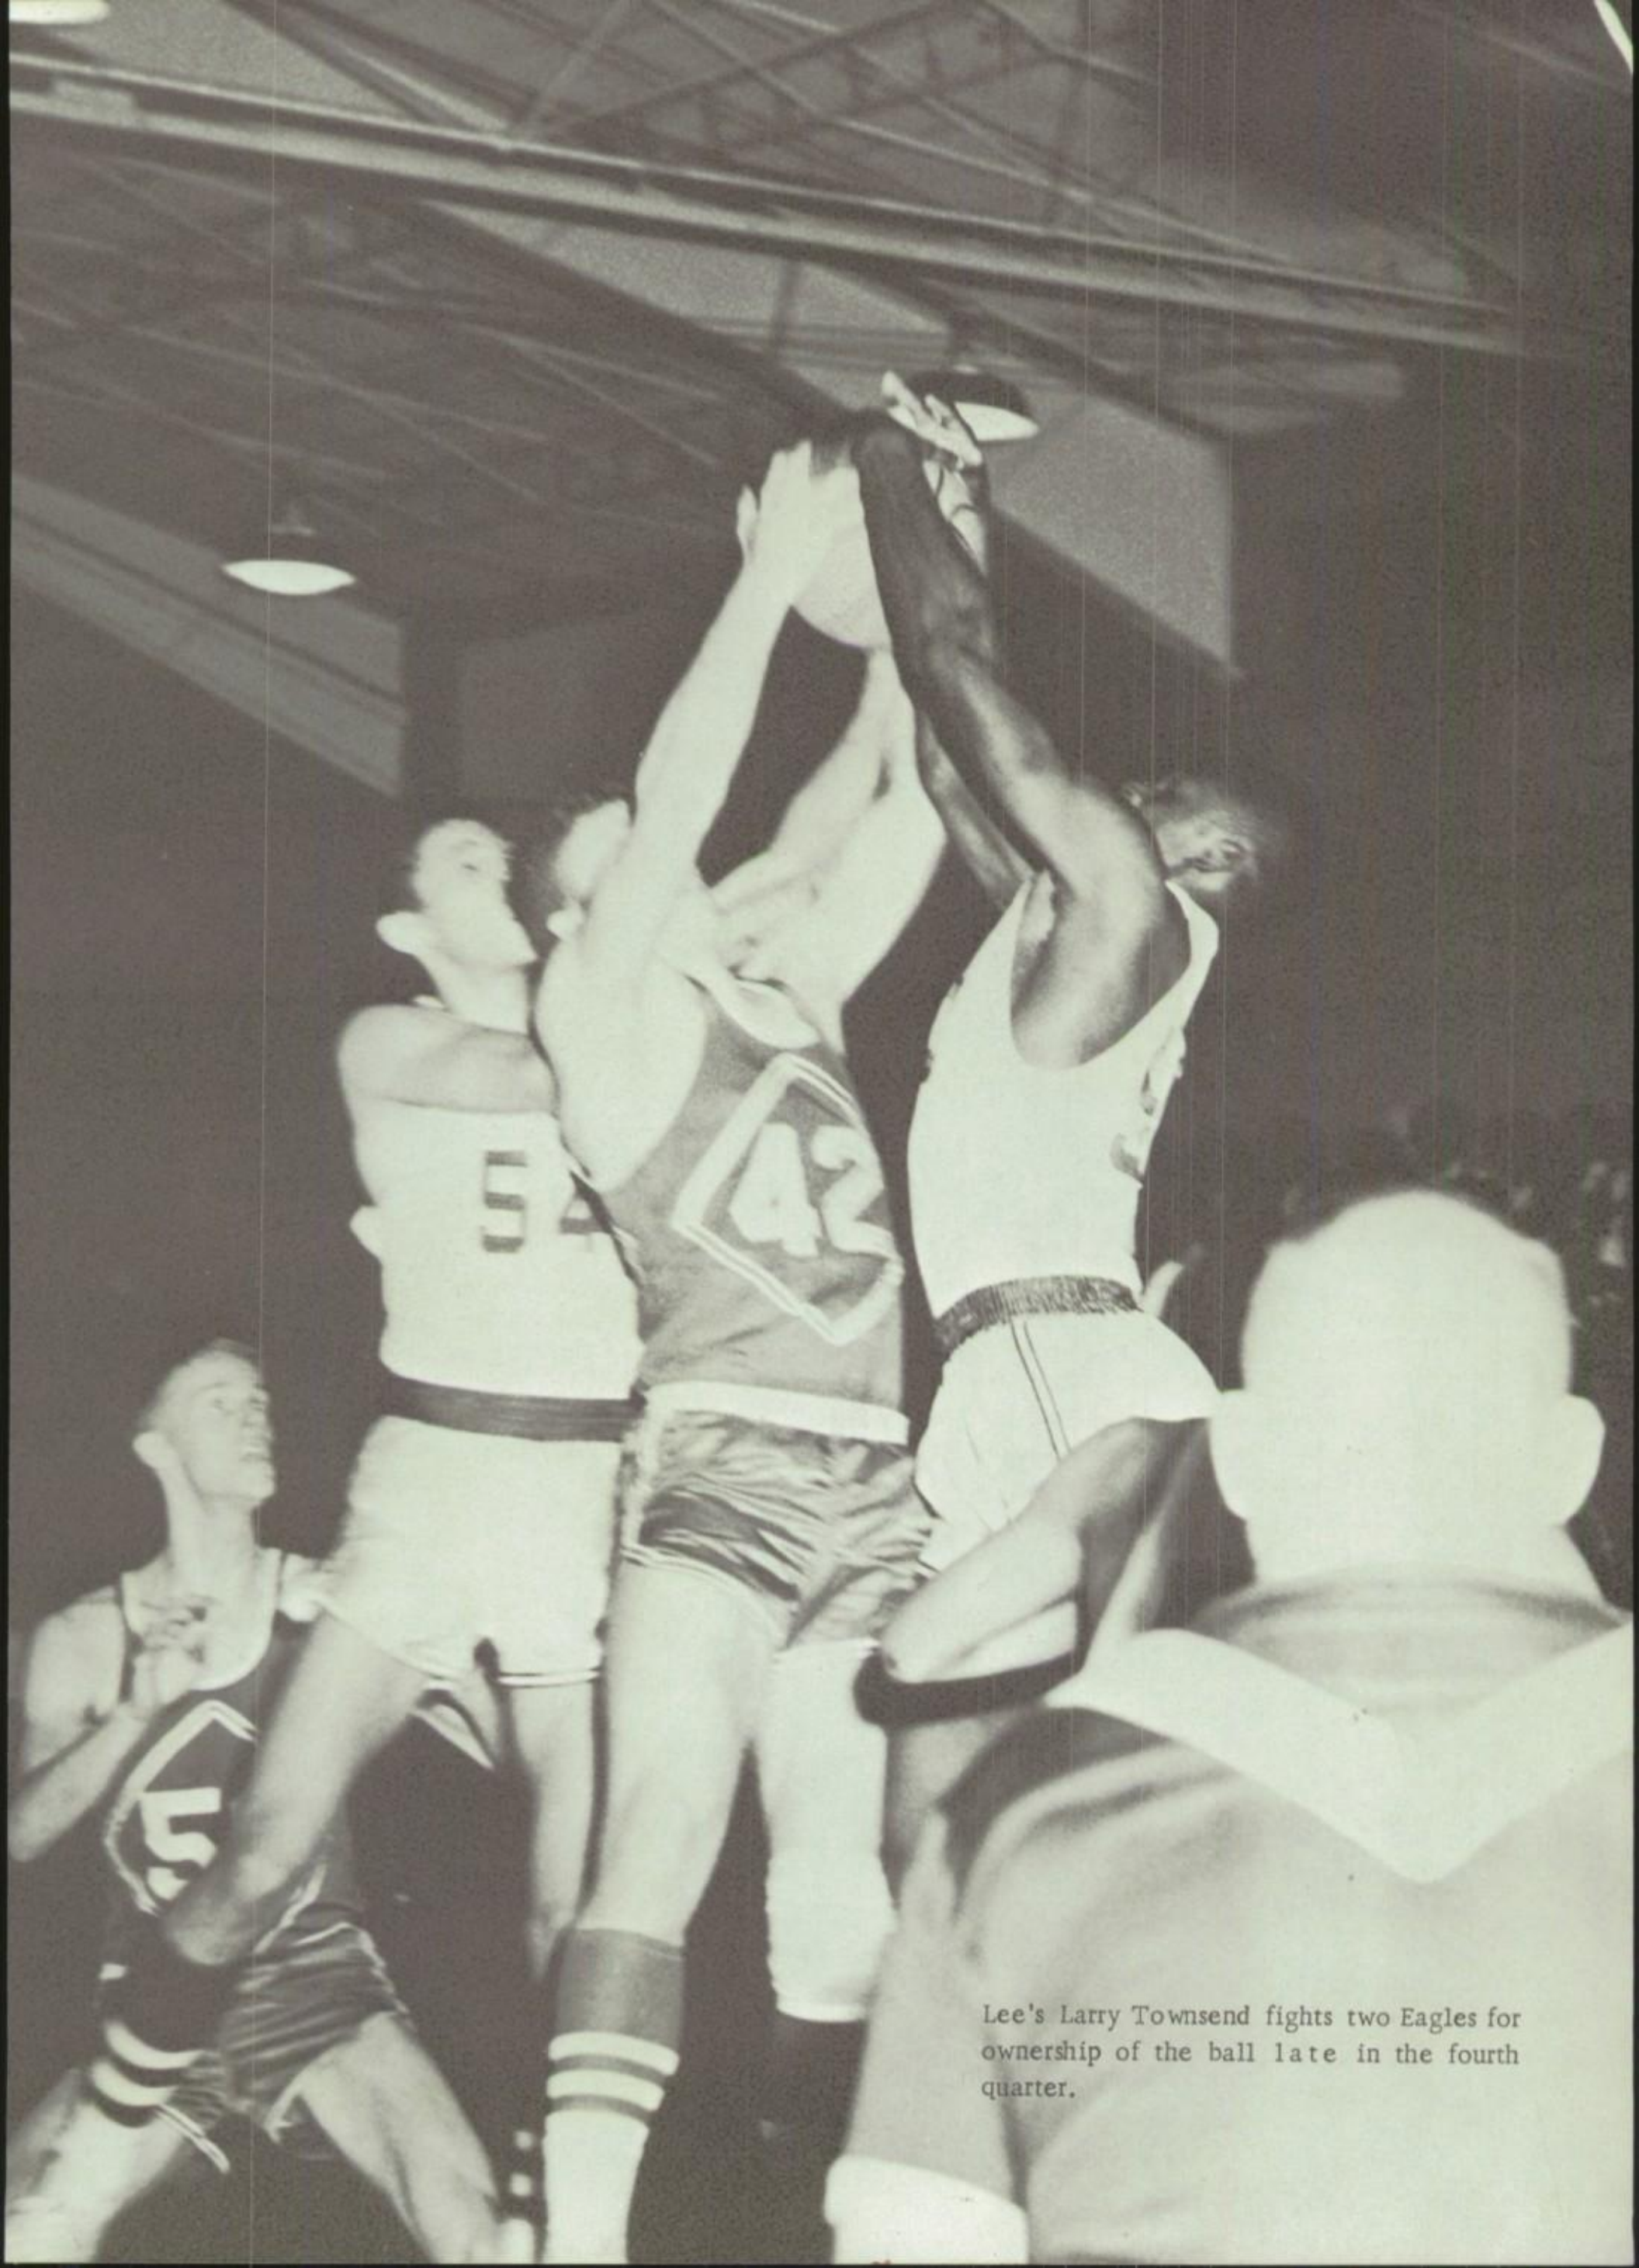

Second quarter was Lee rally to a 21-20 lead only to lose it in the third quarter as the Eagles surged ahead 33-32. The final quarter brought fans to their feet time after time as the score rocked between Lee and Brack.

Sharpshooter John Coles sunk a long one for a 48-47 score, and Brack time out set the clock at two seconds. Brack's Cook threw a full court pass from Dupree and made a lay-up for the winning two points.

Coles rallied after a scoreless first quarter to earn high-point man honors with 26 points.

Coles pumps one from the outside as Townsend prepares for the rebound.

Lee's Larry Townsend fights two Eagles for ownership of the ball late in the fourth quarter.

Sophs, JV's Post 31 Wins, 3 Losses

Following the footsteps of big-brother varsity basketball team, Lee's combined Junior Varsity and Sophomore Cagers posted an impressive 31-3 season record.

Coached by Mr. Bill Moseley, J.V.'s suffered a lone loss to Jefferson while Sophs were defeated by Sam Houston and Jeff; each team avenged the losses with wins.

Both teams copped the district crown in respective categories. The J.V.'s took a 60-40 decision from sister-school MacArthur, and the Sophomore team overran South San Antonio in a 63-26 game to cinch the titles.

1964 STATE CHAMPIONSHIP PLAYOFFS FOURTH PLACE TROPHY

All-State pitcher Gary Kempf plans runner strategy from the first-base coaching box.

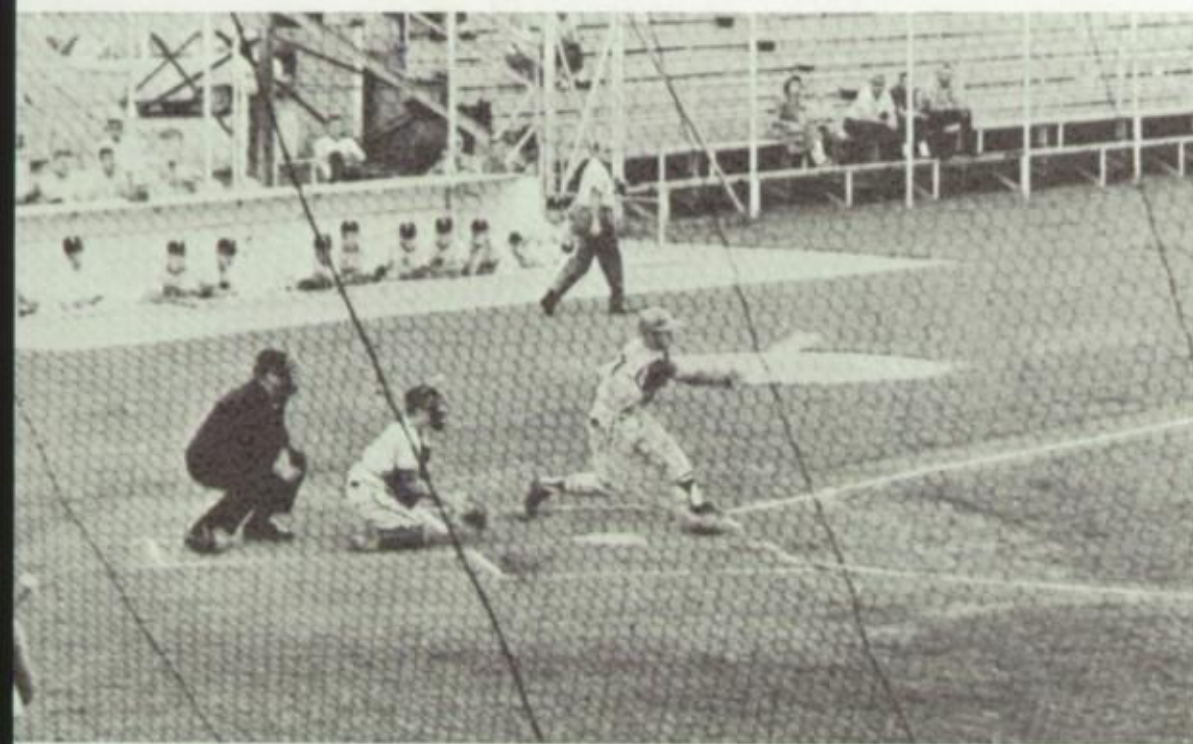

Third in district, predicted critics--fourth in state was the reply from Coach Tom Jungman's sandlotters as they carried the school name to the state tournament for the third consecutive year.

The Lee nine earned the right to travel to Austin by downing district opponents MacArthur, Alamo Heights and Harlandale. Laredo Martin fell before the Rebel onslaught in bi-district play while Carroll of Corpus was left behind in regional competition.

The Volunteers suffered a 3-0 loss to eventual champion Sherman to end hopes of taking the big one home. Midland Robert Lee handed the Vols their second play-off defeat, 1-0.

Three Lee batsmen--Pitcher Gary Kempf, Second Baseman Jimmy Heartwell and Catcher Tony Brown--earned berths on the All-State squad.

Lee Nine Show Strong Points -- Speed, Defense

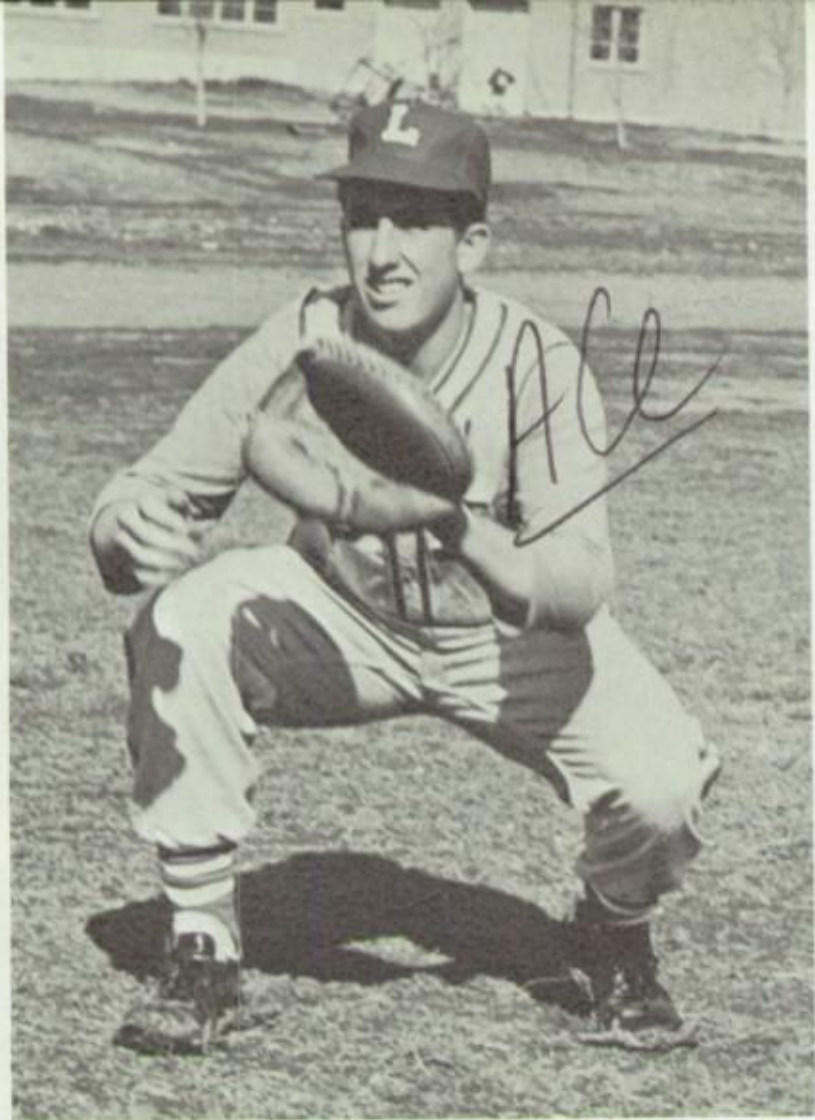

Receiving signals from the catcher, pitcher Steve Wagner starts his wind up.

Relying on strong points of team speed and a good defense, Coach Tom Jungman's 1964-65 Volunteer baseball team faces a season of hard opposition.

Hoping for a repeat of last year's bid at the State Tournament, Coach Jungman predicts that "we're jumping into a hornet's nest; and after the first ten games, we'll be lucky to have a 50-50 record."

The Sandloters, boosted by five returning lettermen, will rely on the pitching and first base grabs of Senior Johnny Coles and the accurate outfielding of Junior Bob Gass. Team strength is also expected in the form of Gerald Scheppler's catching and the infielding of Larry Day.

Opti-Misses Halloween Service Project

Clubs present a challenge while giving students opportunities to learn the requirements of professional jobs which may carry them around the world after graduation.

By balancing the scholastic side of Lee, the extra-curricular activities help round out Lee life. Fun, opportunities and leadership are the calls which beckon Lee-ites to after-school meetings and clubs.

Service, honorary and special interest organizations form the nucleus of extra-curricular excitement.

Working Betas Renew Point System

Led by President Jo Neely, the National Beta Club centered the year's activities on the returning of the point system.

Helping teachers, supplying Lee-ites with paperback books through the school store, furnishing the teachers' lounges with Christmas trees and giving a fall picnic were the main projects.

Beta members, under the point system, must work three hours during the six-week period in service for teachers.

Members are chosen by teacher recommendation on the basis of service, leadership, citizenship and scholarship.

Miss Jeanette Day sponsored the honorary club, while Sandy Killey served as vice president; Mary Larsen as secretary; and Jackie Fryar as treasurer.

Thespians Sponsor Comedies.

Mike Stevens
President

Setting their aims for the year as providing dramatic entertainment for the student body and furthering Robert E. Lee's interests in speech tournaments, the National Thespian Society, under the sponsorship of Mr. Charlie Walker, saw an active year of plays, talent shows, and drama tournaments.

Under the leadership of President Mike Stevens, Vice president Marcia Guthridge, Secretary Richard Rosen and Records Clerk Dick Waldman, Thespian productions ran from the comical fall production, "Androcles and the Lion" to the more comical spring presentation, "Beggar on Horseback." Between the two dramatic performances, Thespians staged the annual "Stars Over Lee Talent Show," participated in local and area speech tournaments, and initiated new Thespian members. The grand finale of the year came as Thespians staged the "Charlie Awards" during which outstanding Thespians and Drama students were recognized.

President Stevens gained the honor of touring Washington, D.C. by winning state competition in the National Voice of Democracy oratorical contest.

Thespian Fall Production Presents 'Androcles and the Lion'

The play is brought to a climax as Androcles is thrown to the Lion before an aggregate of spectators including Jim Edwards, Diane Swendeman, Ben Watson, Gerry Weatherford, Pam Gorham, Johnny Gross, Melody Christie, Georgianne Johnson, Richard Gothard, Sol Casseb, Tommy Camp, Jack Rogers, Luther Balliew, Jill Thrift, Mike Stevens, Kay Keel, Bob McCoy, Patty Zysking and Suzanne Weeber.

In the opening scene, Androcles, played by Richard Jones, waltzes with the Lion, Molly Butler, after removing a painful thorn from her paw.

Ferrovius, portrayed by Bob McCoy, comforts Spintho, Bob Wade, a fellow Christian in his moment of weakness.

The seventh annual fall production directed by Mr. Charlie Walker, was marked by Roman sandals, elaborate robes and a ferocious lion.

One of George Bernard Shaw's best plays, "Androcles and the Lion" is a tale of a kind-hearted Greek tailor in the second century A.D. who removes a splinter from a wild lion's paw.

Later, the same tailor is thrown into the lion's den in martyrdom for his faith. The unexpected occurs as the lion recognizes Androcles and in conclusion, dances off the stage with him.

The setting and scenery of the production bears the unique touch of Mr. Walker, who created and designed all stage props. The costumes also added an extra flare as the Lee Drama spent many hours doing research on Greek and Roman dress.

Androcles, who has been thrown to the Lion to save his fellow Christians, is recognized by the Lion as the man who removed her thorn.

Her freedom restored by the Emperor, Lavinia, portrayed by Kay Keel, agrees to become the wife of the Captain who is played by Mike Stevens.

Fanciful Exaggeration Fills Spring Production

The George Kaufman-Marc Connelly fantasy "Beggar on Horseback" was the Thespian spring production selection. "This breezy harumscarum traversity revolves around the dreams of Neal MacRae, a young composer portrayed by Bob McCoy.

The three act play has twenty scenes and only the first and last settings take place in the world of reality.

Mr. Charlie Walker, Lee drama instructor, directed the play.

"I'm sick!" was all Homer, Tommy Camp, said in the play.

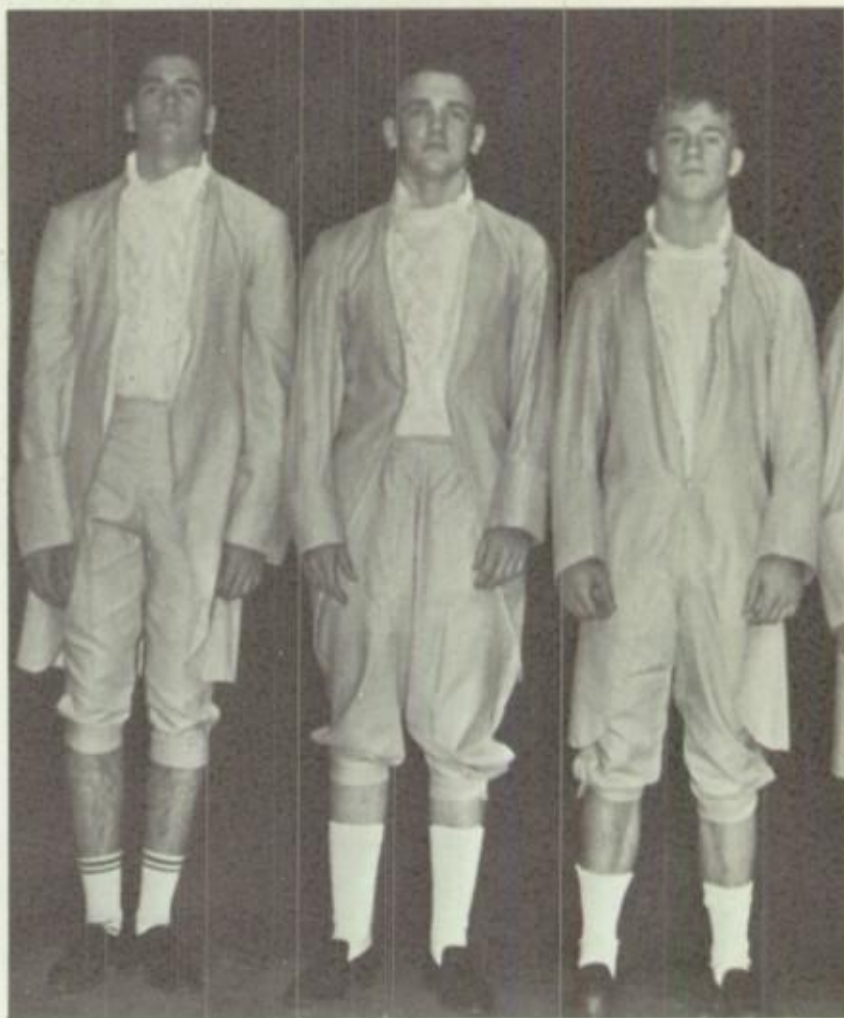

Dr. Albert Rice, portrayed by Rick Madden, gives Neal sleeping pills.

Dancing instructors Johnny Gross and Suzanne Weeber attempt to teach Neal MacRae, played by Bob McCoy, to dance.

Mrs. Cady, Valerie Chlarson, is served her afternoon tea by Cynthia Mason, Pam Pendegrast.

Dana Smith, Mike Redding and Scott Berkman become three of the twelve butlers in a dream scene.

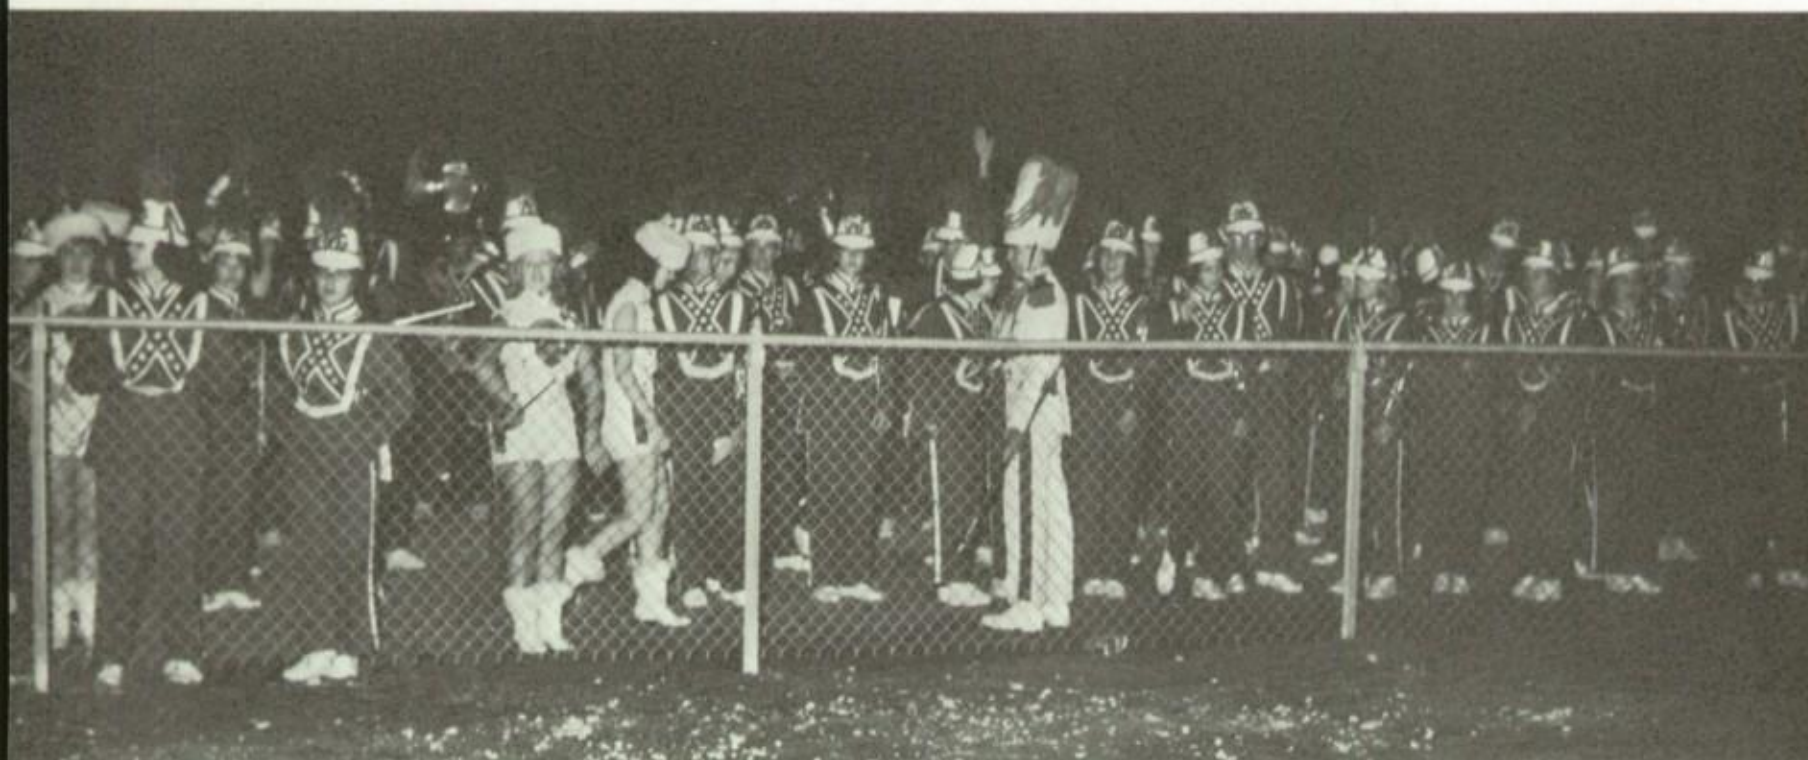

Carolyn Waters who plays Gladys, confers with Neal as to which material she should choose for her dress.

Club members listen to Steve Davis give his committee report.

Kazuchan Mihara wears his birthday presents, boots and hat, given to him by the Lee student body.

The American Field Service is new to Lee this year. Bringing service and help to the Foreign Student, the club stays busy with Welcome Wagon items for Kazuchan Mihara, Lee's foreign student from Japan. The organization is raising money for future exchange students for Lee.

Jill Thrift chairwoman heads the club while Sally Delavan takes care of activities. Marcia Guthridge and Annie-Marie Verstegen publicize the club's happenings. Bernie Sanders regulates money matters and sees to its proper use. Steve Davis takes charge of Welcome Wagon and secures gifts for the Foreign Exchange Student.

Don Currie and Gloria Swerk grasp the task of Home & Family. Peter Williams and Judy French are the school representatives to Americans Abroad and American Field Service respectively. Mrs. Bobbie Abbott is AFS sponsor.

Traveler Staff Captures 'World of the Young'

Editor in chief Peg Barry learns to develop pictures during the pressures of deadlines.

Four hundred pages of life at Lee--film, flash bulbs, pictures, words of copy, out-of-the-way trips, hurried deadlines, frenzied editors, corrected layouts, overworked typewriters--these are only a few of the elements that contribute to a way of life for 36 members of the TRAVELER Staff.

As the year draws to a close, each staffer has an unbelievable story to tell about every page. The many school happenings throughout the year have developed staffers' fifth sense of thinking TRAVELER, living TRAVELER and dreaming TRAVELER.

Class section members Patti Wolf, Brett Williams, Debbie Cross, Ann Enloe, Donna Dick and Judy Kelfer manage to find something humorous about the final deadline day.

Armed with the proper gear, Diane Leske, Linda Dixon and Miss Rita Gianotti, sponsor, leave to take ad pictures.

Peggy Montgomery helps with Halloween games at Boysville.

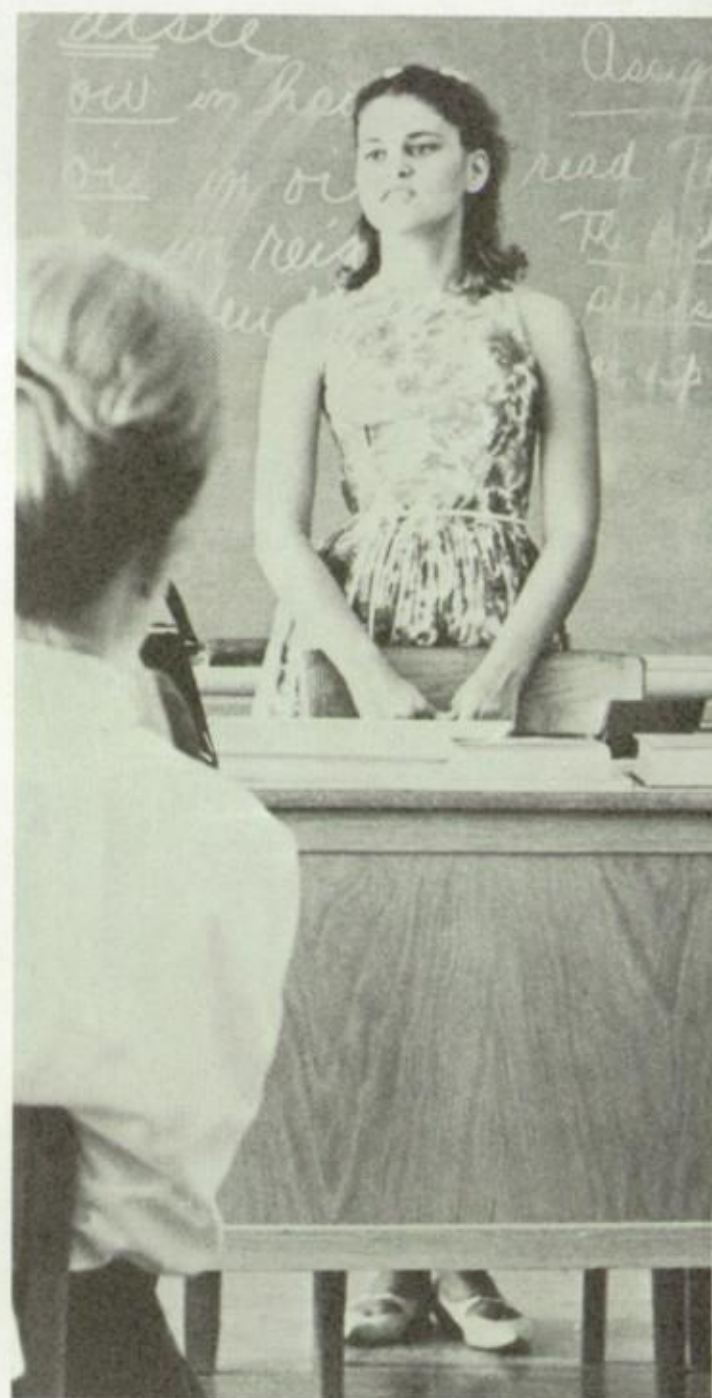

The Opti-Misses are an auxiliary club to the Opti-Mrs. of San Antonio, featuring a service project each month.

1964-'65 activities include adopting a needy family at Christmas, taking presents to the Bexar County Home for Girls, giving a Halloween and Easter party at Boysville, putting cookies in the teachers lounge for Valentine and having a Mother-Daughter Tea and a banquet in May.

Officers for Opti-Misses of '64-'65 are Lou Ann Smith, president, Kay Keel, vice president, Susan Ralls, secretary and Evelyn Ng, treasurer.

Senior Kay Keel represented the Opti-Mrs. in the Diplomatic Court of Beauty at the International Ambassador Council's third annual Ball. Kay was the only high school student participating in the Court.

Lee Boosters fill the stands with spirit at games.

Booster members Mr. Frank L. West, Mr. F. M. Townsend, Mr. Virgil Bumside, Mr. Bill Blakley, Mr. R. A. Grigsby, Mr. Sylvan Gurinsky, Mr. Gordon Kempf, President Bill Knippa, Mr. Walter Viner and Mrs. Gordon Kempf show their avid support by buying Booster spirit hats.

Boasting the most active and successful year in Lee's seven year history, the Booster Club was led by Mr. A. W. Knippa.

At Monday night meetings, sports enthusiasts gathered to hash over Lee's latest sports events. Club membership soared to an all-time high as meetings featured films of each Lee contest.

The annual Booster Club Picnic and other fund-raising activities enabled Booster Club members to purchase new basketball uniforms for the Lee cager squad.

The 1964-65 Booster Club was also directed by officers Mr. Mike Sheehan, Mr. Walter Viner, Mr. Al Conden, Mrs. Gordon Kempf, Mr. Sylvan Gurinsky, Mrs. R. K. Ferney, Mr. Joe Beal and Mr. Jack O'Quinn.

Band Parents Display Leadership, Service

The 1964-65 Band Parents, under the leadership of Mr. A. A. Hansen, president, offered a year of services to Lee's Volunteer Band.

Chaperoning on busses to each out-of-town game, operating concession stands at home football games and giving their full confidence and support to each band activity by attending as a group were a few of their many leadership projects.

The parents concluded an active year with a pancake supper to which all band members and their families were invited.

Mrs. E. J. Kubicek discusses projects and plans with band parents at one of the monthly meetings.

Mrs. E. J. Swerk and Mrs. Doris Smith serve at the North East Stadium concession stand during home football games.

Spirited Band Parents and families prepare to depart for Corpus Christi for the Lee-Ray football game.

Band Leaders

Concerts, parades, halftime shows, contests and early morning practices make up the musical world of the Lee Volunteer Band.

Awards went to the band this year in the form of two first division ratings in the University Interscholastic League Region VI Marching Contest. Led by Senior Aerialist Gloria Swerk, the majorettes received a second place rating in the contest.

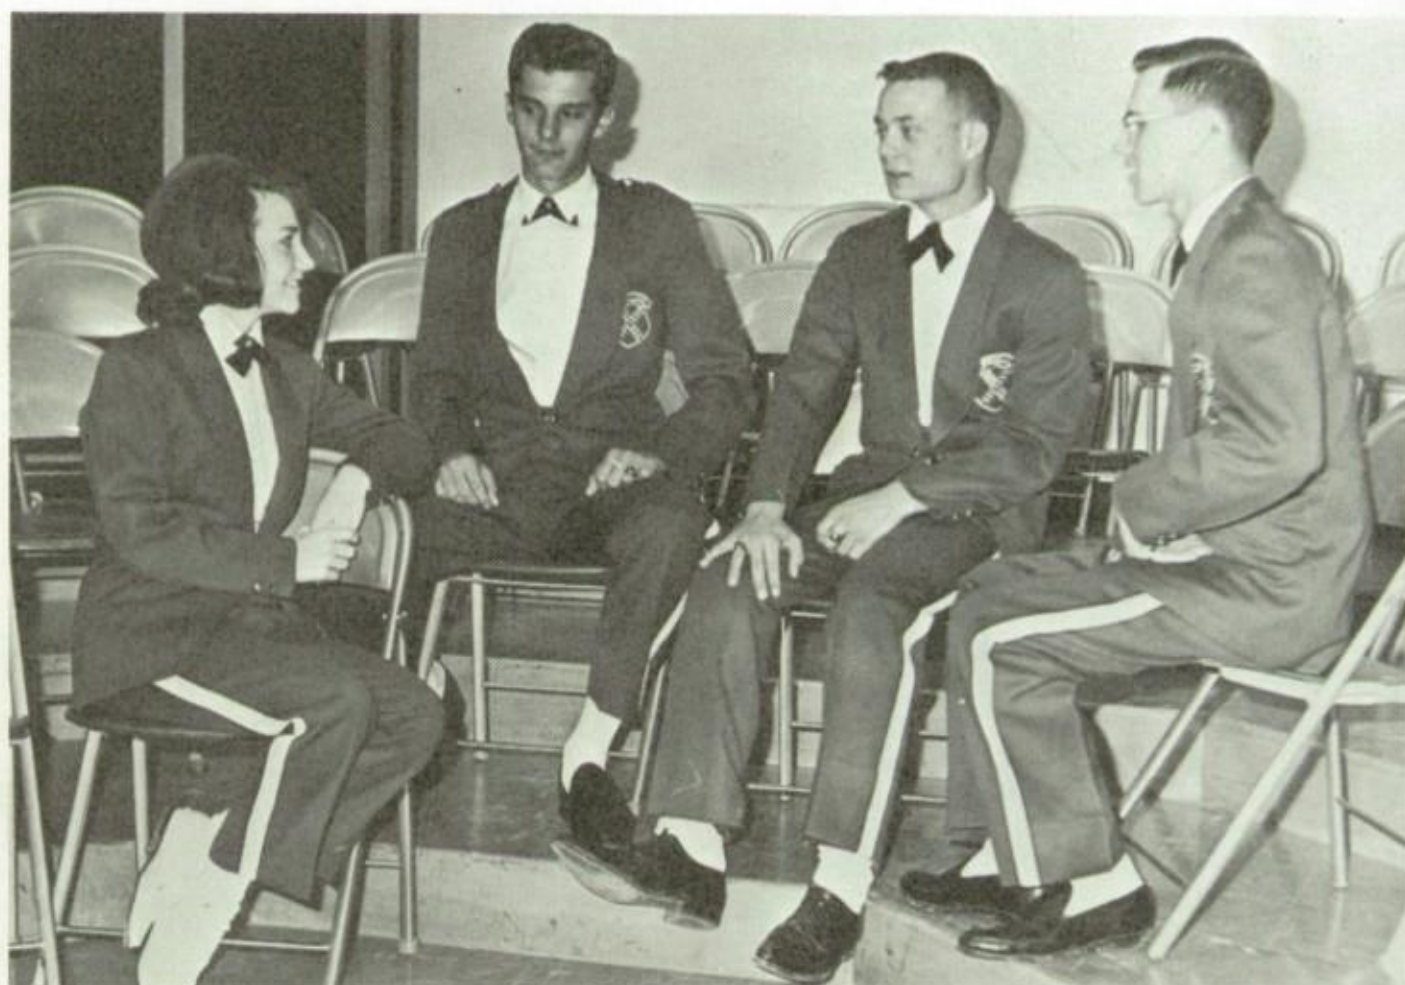

The Volunteer Band, under the batons of Mr. Marion Rodman and Drum Major Robert Bowles, acted as host for the TMEA district band tryouts for all neighboring schools. From the contest Lee sports two all-state members, Glenn Haecker and Carol Cone.

At the annual Christmas concert, Robert Bowles was chosen outstanding band member and Mike Peine and Gloria Swerk reigned as band beau and sweetheart.

Representing Lee as all-state band members were Glenn Haecker and Carol Cone. Carol also received this honor last year.

Band officers Linda Elam, secretary; Mike Peine, vice president; Steve Rice, president, and Larry Pittman, treasurer, discuss plans for the pancake supper, one of the band's spring activities.

Bugle Call Goes Professional

"Point mongers" Terry Passailaigue, Patti Davis, Ron English, Belinda Spector, Chuck Hanson, Linda Uzzell and Pam Moorton add points to their grade by folding papers.

Planning sessions for future papers are a vital part of second year journalism students duties. Linda Elam, news editor; Carolyn Waters, clubs editor; Kathy Patterson, features editor; and Cathy Warren, copy editor, sit in on one of these sessions.

Heads, cutlines, gallies, pica, leads and pix have become everyday terms for BUGLE CALL staffers.

This year the BUGLE CALL went professional with the addition of a managing editor, executive editor, public relations manager and city editor.

The staff, made up of journalism II students, is headed by Joe Blanks. Mrs. Bobbie Abbott serves as advisor.

"The New Look" has gained for the BUGLE its first A+ rating from the National Yearbook Association. Other awards include the Quill and Scroll International First Place Award and the Express-News trophy for the outstanding Hi-Notes Reporting Team.

Sending bills to advertisers is one of John Caldwell's duties as Business Manager.

Mrs. Bobbie Abbott, sponsor, has led the BUGLE CALL to many journalism awards.

Working on his Fineprint column is BUGLE CALL Editor Joe Blanks.

Picture assignments take Photographer Anne-Marie Verstegen to all parts of the campus.

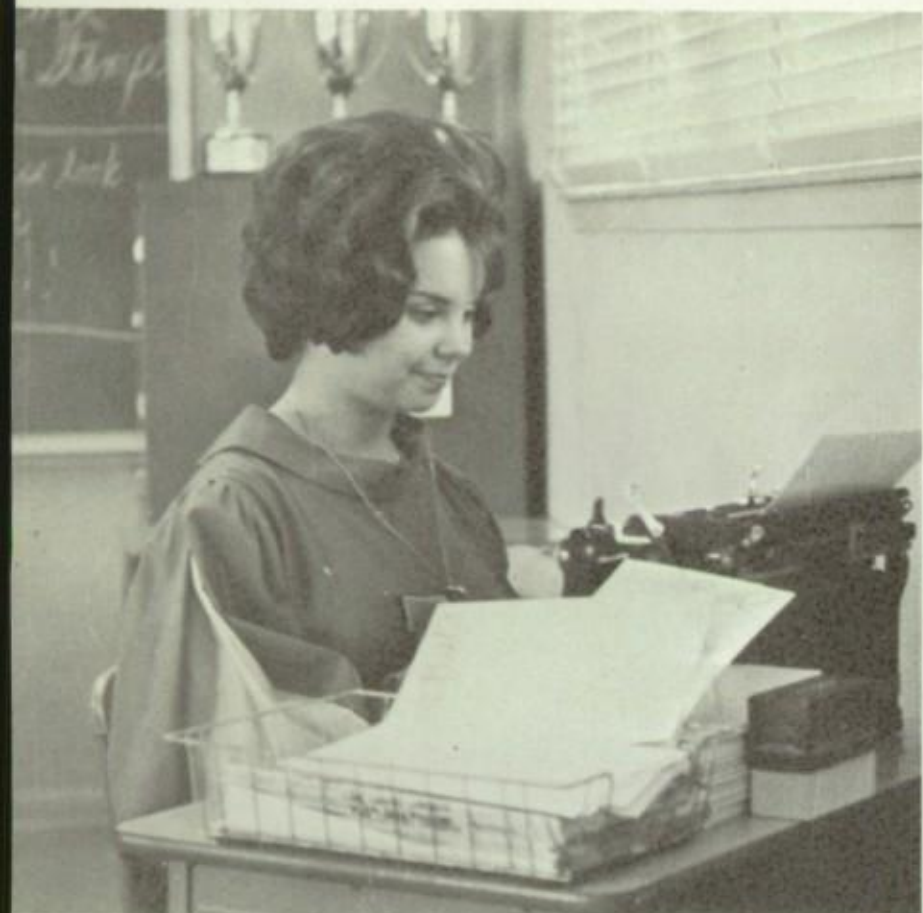

In charge of the sports brochures put out for the football and basketball seasons is Sports Editor Terry Collier.

Taking a minute to relax from a hectic deadline day is Managing Editor Marcia Guthridge.

Bugle Call

New to the Bugle Call staff is the position of Public Relations Manager, filled by Senior Judy Hanson.

As Exchange Editor, Melissa Bayha keeps papers on file from other schools.

This year, eighty-one representatives are working on Student Council-sponsored projects for Lee High School.

Most outstanding Council activity is sponsorship of Lee's foreign student, Kazuchan Mihara. Kazuchan comes to Texas from Japan for his year of study.

Every year is launched by "Howdy Week" with the school voting on Mr. and Miss Howdy from each class. After the first week of activities, the Council calendar is packed with events such as making and selling student directories, conducting Christmas and Valentine card delivery service for Lee-ites, distributing honor ribbons to students and conducting the foreign student fund drive.

Pencils, notebooks, workbooks and paper are being purchased during the September clearance at the school store from Karen Balliew and Cammy Harper by Dixie Clayton.

On the first day of school, the Student Council sponsored an information booth to help students find their classes. Donna Weichlein, Eddie Smith, Bernie Sanders, Rick Thiesen and Bob Prout prepare to set up the stand.

Concerts, long hours of practice and hurried rehearsals are only a small part of the world of Lee's eighty member choir.

Their first school sponsored concert under the direction of Mr. Reid Sellers was only one of the programs given by the group at Yule time. The choir caroled at the National Bank of Commerce, Joske's, Wonderland and North Star Mall. Bright red dresses made by the girls added to the festive air of the holiday singing.

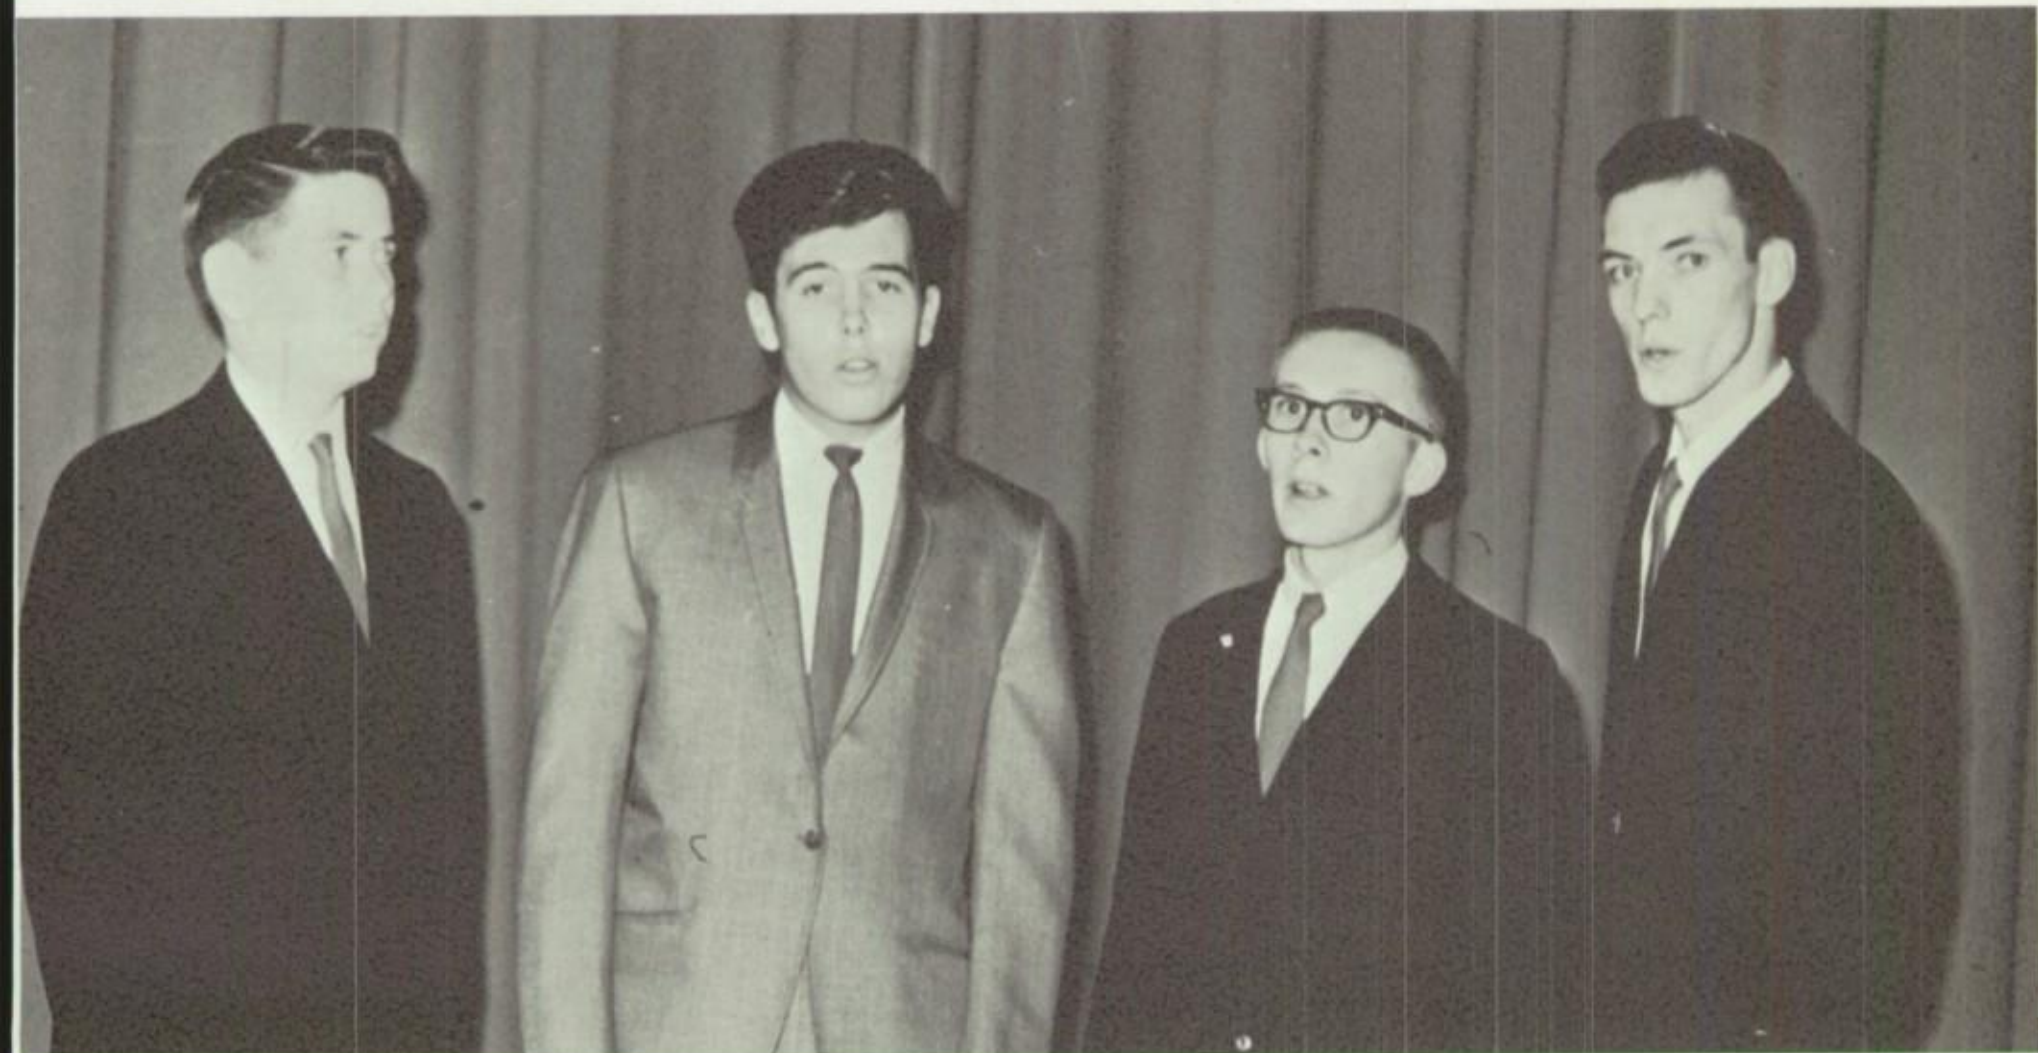

The choir's final performance of the year is at graduation exercises.

Lee had eight representatives in the Regional Choir. They were Judy O'Neill, Nancy Riddell, Vicki Davies, Nancy Tarrant, Roger Phillips, Bill Langley, Jimmy Martin and James Courtade.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid Sellers and daughter Heather enjoy one of the choir's parties.

Lee-Ette Year

The Lee-Ette World... early morning practice... spirit ribbons... pom poms... halftime routines... all are symbols of the red and gray spirit that the Lee-Ettes add to the school.

Led this year by Major Joy Wyatt and sponsored by Mrs. Doreen Forren, the Lee-Ettes promoted spirit in many phases of school life.

Sacrifice is the key word as Lee-Ettes can be found decorating the halls or practicing routines long after the 3:35 bell has rung.

Major Joy Wyatt leads the Pep Squad in a yell during one of the afternoon pep rallies.

Taking her place in the stands with her fellow Lee-Ettes is Glenna Japhet.

Dinah Denson, Patti Wolf, Kathy Beevers and Ginger Langholz, with the help of Bernie Sanders, put up one of the posters for the Edison game.

Joy Wyatt calls the drill squad to attention during one of the many early morning practices.

A tradition established and carried on by Lee-Ettes is the opening of sports events with the Alma Mater.

Practicing a halftime routine before school are Lee-Ettes Giner Cone and Donna Belknap.

A Lee-Ette cheering section is always a welcome sight at Volunteer sports events.

Jeff McCurdy and Beth Conner take advantage of the refreshments.

Lee-Ettes Give Dance To Honor Volunteers

The Lee-Ettes honored the 1964-65 varsity football and basketball squads with the annual Dixie Hoe Down.

This year the dance was held off campus for the first time at Aggie Park. Music was furnished by the "Circle C." Western attire added to the atmosphere.

Tired from the western activities, Lee-ites take a break and sit this dance out.

Jill Thrift and Bill Knippa take time out from the activities to talk to Mr. Weldon Forren.

Presidents Doug Hall, Chuck Crenshaw, Barry Whitehead, Bob Hartong and Dinah Denson listen as the other officers are introduced at the annual Key Club Leadership Banquet.

Officers, Sponsors Vital To Key Club Activities

Mr. Charles Holden, sponsor, discusses future club plans with officers Johnny Jamagin and Steve Rice.

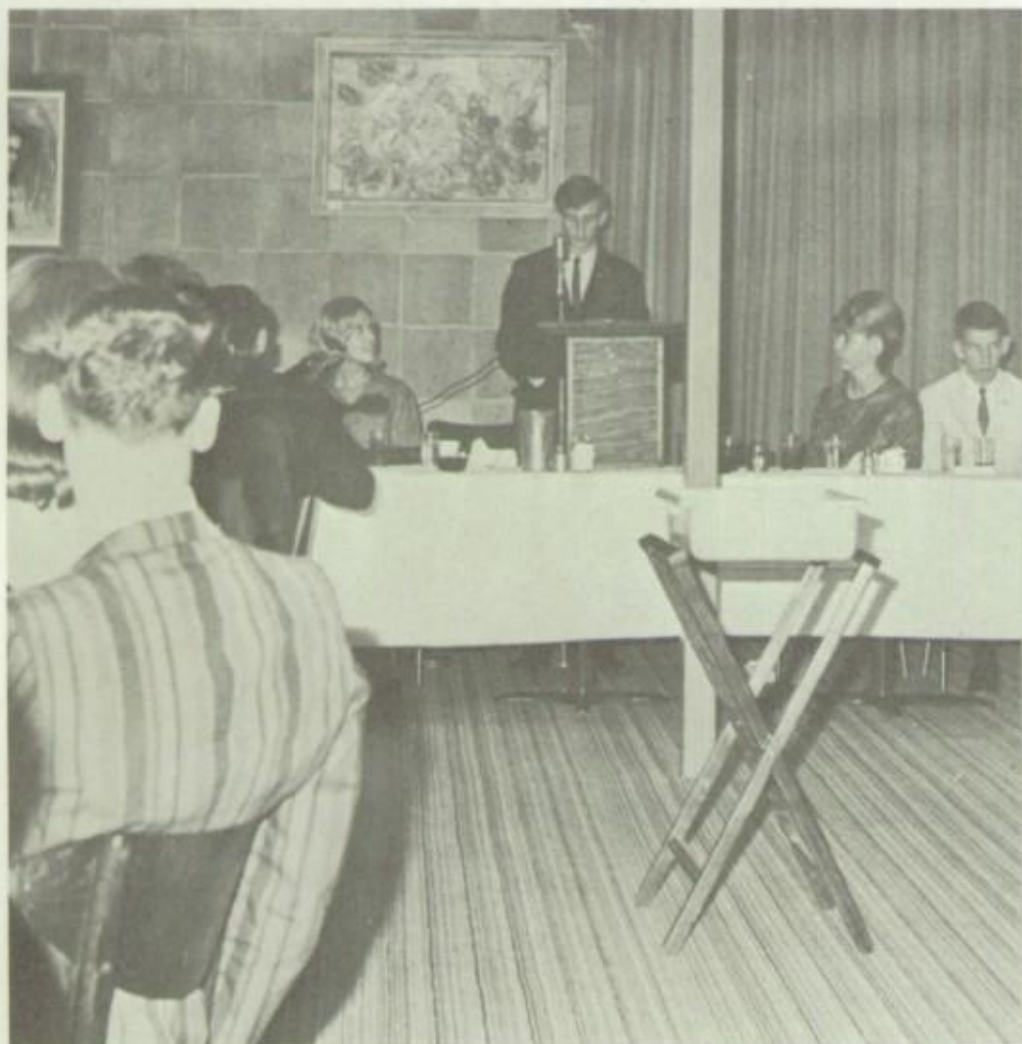

Key Club officers Johnny Jamagin, Bernie Sanders, Steve Rice and John Caldwell give their stamp of approval for last year's class gift.

Key Club Holds Annual Leadership Banquet

Dr. C. B. Jackson, Key Club guest speaker, discusses community activities with Lee leaders before dinner.

Fletcher Clark, Lt. Governor of Division 5, Tex-Oklahoma Key Club District, welcomes guests to the Leadership Banquet.

Senior Karen Balliew reigns as Key Club Sweetheart. Karen was crowned at the annual Holiday Ball.

President Bernie Sanders led the Key Club activities for the 1964-65 school year under the supervision of Mr. Charles Holden. The highlight of the year's activities was the Leadership Banquet where Dr. C. B. Jackson, personal doctor for the United States astronauts, was guest speaker.

Other activities of Key Club included decorating the main hall prior to sports events, helping with the P.-T.A. Mexican supper and the annual spring Parent Appreciation Week held at Lee and electing the Club Sweetheart at the Sweetheart Ball.

Rick Thiesen, Spike Spoons and Jack Rogers paint parking lot stripes with the supervision of other industrious Key Club members.

Richard Rosen, Danny Bell, Charles Masters and Bernie Sanders contribute their time to decorate the main hall before each football game.

Bernie Sanders and Rick Thiesen will go to any means to show school spirit.

*Three FBLA Members Merit
State, District, School Gavel*

For the first time in the school's history, Lee boasts three FBLA Presidents -- Lin Bannowski serves as District President, Doug Hall as Chapter President and Sherry Alexander as State President.

Linda Dunn and Pat Thompson discuss their selling technique that gained them the honor of top saleswomen in the FBLA candy sale.

Service, education and progress represent the aims of Lee High's Future Business Leaders of America. Under the supervision of Mrs. Ruth Hicks and Miss Rebecca Barstis, FBLA has brought home many honors to the "Home of Champions."

Sherry Alexander and Linda Bannowski captured the offices of state president and district president while at home Senior Doug Hall leads the school chapter of FBLA. Carmen Yoshida was elected to the office of vice-president for the coming year at the District Convention at Trinity University.

Other Lee FBLA officers are Vice-president Lynn Polunsky, Secretary Karen Shoup, Treasurer Roxanne Choate, Chaplain Richard Poules, Reporter Carmen Yoshida and Historian Betty Morris.

Service projects and candy sales highlighted the club year as all 79 members participated. FBLA'ers helped to type March of Dimes envelopes and sponsor Lee's Career Day, begun here at Lee and now adopted by other area business clubs.

Monna Ethridge persuades Anne-Marie Verstagen to buy a piece of candy.

Working on Lee's prize-winning scrapbook for the State Convention are Miss Rebecca Barstis, FBLA sponsor, and Betty Morris.

Sales, Projects Theme FBLA Year

Senior Sandy Palma volunteers her services for a future FBLA project.

Loaded down with project candy, Kay Pettinos, begins her selling campaign.

Officers Doug Hall, Betty Morris, Carmen Yoshida, Roxanne Choate, Karen Shoup, Lynne Polunsky and Richard Poules discuss the program for a coming meeting.

Chuck DeWitt and Mike Douglas participate in one of the many YFC skits presented at weekly meetings.

Nancy Lyle, Judy O'Neill and Nancy Tarrant teach songs to YFC members.

Making their debut at Lee this year was Youth for Christ, sponsored by Mrs. Lois Obrecht.

Led by President Chuck DeWitt and Vice presidents Tom Lanier and Nancy Lyle, YFC's main objective is to perpetuate Christian fellowship on campus and to promote Christian activities.

YFC meetings featured skits composed and acted out by members, guest speakers and group singing.

Group singing at YFC meetings is led by Don Currie and Pat Burke.

YFC Aims at Christian Fellowship

Guest Speaker, Mr. Bob Jackson, insurance salesman, discusses the problems of Christian teenagers with YFC-ers.

Officers Tom Lanier, Nancy Lyle and Chuck DeWitt prepare the comedy skit that was presented at the afternoon meeting.

Active YFC members prepare for the meeting while looking over the business agenda.

FSA Hosts Alamo District Science Fair

Peter Williams, Miss Ruth Tatum and Judy Hanson discuss the Science Fair program.

Future Scientists of America is a national organization of students who have demonstrated above average interest and ability in scientific fields.

Lee program meetings have featured outstanding scientists, student talks and field trips.

Members participate in such extra-curricular activities as science project work, summer institutes for high-ability students and the Ford Foundation FSA awards.

Major projects for the 1964-65 year included assisting with the direction of the Alamo District Science Fair held at Lee, March 12, 13, 14, and sponsorship of a science assembly program on March 30.

FSA officers of the 1964-65 year are President, Cathy Warren, Vice president, Eddie Smith, Secretary, Mary Larsen, Treasurer, Peter Williams, Reporter, Judy Hanson and FS representative, Sandy Killey.

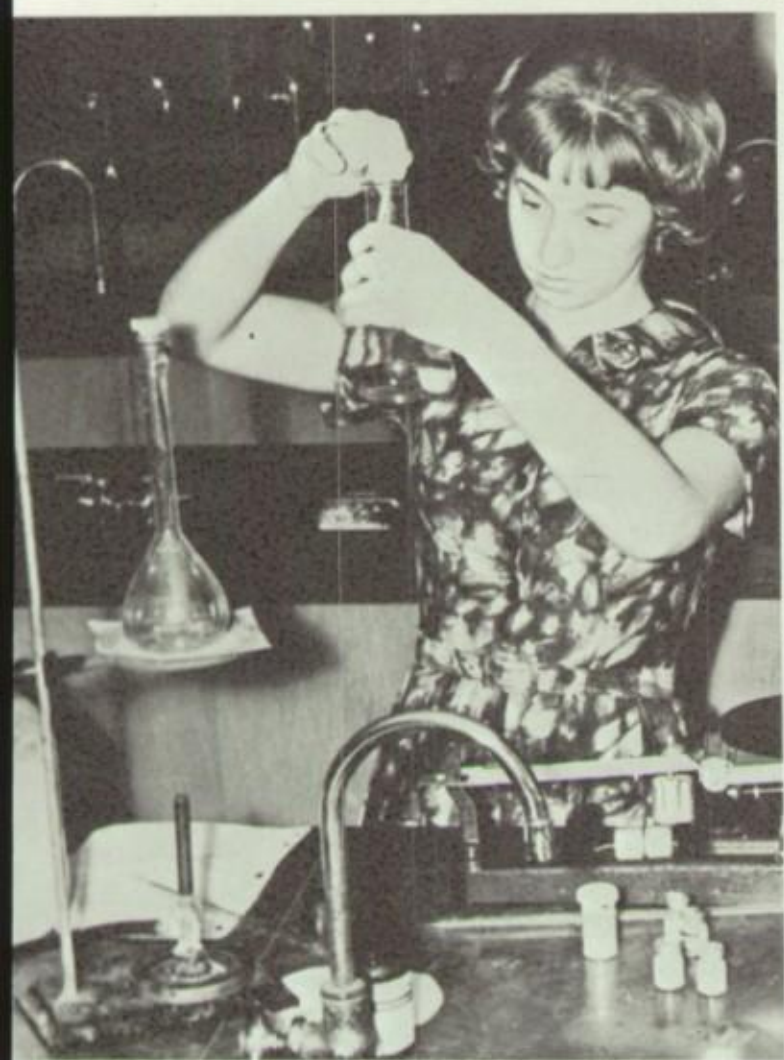

FSA sponsors are Miss Ruth Tatum and Mr. John Porter.

Carol Cone examines an agar slide.

Fascinated by one of Mr. John Porter's Physics project, FSA officers Mary Larsen, Eddie Smith, Cathy Warren and Sandy Killey, inspect the apparatus.

For her Science Fair project on Bacterial Genetics, Mary Larsen prepares an experimental culture medium.

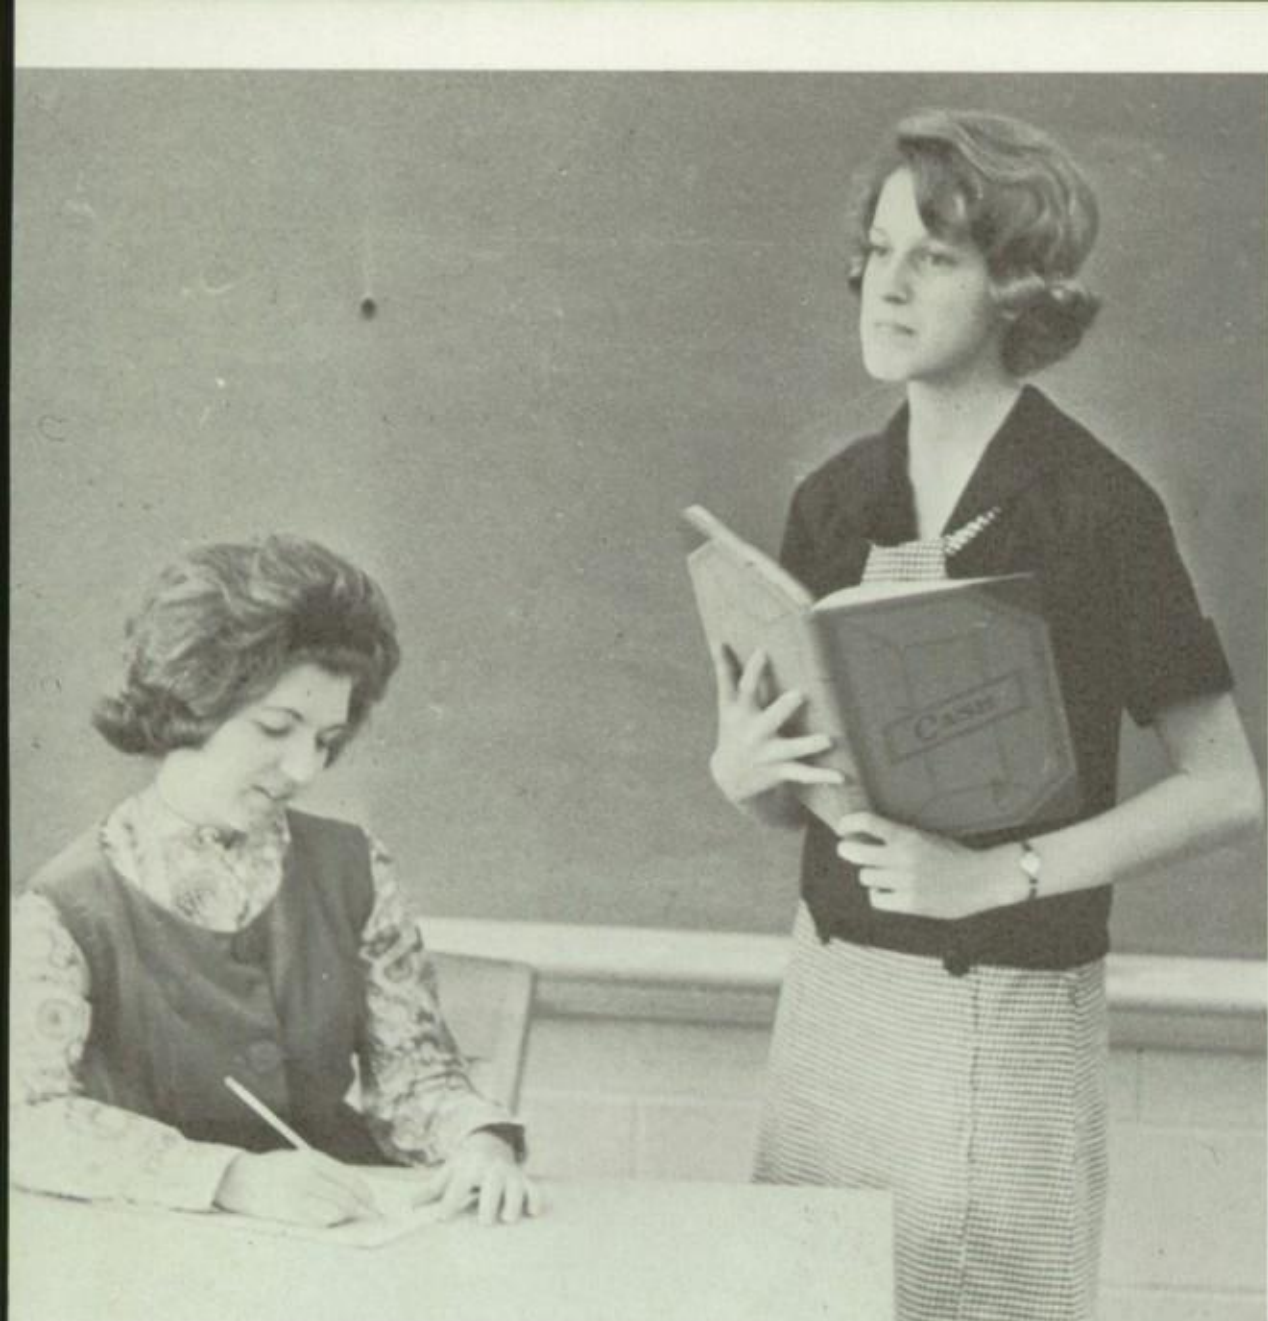

Pam Hall takes a germ sample from the throat of Keith Wurzbach as part of her project on micro-organisms.

Mr. Luther Hartman, Fair Director, and Ken Emert discuss Science Fair prizes. Ken took first place in last year's fair with his project on cancer and mice.

Lana Luersen, FTA secretary, takes notes as Ruth Billings, treasurer, gives the financial report.

Kathy Kenagy, vice president and Cindy Haner, president take a poll of members going to the State Convention.

FTA Year Symbolizes 'Explorers in Progress'

FTA minor officers are Joan Roberts, chaplain, Cindy Droll, parliamentarian, Sara Johnson, reporter, Shirley Coleman, historian and Pam Hall, merit secretary.

Student observation day forms are being filled out by FTA members.

Americans Abroad returnee, Peter Williams, shows films to FTA members.

Mrs. Janis Biggerstaff

Mrs. Dorothy Minnick

The Future Teachers of America is a Service Club which endeavors to project interest in the teaching profession. This year's activities revolve around the theme "Explorers in Progress."

As in past years FTA members ushered at the P-TA Open House, attended the district convention in Fredericksburg and the state convention in Houston in March and graded papers for service merits. Junior Andrea Arnold, Lee's representative to the district convention, won second place in the Miss FTA contest.

New to the FTA this year, Mrs. Janis Biggerstaff joined Mrs. Dorothy Minnick as co-sponsor.

The 1964-65 officers are President Cindy Haner, Vice president Kathy Kenagy, Secretary Lana Lueresen and Treasurer Ruth Billings.

Active Sportsters Keep Physically Fit

With so much stress placed on physical fitness, it is no wonder that the Girls Recreation Association plans such an active year.

Headed by President Anne Burney and sponsored by Miss Challie Thornton, the girls participate in a variety of sports from archery to bowling.

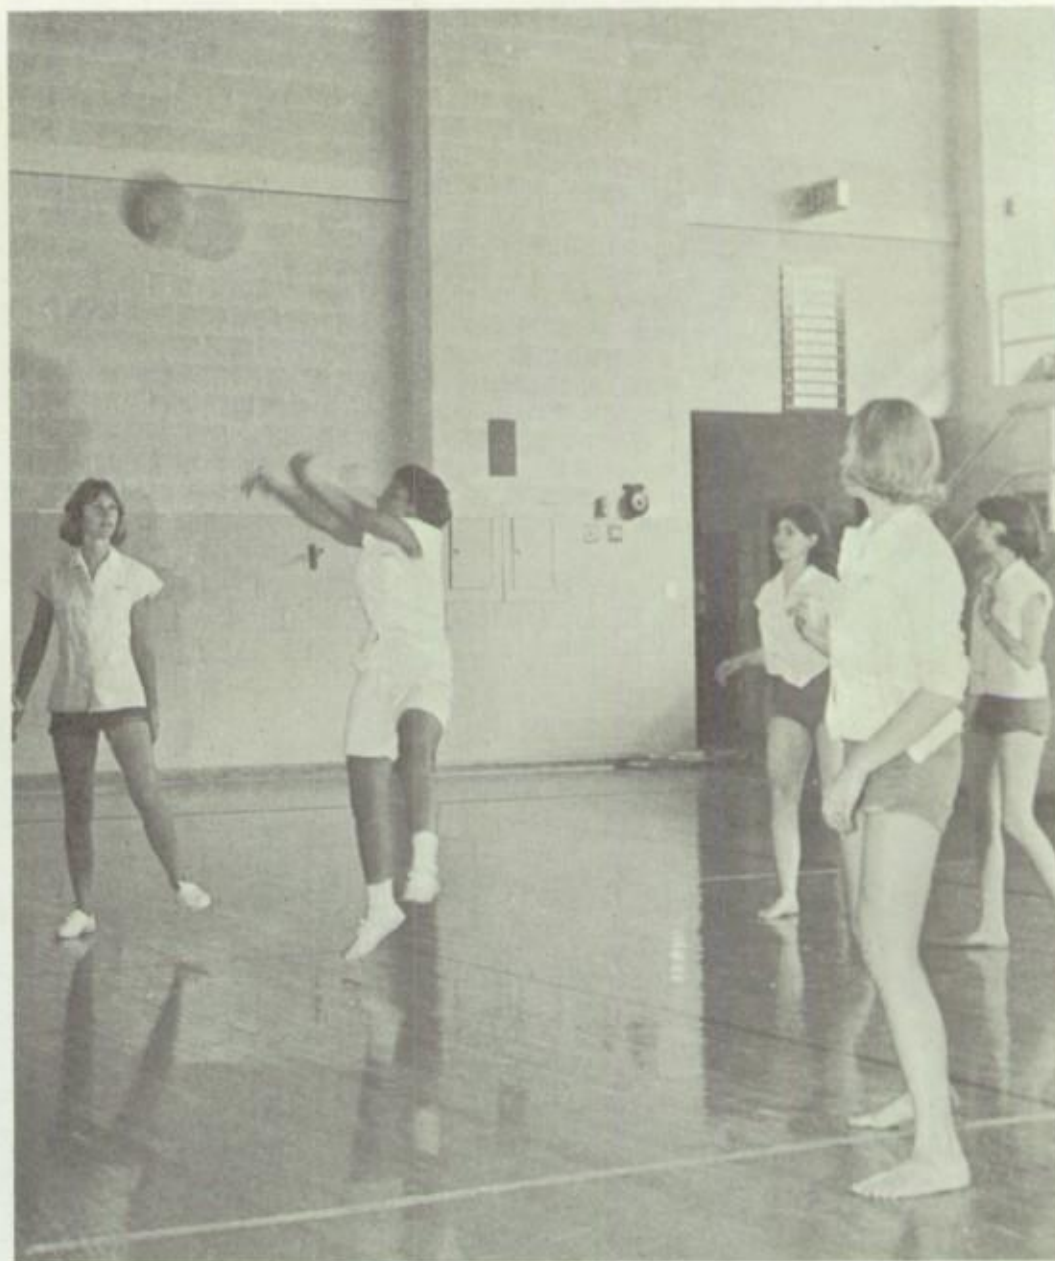

An annual money-making candy sale and an end of the year banquet highlight the GRA year.

Junior Ruth Beard enjoys a GRA bowling session.

Sharon Bonner, Paula Riddle and Barbara Jackson prepare for an archery session.

Basketball is one of the many sports in which GRA-ers participate.

Keeping equipment in order is one of the duties of GRA Sponsor Challie Thorton.

A sunny afternoon is the perfect time for a volleyball play session.

Diane Dunn, Mrs. Willda Gafford and Diane Harley discuss the opportunities of a nursing career.

The Future Nurses of America wishes to interest high school students in a career of nursing.

FNA projects this year included hospital tours, guest speakers, an installation banquet for new officers and the sale of Robert E. Lee stationery.

Heading the FNA officers is Diane Dunn, president, with Joan Dornak, secretary, Mary Nathman, treasurer and Diane Harley, historian.

Mrs. Willda Gafford is FNA sponsor.

Looking over the different types of nursing uniforms are Joan Dornak, Diane Dunn and Mary Nathman.

Joan Dornak and Craig Stauffer deliver a gift via Candy Striper Diane Dunn to give a sick friend at Methodist Hospital.

Learn of Nurses' Working Day

Selling stationery comes easy for Joanne Uhr.

Diane Dunn answers the phone while Howard Buehring and Carla Hauffe check a patient's chart.

Mr. Bruce D. Sorenson, assistant administrator at Methodist Hospital, shows FNA'ers Craig Stauffer, Diane Dunn, Mrs. Willda Gafford and Joan Dornak some of the hospital's facilities.

Fletcher Clark and Gerry Weatherford prepare schedules for the Lee Speech Tournament.

Preparations of Speech material and the spirit of competition make up the world of National Forensic League members. Under the instructive eye of Mr. Charlie Walker, NFL members gather material suitable for contest.

Leading the members in activities are officers Fletcher Clark, president; Paula Garver, vice president; Pam Pendergrast, secretary, and Steve Davis, treasurer.

Among the contests won by NFL were the Alamo Heights and Highlands Tournaments. The highlight of the contest year was the Trinity Speech Festival.

Many extra hours of work by Mr. Charlie Walker and Mrs. Mary Hill has made the Speech Department at Lee one of the top in the city.

Contests, Debates Occupy NFL Time

Among the Juniors active in NFL is Gerry Weatherford who is posting Speech results for Lee Tourney contestants.

Larry Witt, Joe Blanks and Fletcher Clark discuss the questions brought up at the Student Congress with Chairman Jim Higgins from Alamo Heights.

Sol Casseb, Neil Rensmeyer, Mike Stevens, Richard Rossen and Kathy Patterson served as time keepers and welcomed delegates to Lee's Tournament.

Carol Perkins looks over her Congress notes before gaining the floor.

Serving as contest judges were ex-Lee-ites Steve James and Bill Weatherford.

NFL Takes Sweepstakes

NFL officers Steve Davis, Pam Pendergrast, Fletcher Clark and Paula Garver hash over plans for the Trinity Speech Festival.

Senior NFL member Richard Jones is all ears while Mr. Walker explains the contest proceedings.

Going over contest material for radio speaking is Junior Sol Casseb.

Hay Fiestas, Piñatas y Película

Shari McGarr, Sylvia Acevedo, Patti Wolf, Ruth Billings and Becky Teehee collect Christmas presents for needy families.

Lee's Spanish Club is a special interest club wishing to learn more about the Spanish speaking countries.

Spanish Club projects this year include planting a cactus garden, bringing presents for needy children for Christmas, seeing films and hearing a speech on South America and sponsoring the annual banquet and Christmas party.

Bobby Hartong is this year's president with Dinah Denson serving as vice president, Kathy Beevers, secretary and Halleeta Hightower, treasurer.

Miss Jo Hestand and Miss Martha Taylor are Spanish Club sponsors.

Spanish Club members take part in the annual banquet at Mexi-tera.

Taking a swing at Santa, Halleeta Hightower finds that he is a slippery character.

Preparing a broken projector is the task of Sponsor Jo Hestand, President Bobby Hartong, and Doug Hall.

Amy Sue Ward, Joan Dornak, Patti Davis, Marsha Rives, Bob Prout and Beth Brown observe Spanish customs via cultural films during a regular Spanish Club meeting.

Spanish Club officers Helleta Hightower, treasurer; Kathy Beevers, secretary; and Dinah Denson, vice president, discuss future Spanish Club activities.

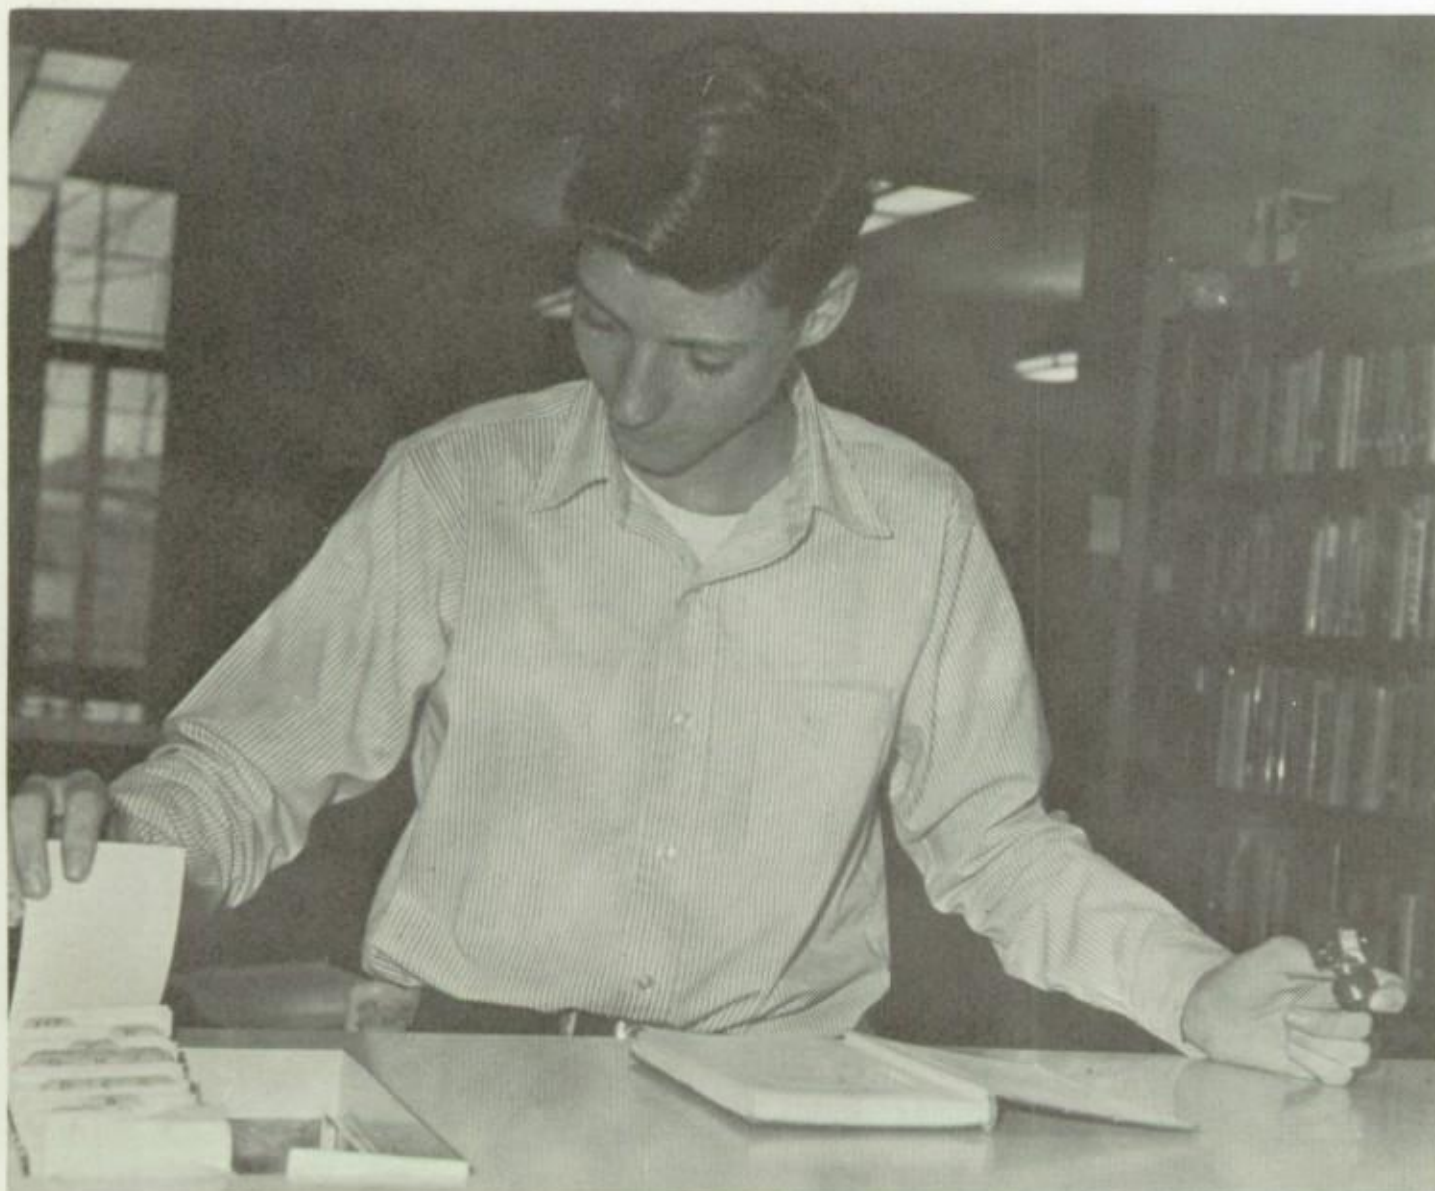

Shelving, issuing and returning books, making a special book list for college-bound students and taking books to the Santa Rosa Children's Hospital are just a few of the jobs for Lee's twenty-seven Book-Ends.

This year under the supervision of Mrs. Alta Bennet, head librarian, and Mrs. Nell Crain, secretary, the Book-Ends keep the Library in workable condition for the conveniences of students and faculty.

The officers for the 1964-65 year are President Gloria Alber, Vice president Terry Fraser and Secretary treasurer Carolyn Callaway. Book-End membership reached an all-time high this year.

Among Book-Ends that served in the Library for PTA Open House were Erich Nordloh, Sandy Lyday, Lynnea Wright and Harold Rabenaldt.

The issuing of library books is one of the many jobs of Book-End Joe Caldwell.

Book-End officers Carolyn Calloway, Karen O'Brien, Terry Fraser and Gloria Alber straighten book shelves before the library opens.

Book-Ends Break Membership Record for '65

Junior Sandy Lyday arranges the card catalog for incoming Lee-ites.

In charge of the magazine section of the library is Senior John Taylor.

FHA Sponsors Party at Children's Shelter

Executive officers Jackie Fryar, Janet Oestrich, Sandra Anderwald, Sharon Uecker and Linda Pruitt discuss plans for the State Fair trip to Dallas.

Susie Vermesch distributes toys at the Children's Shelter.

An informal initiation was held to welcome new members and beaux.

Learning to improve personal, family and community living, participating in group projects which spur companionship and co-operation, and enjoying the distinction of being one of the largest and most active organizations at Lee, are the Future Homemakers of America.

Led by this year's President Sandra Anderwald, assisted by Vice presidents Kay Sellers, Sharon Uecker, Diane Dunn and Linda Pruitt, Secretary Janet Oestreich and Treasurer Jackie Fryar, FHA'ers were under the sponsorship of Mrs. Jean Pearson, Miss LaNelle Uselton and Miss Barbara Wofford.

The FHA attended the State Fair in October, sponsored a Mother-Daughter banquet and Daddy Date night, provided the traditional Christmas tree for the main hall, threw a Valentine Party for the Children's Shelter and gave the annual Backwards Dance in March. Beaux selected by the Future Homemakers were Senior Scott McGehee, Junior Bruce Kempf and Sophomore Tim Cumiskey.

Games and toys delight the children as Susie Vermesch, Linda Pruitt, Susan Kirchoff and Sandra Hewett teach the youngsters rules of the game.

Minor officers Ginger Majors, Janet Kinder, Cheryl Anderwald, Susie Vermesch and Karen Schultz arrange a centerpiece for the cottage dining room table.

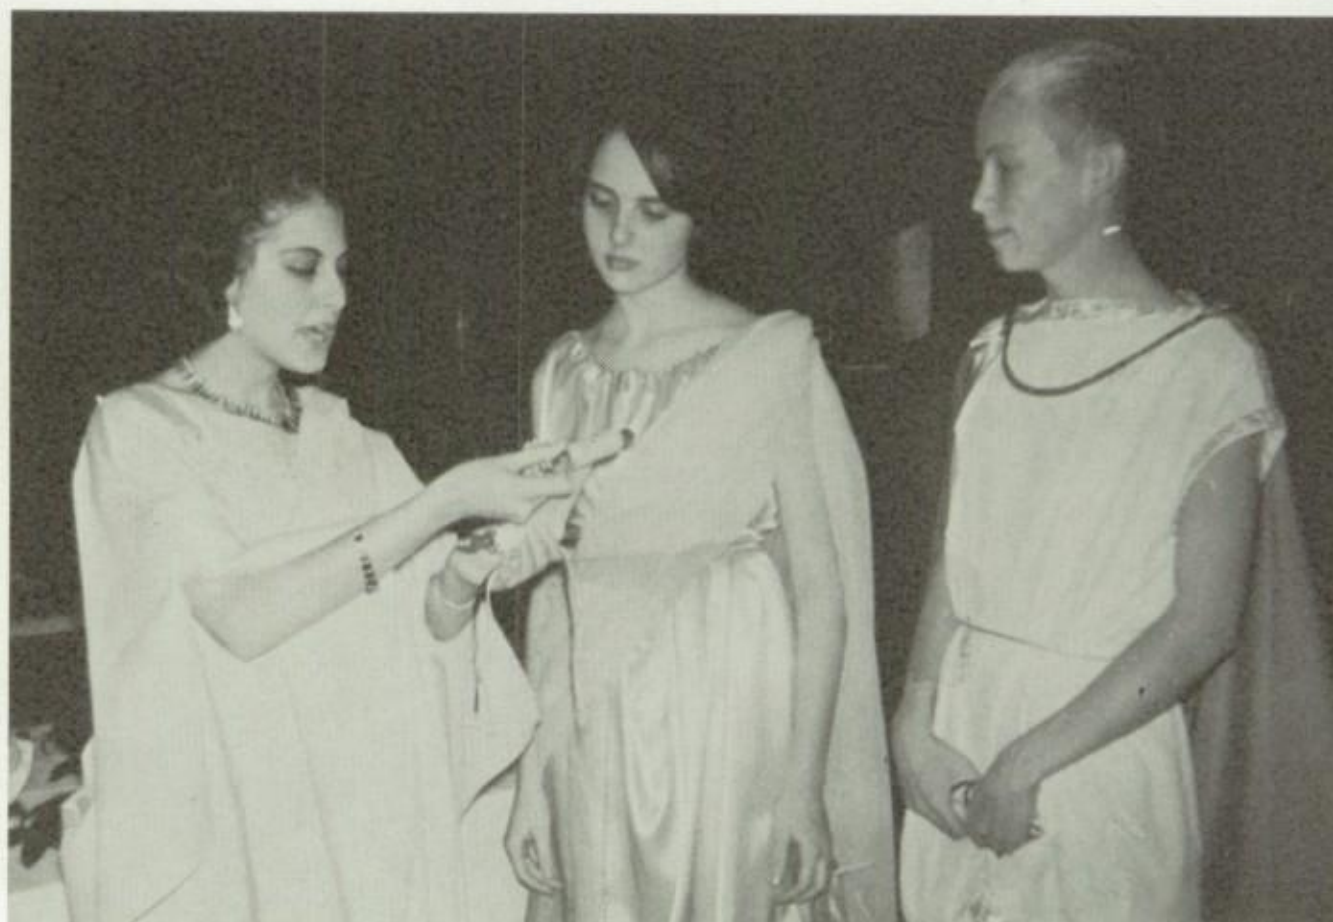

Beaux Tim Cumiskey, Bruce Kempf and Scott McGehee help Susie Vermesch and Cheryl Anderwald decorate the FHA Christmas tree in the main hall.

JCL Promotes Greek, Roman Cultures

President Pamela Gorham addresses the JCL meeting.

At the Saturnalia banquet Pamela Gorham declares Pat Hutto and Doug Hall as the most authentically dressed Roman girl and boy.

Brett Williams, Regina Bibendi, and Charles Porter, Rex Bibendi, begin festivities with the traditional toast.

Mrs. Norva Loyd, JCL sponsor, is new to Lee this year.

Original Roman customs highlighted this year's agenda of National Junior Classical League activities.

Led by Pam Gorham, president, and Mrs. Norva Loyd, sponsor, the Latin Club held an authentic Saturanalia banquet with fingers being the only eating utensils. A slave sale, initiation, comedy skit and statues comprised the banquet festivities. Reigning over the ceremonies were Rex Bibendi Charles Porter and Regina Bibendi Brett Williams. Authentic costume awards were presented to Doug Hall and Pat Hutto.

Romanized activities ranging from a Latin "Name That Tune" session to Latin Talent shows to filmstrips featuring Roman myths and such great stars as Sophia Loren were held at each regular meeting.

Ending the year was a trip to Waco with Mr. Donald Jones, Latin instructor and sponsor, for the annual Texas State Junior Classical League Convention where the Latin Club represented Lee in the scrapbook, oratory, poetry, costume and dramatic reading contests.

Distributive Education students Terri Call, Ernie Caldwell, Bruce King and Sheryl Denn admire the DECA display during National DECA Week, Nov. 8-14.

Before school gatherings give DECA students the chance to get together.

DECA's Zinsmeyer State, Local President

The hustle, bustle and work of school gets to be a burden for most of the students at Lee. Distributive Education Clubs of America students have the added responsibility of working afternoons while attending classes in the morning.

DECA is a community project between the local merchants and the surrounding high schools. The cooperation of these two groups makes it possible for students to earn and learn at the same time.

Lee's DECA President Glenn Zinsmeyer holds both local and state offices.

Demonstrating the motor's effectiveness to a local customer is part of Landis Cervenka's job.

Salesmanship technique comes in handy in Wayne Cooper's job.

New this year to Lee and DECA is Mr. George Lowther who assists Mr. Oppelt in DECA sponsorship.

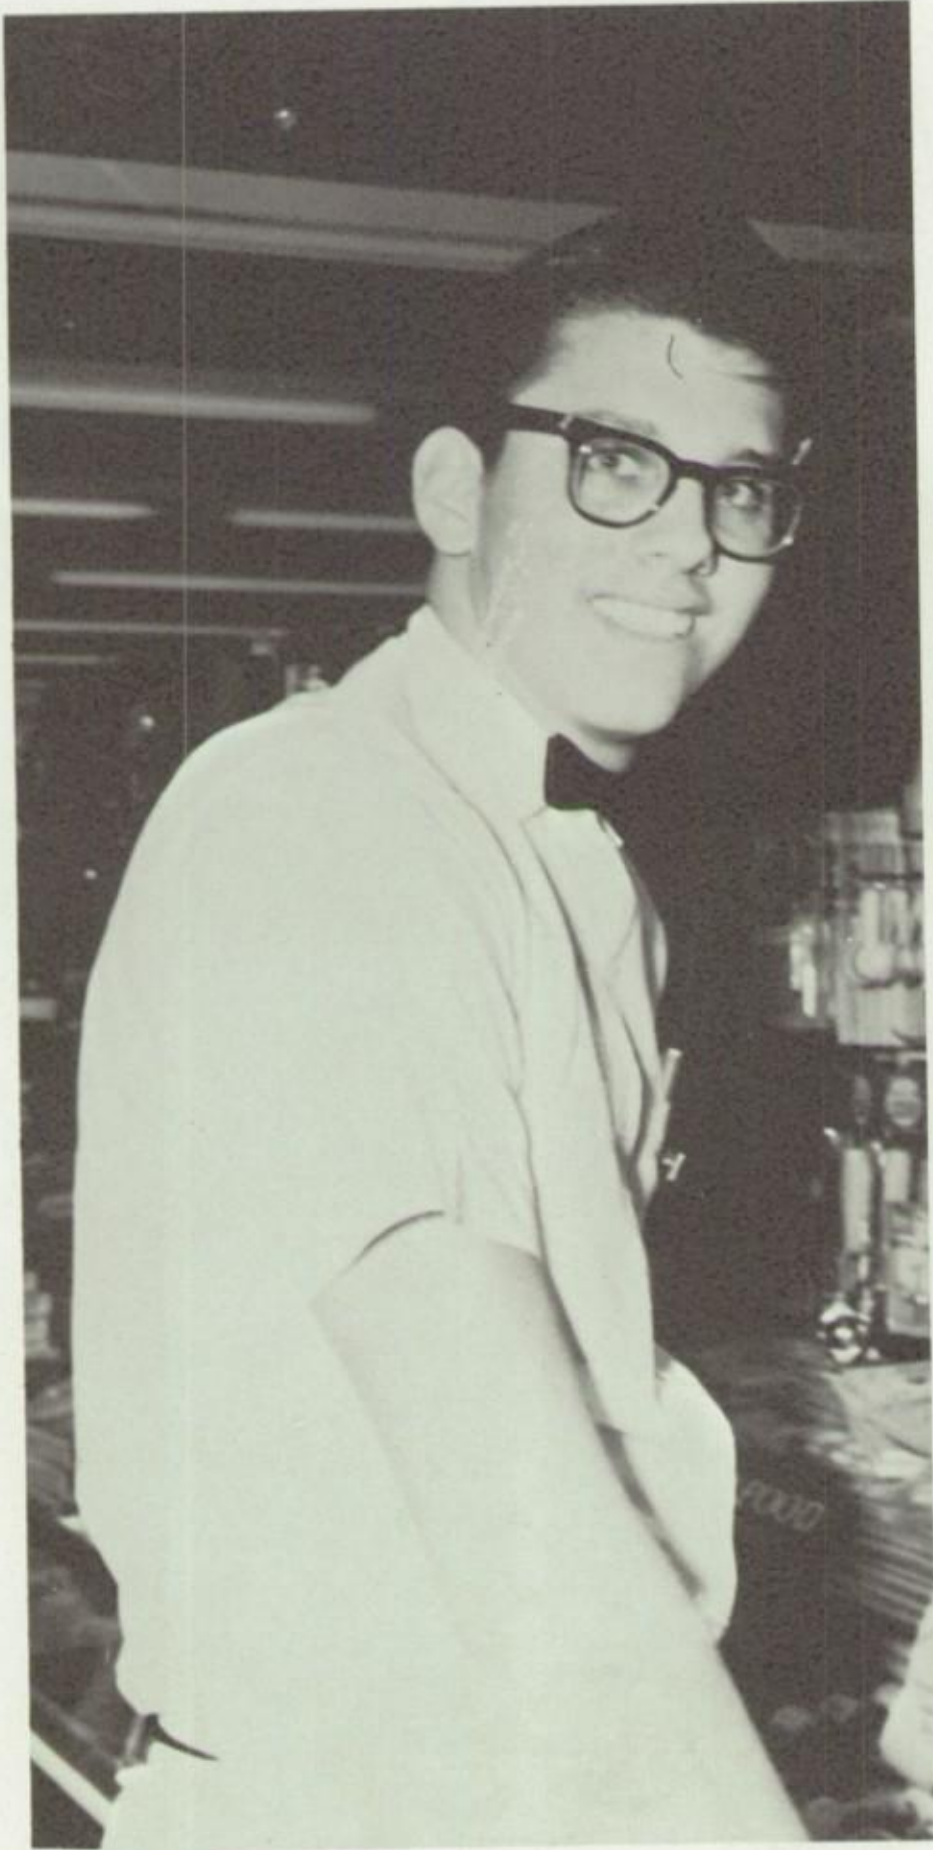

Sharon Purvis, Chapter Sweetheart, will compete for state title.

The Guiding Light for DECA members is Mr. James Oppelt who confers with students about their school and working schedule.

DECA Students Divide Time Between Work, School Projects

Handy Andy employee Doug Richie assembles the frozen foods, one of his many jobs as a DECA student.

The transaction of money and the checking out of purchases is the responsibility of Sandy Jones as cashier.

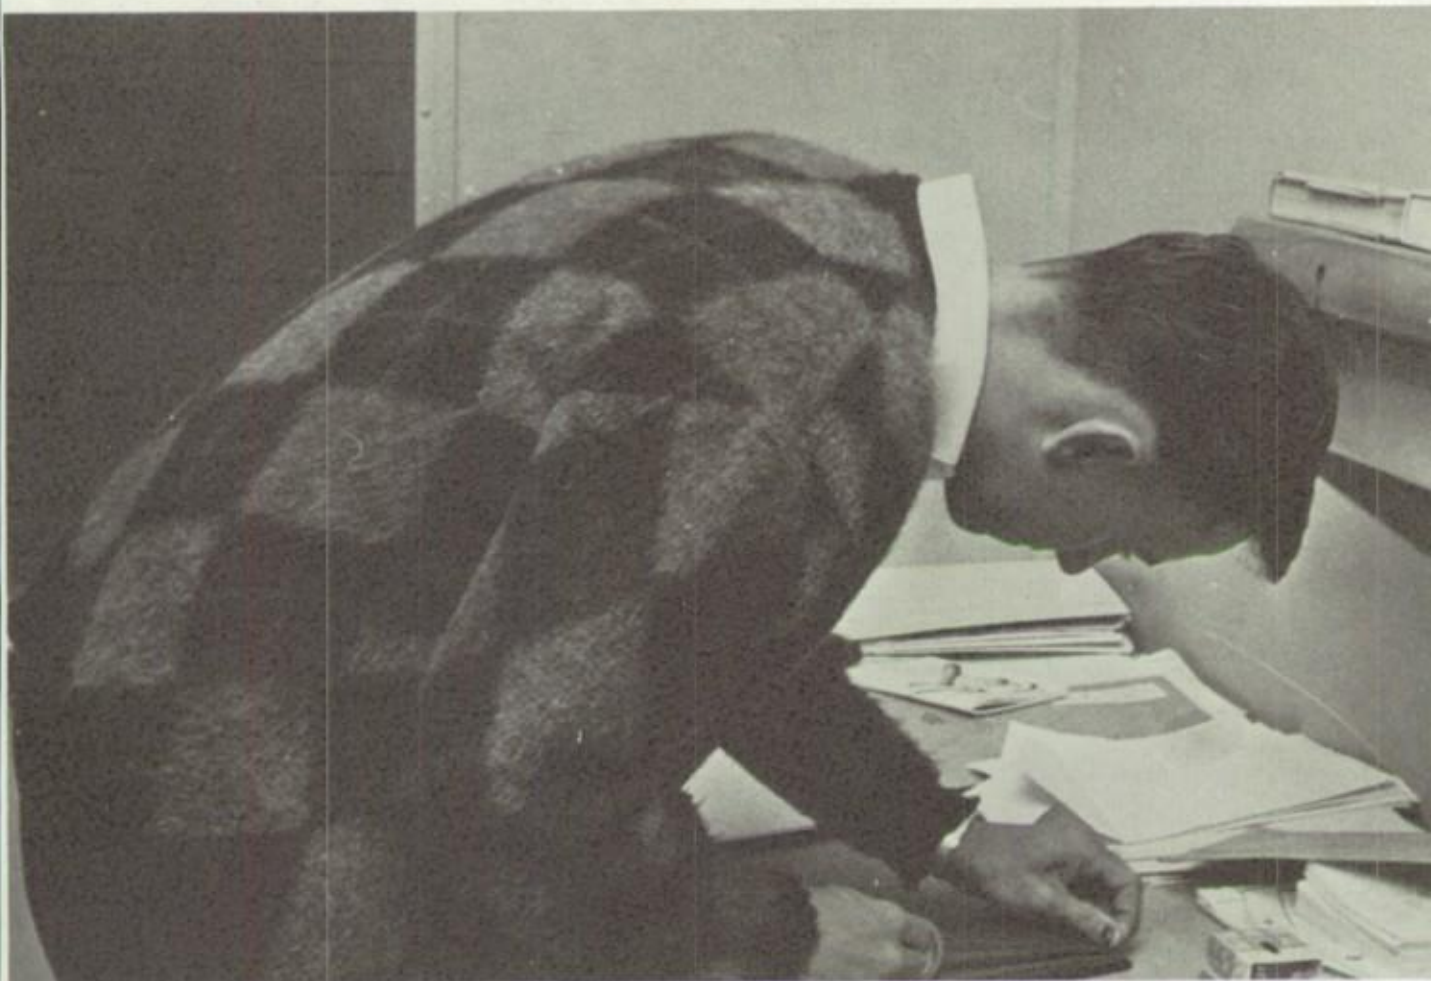

Ray Weaverling, George Lowther, Jr. and Eric Constantin discuss future DECA plans at a night work session.

During their night work session, Alan Abernathy and James Courtade take a break.

George Lowther, Jr., Mike Power, Sandy Jones and Alan Abernathy prepare for the State Convention to be held at Houston.

DECA Students Receive Professional Experience

DECA member Mike Power works late at school getting club information assembled for files.

The DECA chapter of Robert E. Lee High this year is led by local and state President Glenn Zinsmeyer under the supervision of Mr. James Oppelt and Mr. George Lowther.

Lee-ite Glenn Zinsmeyer not only being state and local President led the state delegation to Chicago. Glenn has been given a scholarship to the Leadership Institute and voted Outstanding Student in Business and Industry. Glenn was on the Attorney General's Youth Conference where he gave the key note address. Glenn has proven himself an outstanding student in every phase of school activities.

Senior Vicki Meredith chooses the appropriate dress for the occasion.

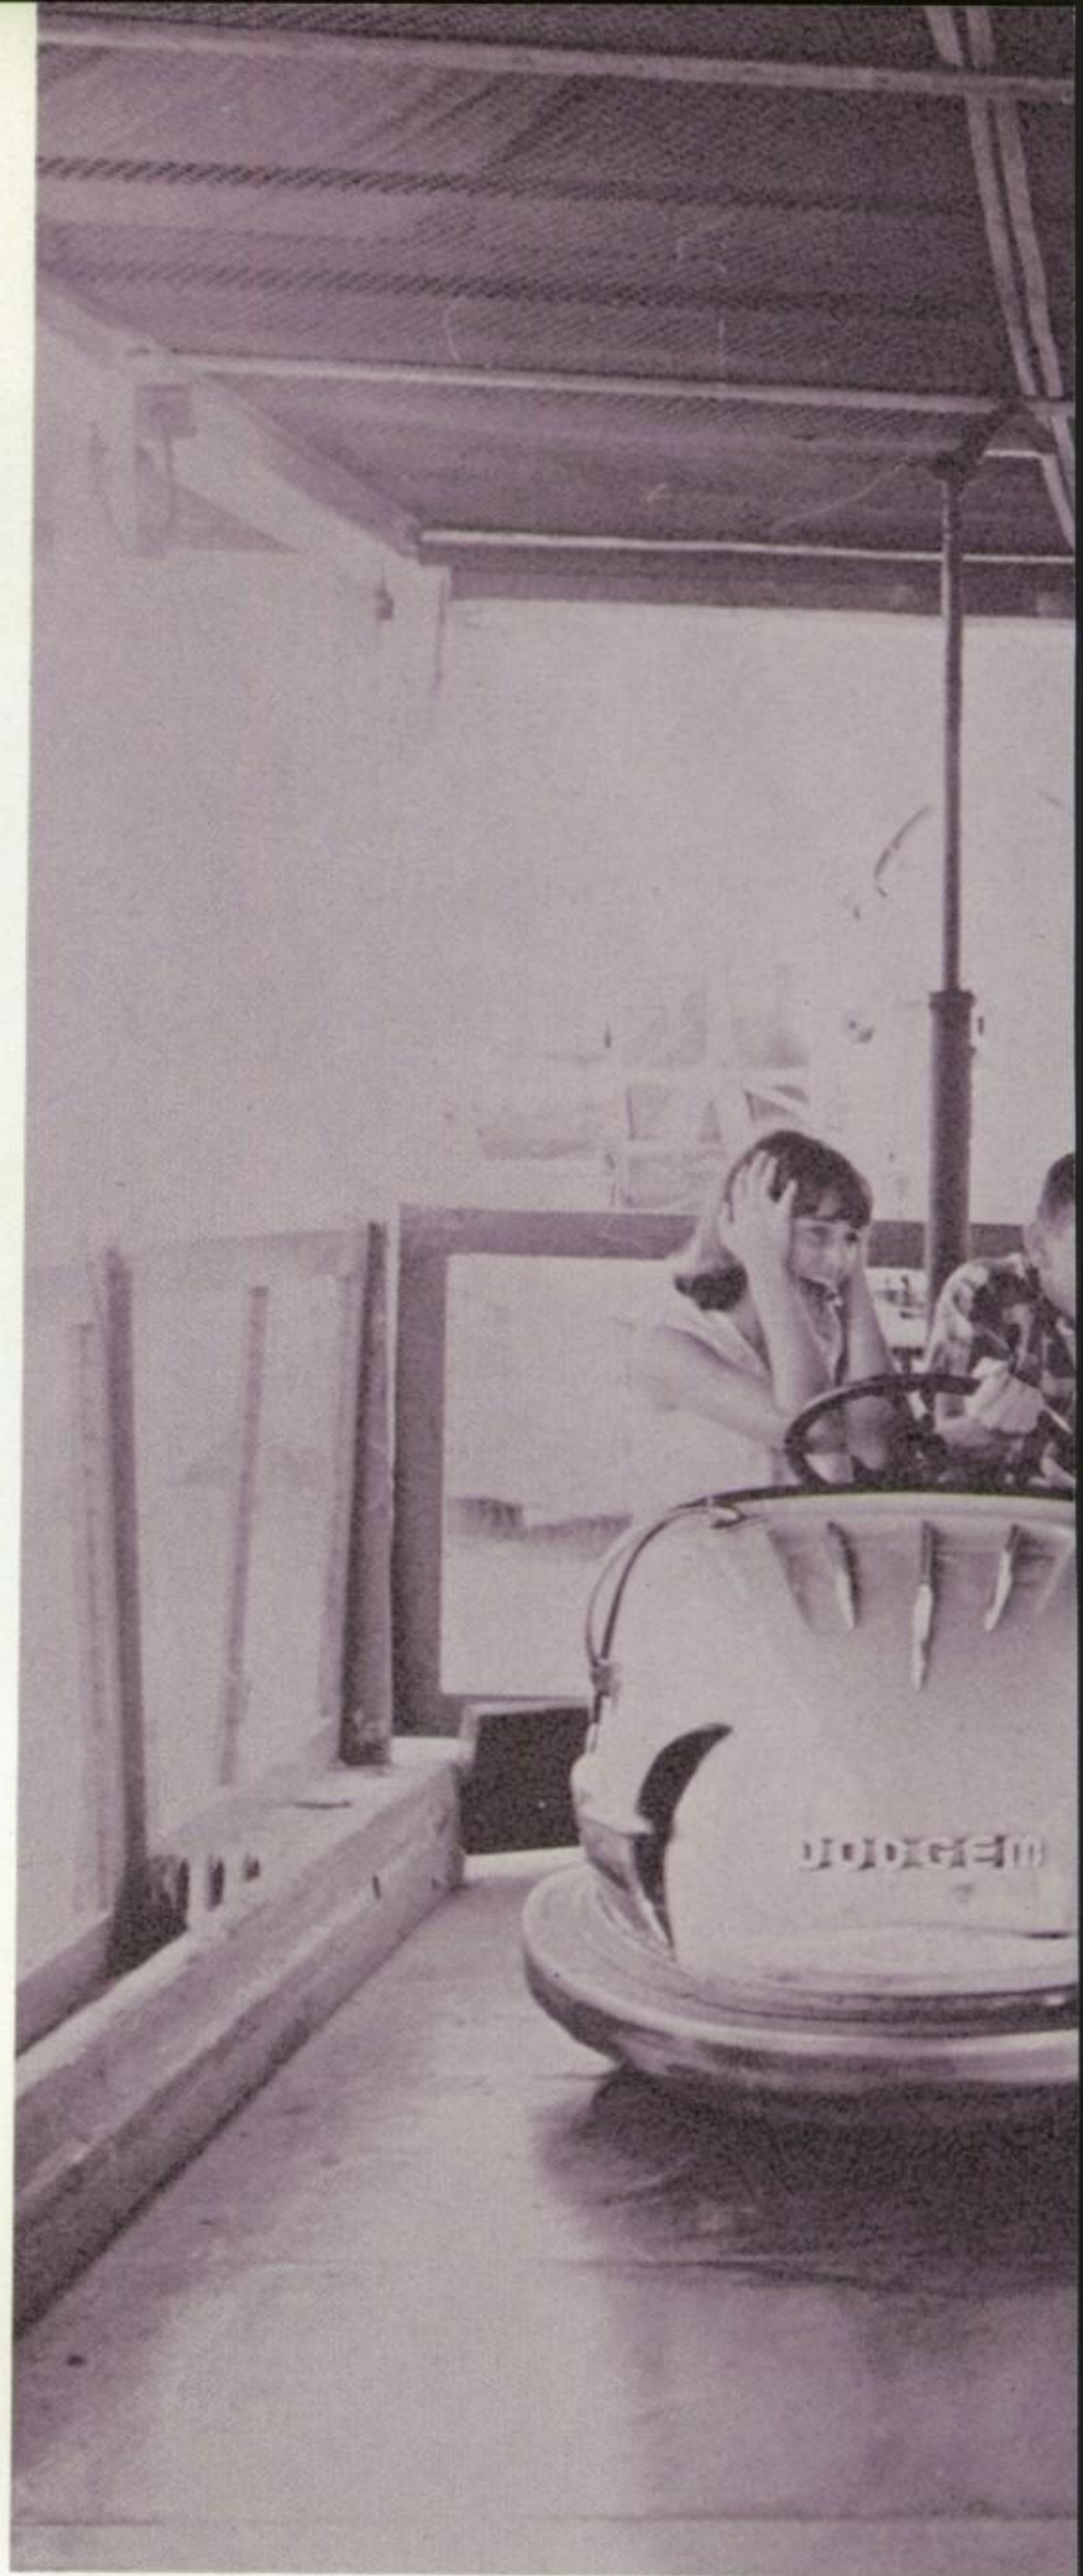

FEATURES

Features are the show case for the fun side of Lee activities and the most memorable moments of 1965--foreign students, proms, Stratford Ball and talent show.

It is in this section that Lee-ites can shed their sophistication or add to it and become a vital and living part of Lee. Seniors and juniors no longer traditionally begrudge each other while having fun.

After school, play and work also show the world of laughter--the light side of Lee life.

Lee-ites, Those Who Think Fun

Features Editors: Ann Gossett
Cheryl Miller

Kids Krave

When teens tire of movies, pizza and football games, they search for new escapades.

Lee-ites, especially, treasure their privilege to mar their faces with strands of cotton candy and splotches of mustard. When the weather is warm, the carnival is hot.

Where else could a teen roar like a lion or laugh like a hyena and still remain in the human race? There's no doubt that the true synonym for fun is "carnival."

"Oh boy!" is all Ronnie can muster as he and Jerry wait for their ride to begin.

Reinforcing their confidence with "oohs" and covered eyes, Lee-ites make their trip to the carnival complete with a breath-taking ride on the roller coaster.

Karnivals

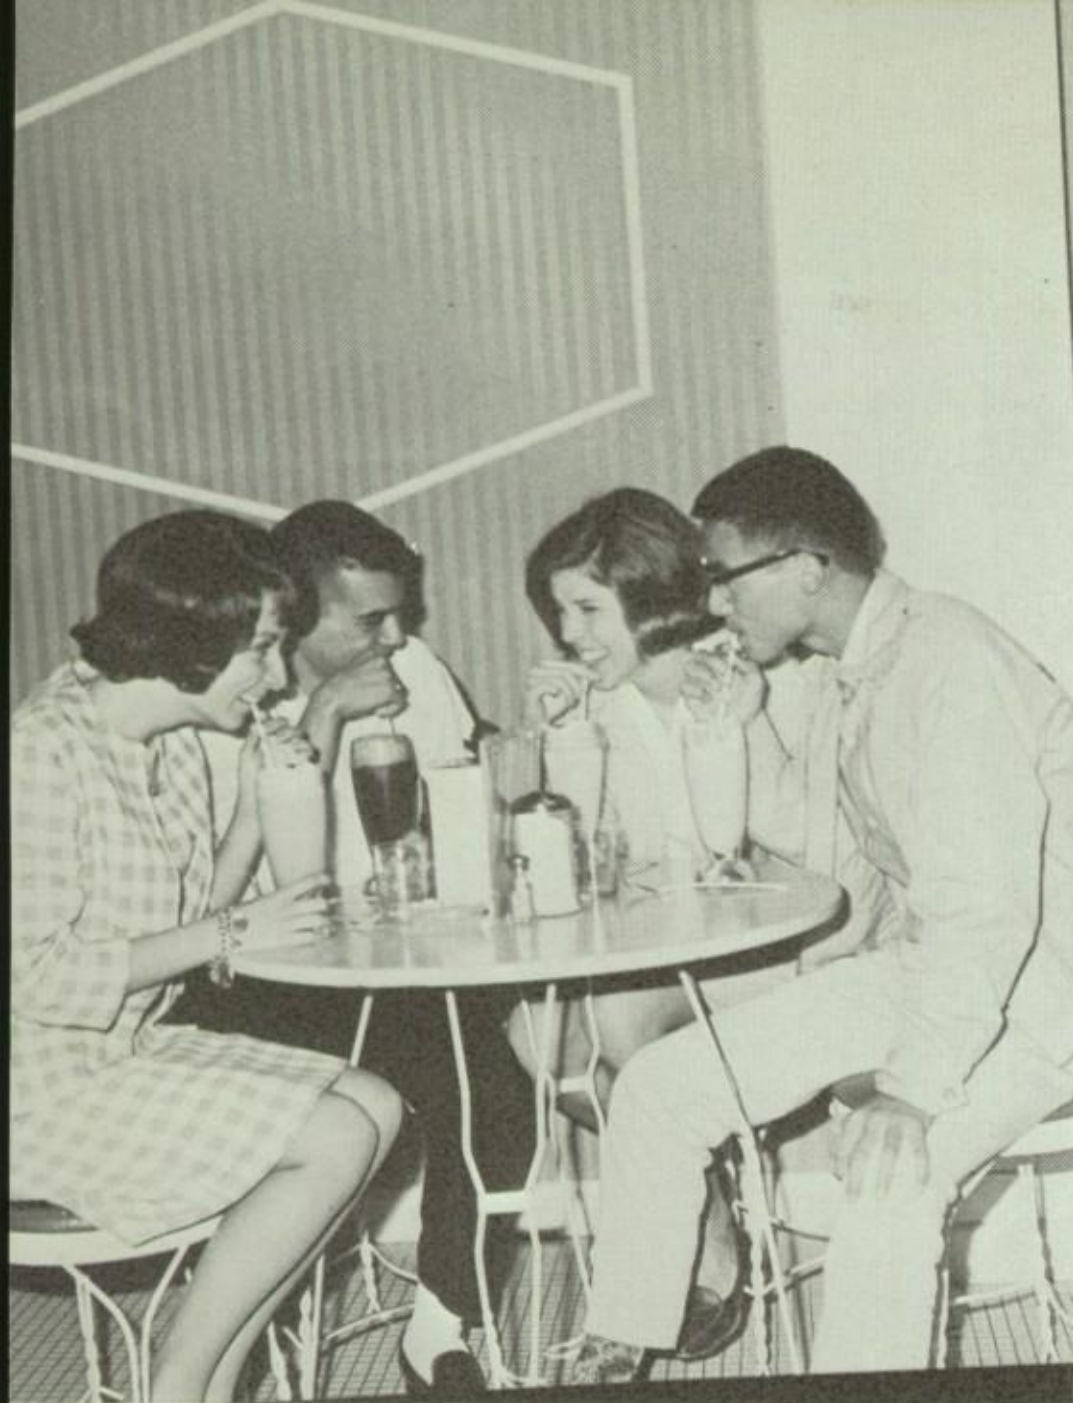

Kathy Stipp tries hard to win a bowl of fish at the carnival as Bob Jennings, Dean Bandy, Jerry Weatherford, Ronnie Howard, Bengie Spangue and Cynthia Specia attempt to aid by giving moral support.

Kathy, Ronnie, Jerry and Larry board the merry-go-round in an attempt to bring back their childhood days.

Dean, Cynthia and Kathy prove that going around in circles really can be fun--as long as it's at the carnival.

Lee-ites Cheryl Miller, Brazos Guido and Ann Gossett treat Kazuchan to his first milk shake.

Kazuchan points out his hometown in Japan to his American family Tommy, Mrs. Currie, Mr. Currie, Jane and Don.

Already a horseback riding fan, Kazuchan enjoys a ride Texas style.

Kazuchan Calls Texas 'Wide and Independent'

In the strange new world of pep rallies and hall jams, Foreign Student Kazuchan Mihara has left his mark. Equipped with an English-Japanese dictionary and a boundless wonder at the wildness of it all, he ran with the rebel flag at football games, wrote a column for the BUGLE CALL and made himself a part of each of us.

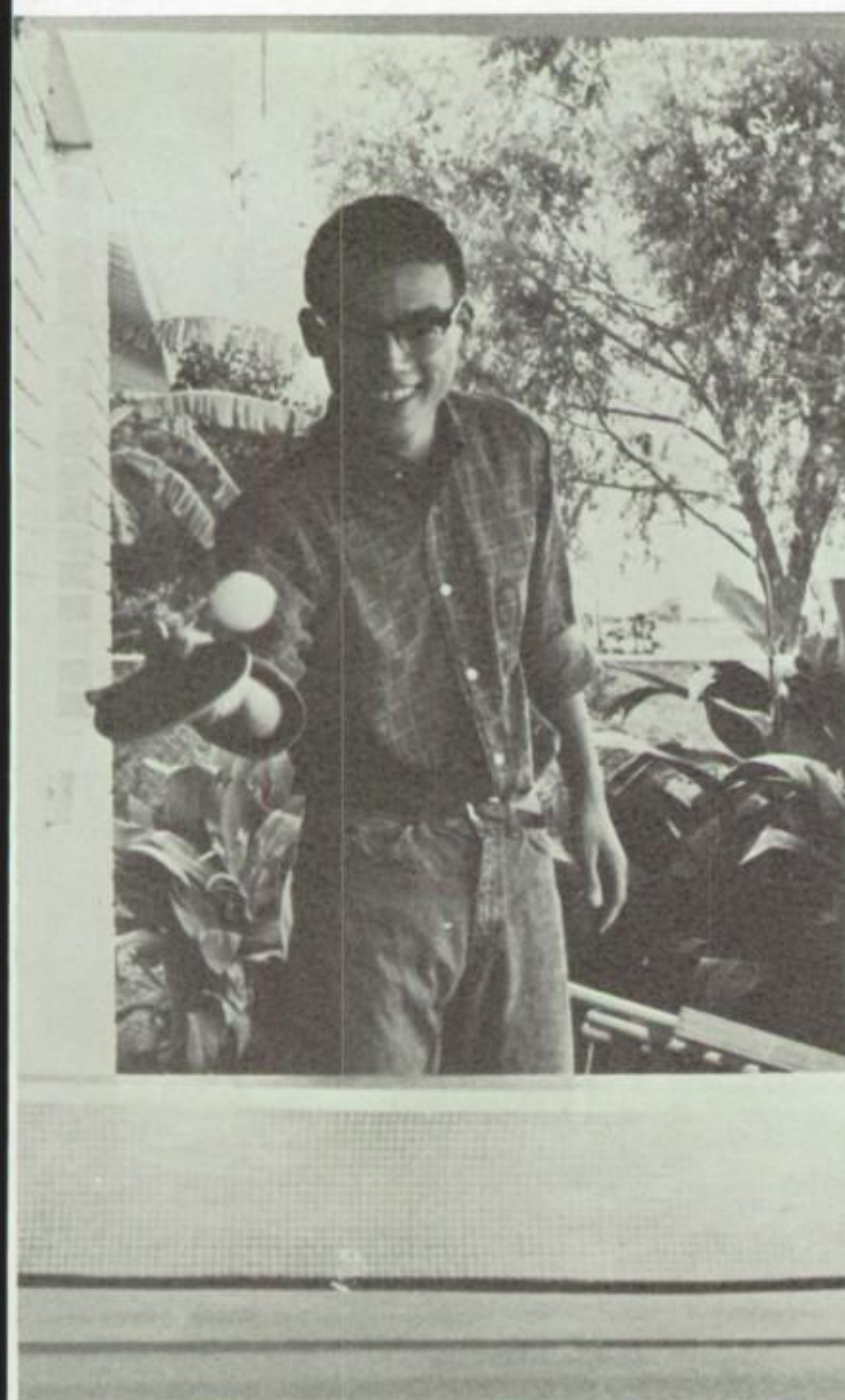

President of his Junior Class in Naruto, Japan, he traveled to a state which he calls "wide and independent" -- Texas. His American brother, Senior Don Curry, taught him about cowboy hats, T-shirts and sneakers: he became inseparable from these San Antonio institutions.

For Kazuchan, Lee is a world of triple somersaults, a pineapple upside-down world, of crazy sideways writing and enough memories to last forever.

三原和彦

Upon his arrival from Naruto, Japan, Kazuchan Mihara is welcomed by Lee-ites.

Ping pong has proven to be one of Kazuchan's favorite American pastimes.

Bringing a touch of Japanese to the talent show, Kazuchan sings the popular song "Sukiyaki."

Tommy Camp's satirical interpretation of "Hamlet for the Second Grader" won a first place trophy in the specialty division.

Top honors in the instrumental division went to pianist Steve Davis and his combo of Fletcher Clark on base and Carlton Hoffman on drums.

Fletcher Clark accompanied by Jimmy Schulman and Steve Scates took first place in the vocal division.

Displaying agility with the fire baton, band aerialist Gloria Swerk received a first place in the exhibition category.

An operatic farce directed by Marcia Guthridge and staged by 17 Seniors copped "Best Over-all" honors.

Seniors Win "Best Over-all" in Talent Show

Strains of "Once a Year Day," the theme song of the seventh annual "Stars Over Lee" Talent Show set the scene for 25 performances marked by comedy, solemnity and satire. A packed audience at both performances was entertained with acts moving to the eyes, soothing to the ears and gay to the heart.

This year saw the Seniors under the direction of Marcia Guthridge take the "Best Over-all" division for their satire on the German Opera "Die Fledermaus." Glenn Zinsmeyer and his dancing group were awarded the "director's choice" honors.

In the singing division Fletcher Clark took first place for his version of "Ebenizer" and "House of the Rising Sun"; Ted Garza and company merited second place.

For his performance of "Misty," Steve Davis won first place in the instrumental section while the Westhavens copped second.

In the specialty group Tommy Camp placed first for his impersonation of Hamlet as a boy. Marcia Guthridge copped second award for her vaudeville comedy.

Gloria Swerk captured first honors for her flaming baton twirling while acrobat Richard Jones bounced into second on his trampoline.

The dancing division featured Senior Suzanne Weeber as first place winner and Sophomore Jo Ann Trevino, second place.

Senior Suzanne Weeber placed first in the dancing category with her performance of "Checkmate."

English Aids Foreign Students

Ahmad and Foroohar check corrections on a vocabulary test with their English teacher, Mrs. Dorothy Minnick.

Anne-Marie displays her vocal ability by appearing in this year's talent show.

Peter and Kazuchan go over last minute details for an American Field Service meeting.

Senior Class President Peter Williams briefs foreign students Bruce McKee, Ahmad Vahed, Kazuchan Mihara, Foroohar Boorboor and Anne-Marie Verstegen on events taking place at Lee during the year.

The United Nations has established an office at Robert E. Lee--or so agree six Lee students who have enjoyed citizenship or extended visits in foreign lands.

Senior Class President Peter Williams spent two months on the salty Adriatic coast of Italy as part of the "Americans Abroad" program. Other delegates to Lee's U.N. include Anne-Marie Verstegen, who spent the first fourteen years of her life in Belgium; Bruce McKee, representative from France; Kazuchan Mihara, Lee's foreign exchange student from Japan; and two Iranian visitors, Foroohar Boorboor and Ahmad Vahed.

Foroohar and Ahmad attended Lee for the first semester in preparation for college in the states.

Returning from a summer in Italy as part of the Americans Abroad program, Peter is welcomed by Senior Class members.

Students around campus were amused by the antics of Art II students trying desperately to fly their kites. Here, seniors Marian Wyatt, Norma Goldstein, Cheryl Miller, Darlene Schultz, Kevin Anderson and Ingrid Forbrich try their luck.

Prof Says "Go Fly a Kite" And They Did!

Having been influenced by the latest TV programs, bewitched chemistry students Larry Witt and Ken Cadena concoct their own special brew in the laboratory.

Ed Bullock's kite received top honor as "Kite Most Likely to Aviate."

Home work... tests... term themes... These are the normal assignments Lee-ites would expect to find in the classroom. But, many Lee students have found assignments quite out of the ordinary.

Mr. Doyle Brown's Art II students were required to design, build and fly their own unique kites for their six weeks test.

Geometry students from Mrs. Frances Everett's classes were seen bringing their needles and thread to class in order to work on their projects. Each had to make a design using only straight lines.

Chemistry students with inquisitive minds conjured up projects to enter into science fairs.

Senior Linda Morgan finds, much to her disappointment, some kites just weren't meant to fly.

Geometry students Glenda Walden, Halleta Hightower and Erick Nordloh display some of their completed class projects.

Advertising Managers: Linda Dixon
Diane Leske

Advertising--more than anything else-- shows how "The World Belongs to the Young," for it is here that teens become acquainted with many adult money problems. For the first time, students realize what it is like to make that monthly payment on a car, typewriter or new formal.

Teenagers have a tremendous buying capacity through parents' charge accounts and payment credit plans. The advertising section also represents those hard-working Lee-ites who complete a day of classes and then go to after school hours job.

The World of the Young at Lee . . .

The World of the Young at Lee has come to an end for the Seniors, but it is only a beginning of memories and new experiences for future Juniors and Seniors. We Seniors can look back upon the traditions, leaders, spirit, honors, goals and aims that belong to us as Lee-ites.

The 1965 TRAVELER has served its purpose--to record a wonderful year full of life in the World of the Young. The next step is the adult world, a world full of challenges for the young and old alike.

The Senior Class of 1965 can now look back upon a year packed full of fun and memories.

. . . Now Memories

To Barbara,
One of the sweetest girls I have enjoyed knowing this year in Spanish. Autographs
Good luck!
Daddy Beckingham

Barbara.
It has been fun in Biol. Hope we will be friends in years to come.
Lots of Luck

Barbara
You are one of the finest girls I know & a precious one at that. Stay as cute
& as sweet as you are & you will surely go far.
Best of luck in future
